The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The City of Newark has lately taken title to premises formerly of Fannie Sabel, known as Lot No. 1—Block 3766, which premises were taken for the opening and widening of Dayton Street, an agreement for the purchase of the said lands having been made in June, 1930, but due to delays in searching the title conveyance was not accepted by the City until December 10, 1930. Between the date of the agreement and the date of taking title, the premises were inadvertently sold by the Comptroller for taxes in arrears. On November 14, said Fannie Sabel paid all liens on the premises, and at the closing of title presented a title free and clear of municipal liens. A compromise was arrived at, whereby the Corporation Counsel agreed to recommend a refund of Forty-One Dollars and Fifty Cents ($41.50), being interest and costs since the sale for tax arrears, and a further sum of Four Dollars and Eighty Three Cents ($4.83) for 1930 taxes, making a total sum of Forty Six Dollars and Thirty Three Cents ($46.33); and it appearing that this is a fair and equitable adjustment,

BE IT RESOLVED By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, that the sum of Forty-Six Dollars and Thirty-Three Cents (46.-33) be and the same is hereby appropriated to Fannie Sabel.

WHEREAS, that portion of Buck Street lying outside of the bed of South Twelfth Street was duly vacated by ordinance adopted January 16, 1902 and approved January 20, 1902 by the Board of Street and Water Commissioners of the said City of Newark, and

WHEREAS, The Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Frank and Arthur Lindeman for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 345 Badger Avenue;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this matter?

Mr. Philip Nohemie, 45 Branford Place: Mr. Mayor and members of the City Commission: I wish to take up now the result of an investigation that the opponents to the erection of this gasoline station have disclosed. If you will recall, the applicants for this station filed a set of building plans showing that at its widest point this plot was 27½ feet; and Mr. McCloskey, of Levy, Fenster & McCloskey's office made an investigation and found that it was only 22½ feet. The proponents of the station denied this and strenuously insisted that it was 27½ feet. I went up there and measured the plot from curb to curb, and was advised by Mr. Kane's office that the total width of both sidewalks was 14½ feet; and subtracting the length I found on the plot from the width of the sidewalks, I found that the plot was only 22½ feet wide. I made a thorough search in the Register's Office and found that all the deeds referred to a map which showed the plot to be only 22.63 feet wide. Since this is a very narrow plot and tapers off to about six inches at its narrowest point, I submit it would be impossible to erect a station on the plot that could comply with the city ordinances and the rules and regulations of the Fire Department. There are other and more important considerations to be taken up, but we have discussed those before, and I respectfully submit that since the plot is not wide enough, and there is strenuous opposition, more than three-quarters of the property owners in the immediate vicinity objecting to it, I ask that the application be denied.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Mortimer Eisner, 24 Branford Place: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission: I do not desire to be heard in opposition; I do not see any reason why I should repeat what has been already said. I represent the applicants here. We have gone over the thing thoroughly; so far as the last two arguments are concerned which I have heard counsel for the objectors propound, with respect to the violation of the City ordinances, that we do at our peril. If we do not build within the regulations, of course, we are subject to the violation rules. If the fire risk is increased by them, of course, we likewise take the chance on that. We say we have gone over the ground thoroughly; that the plot is suited for this purpose and a gas station can be built and we can build it to comply with all the city regulations; and for far as opposition is concerned, I say I have already filed enough consents to indicate that not three-quarters of the persons are property owners who have a right to object, on the contrary, I have over fifty per cent. of them who have already indicated their willingness and approval of this application. In view of that situation I do not think anything further need be said by me. I can only say this, that this applicant is one of the biggest property owners along there and that the neighborhood would not be damaged, on the contrary, it would be improved if this application be granted; and lastly; on account of the small plot of ground here suitable for only this purpose; to deny this man the use of this land, a use which he would have had before the Zoning Ordinance, is practically to confiscate and make it useless for any purpose. I submit, gentlemen, this application has reason and merit, and in justice should be granted.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who wants to be heard?

Mr. Nohemie: May I say one word, Mr. Mayor? I am willing to let the result rest on whether or not fifty per cent. of the property owners in the immediate vicinity have filed their consent to the erection of this station. And I am also willing to let the result of this application rest on whether or not the property is 22½ feet as I maintain it is, or whether it is 27½ feet as the applicants maintain it is and in accordance with which they have filed a plan. I believe that an application of this kind should not be considered when the applicants file a plan which is misleading. I have here a letter in my pocket showing that the applicants knew that it was only 22½ feet and they deliberately filed a plan showing the plot was 27½ feet. I have a letter which was mailed in July showing conclusively that the applicants were aware of the width of their plot.

Mayor Congleton: The resolution is to concur in the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment granting the permit. All in favor of granting the permit will vote aye; opposed no.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared lost by the following votes:

Nayes: Commissioner Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: I believe Assemblyman Zink is here to ask a suspension of the rules.

Commissioner Murray: Is that for ten years?

Mayor Congleton: There is a recapture clause there. That is the old Jenkinson property.

Commissioner Murray: Are they taking the building down?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: What is the purpose of ten years?

Mr. Homer C. Zink, 24 Commerce Street: There is a ten year lease with a recapture clause at any time payment of a consideration; and, of course, it will be recaptured and the property will be otherwise used just as soon as conditions warrant it. We feel we would not be justified at this time in adding to the vacant stores and lofts that are now in the city. We can conceive of no other use at this time.

Commissioner Murray: I have no objection to the use of the property as a parking station, but should it be for ten years?

Mayor Congleton: As it was explained to me, R. C. Jenkinson's children gave the business he was carrying on there to his employees. Mr. Jenkinson knew that property was altogether too expensive for the business they were doing; they had been running at a loss for many years, but Mr. R. C. Jenkinson's pride in his business kept him from moving from there and he was making up the deficit from his own pocket. And the employees, when they got the business, immediately moved out. It is a factory building and cannot be used for any other purpose. They are tearing it down. This lease has a recapture clause in it, and as soon as the real estate market improves they can put it to some better use.

Commissioner Murray: All right.

Mr. Zink: We could not tie it up for ten years, but with the recapture clause upon payment on a sliding scale for a short time, and then we can recapture without payment. I might say there was one opponent yesterday, and he was asked if he would appear today, and he said, "The devil with it."

Commissioner Egan: I move the rules be suspended.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Italo Trevisan for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 119 Park Avenue;

Therefore Be It RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the applications above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this?

Mr. Joseph A. D'Alessio, 207 Market Street.

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I represent the applicant in this matter. A permit was granted by the Board of Adjustment two weeks ago for a drive-in station at 119 Park Avenue. The premises are now occupied by a brick building which is used as a gasoline station with a permit for curb tanks. We believe that in granting this application the neighborhood will be improved to this extent: At the present time with a narrow roadway there are cars stopping at the curbway for gas, which take up a lot of space on that roadway, a considerable part of it. The drive-in station will eliminate that. We will keep those cars off the streets.

In the second place, the building now on the premises is built up to the building line, and that corner had been a bad corner for many years, since the building is up. It has caused numerous accidents. If the building is taken out of there it will set it back thirty feet, giving a greater range of visibility and helping to eliminate some of the bad accidents there have been there. There is no logical reason that I can see against granting this permit. It has been used as a gas station for eleven years, and the only thing we ask to take that building down and move it back thirty feet.

Commissioner Gillen: Do you want to use the same building?

Mr. D'Alessio: No, we want to construct a modern building on it. At the present time the building is eleven years old.

Commissioner Gillen: You said you were going to move the present building back.

Mr. D'Alessio: I made a mistake. I mean to put up a new building.

Commissioner Murray: It is true that your client is willing to cut the corner back four feet?

Mr. D'Alessio: Yes, my client is willing to do that.

Commissioner Murray: I move that it be laid over for one week, and disposed of finally then.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Salvatore Dellano (Gaetano Dellano, owner) for the conversion of a garage to a poultry market; premises 67-69 Summer Avenue;

Therefore Be It RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the application be laid over for one week.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Cook & Durn Paint Corp. (Howard Cleaners, Inc. owner) to manufacture paint in a First Industrial District; premises 101-115 St. Francis Street;

Therefore Be It RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustments be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Commissioner Egan: I have been asked by Mr. Schlesinger, who has written me, that the matter be laid over for one week on account of his being out of town.

Mr. Alexander Schlesinger, 31 Clinton Street.

Commissioner Egan: You know that your father has sent me a letter on this matter?

Mr. Schlesinger: Yes, I know that, but I just want to call your attention to a letter sent to Mr. Russell Rankin, Secretary of the Board of Adjustment, which is a letter from Cook and Dunn, the occupants of this property. A copy of that letter was supposed to be delivered to each one of the Commissioners yesterday.

Mayor Congleton: I suppose we all received it. It was the letter withdrawing the word "varnish"?

Mr. Schlesinger: I just want to emphasize that no varnish will be manufactured.

Commissioner Egan: What is the plant to be used for?

Mr. Schlesinger: Paint—cold water paint.

Mayor Congleton: That was before the conference yesterday. There seems to be a great difference between the manufacture of paint and manufacture of varnish. The varnish is what causes the fumes and the smells.

Do I understand that the application is to lay the resolution over for a week?

Mr. Schlesinger: Well, I want to prevent that week's delay by this supplemental letter which was sent yesterday. I think the eliminating of the varnish hazard would explain this present situation.

Commissioner Howe: That is heavy industrial in a light industrial section?

Mr. Schlesinger: Of course, the original use, this cleaning and dyeing, is much less to be desired than the proposed use now.

Commissioner Howe: That was before the zone was in, wasn't it?

Mr. Schlesinger: Yes. You have a letter on this paint matter, Mr. Murray?

Commissioner Murray: Yes, I received a copy of the letter.

Mr. Schlesinger: Where it eliminates the varnish situation?

Commissioner Murray: Yes, to manufacture paint, cold mixing process. Your man said that he hoped to make varnish there in five or six year from now. He should have waited five or six years from now to make the application.

Mr. Schlesinger: The manufacture of the paint is done by a cold-mixing process.

Commissioner Murray: I move that it be laid over for one week.

Mr. Joseph Steiner: 730 Broad Street: Gentlemen I appear for the applicants.

Mayor Congleton: We will hear the objectors, if there are any here.

Mr. Ludwig Fechter, 134 Verona Avenue.

Gentlemen, this Mr. Hampton has a factory there after the house of my sister, 110 Verona Avenue. Now he is adjoining. He wants to put up a new factory.

Mayor Congleton: He wants to put an addition in front of the present factory.

Mr. Fechter: That is right.

Mayor Congleton: Another building 42 by 50. That factory has been there a great many years.

Mr. Fechter: My sister's house was there before the factory was.

Mayor Congleton: The factory has been there for twenty years or more.

Mr. Fechter: I don't know. I couldn't tell you, but it was a blacksmith's shop first.

Mayor Congleton: You see, our ordinance provided that where there was a plant in a district which is non-conforming the person can add to his property on land that he then owned or subsequently acquired that was contiguous to it.

Mr. Steiner: This house is not a private house.

Mayor Congleton: What is it?

Mr. Steiner: The house that this gentleman speaks of is not a private dwelling. He has a restaurant business in there. He is very busy at night. Nobody lives there. It is not a private dwelling that this extension interferes with.

Mr. Fechter: May I speak to you, gentlemen?

This living room is above the restaurant. It is a two-and-a-half-story building.

Commissioner Murray: Are you right next door to it?

Mr. Steiner: There are drapes in the doorway.

It is not a private dwelling.

Commissioner Howe: Does the owner of the restaurant live upstairs, or does a tenant?

Mr. Fechter: No, she rented it out. There is a restaurant downstairs and rooms upstairs.

Commissioner Howe: Who has the restaurant?

Mr. Fechter: She has the restaurant.

Commissioner Gillen: That would be next door to the new addition?

Mr. Fechter: Yes.

Commissioner Gillen: Do you think that that would hurt you?

Mr. Fechter: Well, we don't want it.

Commissioner Howe: It might help the business of the restaurant, wouldn't it?

Mr. Fechter: No.

Mr. Slavatorz Testa: 390 Lincoln Avenue.

Gentlemen, my father-in-law has a place at 390 Lincoln Avenue, and it was understood when he bought this place that no more factories could be built there.

Mayor Congleton: So he didn't look up our zoning ordinance, did he?

Mr. Testa: Yes, but not above Broadway. They don't object to that present building only if they are going to build back.

Mr. Steiner: They are going to build in the front, and not in the back.

Mr. Testa: And enlarge that place without building up against our property.

Commissioner Howe: I should like to look at it. I think that it should be laid over for one week.

Mr. Steiner: But the Board of Adjustment has already approved it.

Commissioner Howe: Yes, but we want to satisfy ourselves now. We are the ones who have to approve it now.

Mr. Steiner: I can give you the entire thing in a nutshell. This is at Verona Avenue near Broadway. Across the street is the Parks File Works and the freight station of the New York and Greenwood Lake Railroad. This factory has been there for twenty years in sheds in the back. This objector, his mother-in-law or somebody, was here before the Zoning Board two weeks ago, and they admit that the factory was there before that shed and they bought the factory. These people didn't make any representation to them; it was the person who sold the real estate to them. They also admitted under my cross-examination that they can't distinguish between the odors, that come from the Erie Railroad, from the Passaic River, or from the factories. Now the effect of this shed is this: It is not a new building; it is an extension. It is a concrete block building. They are going to do their manufacturing in front there. They have absolutely no legitimate grounds for objecting. Their property might be helped. We are increasing the City's ratables by putting up a six-thousand-dollar building and we are helping a man who has been a citizen of Newark for twenty years to have a legitimate expansion of his business.

Commissioner Howe: Under the law they are entitled, you know, to add to a building that was there before the law was put into effect.

Mr. Testa: Where are they going to add? In the front?

Commissioner Howe: I don't see how any harm can come from allowing us a week to inspect this. That isn't much delay.

Mr. Testa: They intend to build in the front.

Commissioner Egan: From the looks of the map it seems as though there is a vacant lot between your property and this plant.

Mr. Fechter: Just only garages. There are two garages there now.

Mr. Steiner: The factory won't be flush against his property.

Commissioner Gillen: The plan supplied here for the information of this Board doesn't show any change in this property next to yours.

Mr. Fechter: There are two garages there.

Mr. Steiner: Yes, two garages.

Commissioner Gillen: Where is that?

Mr. Fechter: Next to Mr. Hampton's factory, where he is going to build.

Commissioner Gillen: Who owns that lot?

Mr. Fechter: My sister.

Commissioner Gillen: There are two garages?

Mr. Fechter: Yes. That is as true as I am telling, you gentlemen.

Commissioner Howe: Where is it here?

Commissioner Murray: That little cross there is a new building.

Commissioner Egan: I move that it be laid over for one week for further inspection:

Board of Adjustment,
Newark, N. J., Jan. 20, 1931.

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, L. L. 1928, that the following structures and uses in variance with the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

923-925 Eighteenth Ave., Girard Investment Co., owner; gasoline station for a period of ten years;

232-236 Halsey St., Frederick H. Tiplin, owner; automobile parking station;

39-41 Treat Pl., Daniel T. Haggerty (William E. Lehmann, owner; automobile parking station);

271-279 West End Ave., Renner Investment & Construction Co., owner; gasoline station; for a period of ten years;

122 Peshine Ave., Marion Tyjewski (John Kuhn, owner); establishment of a laundry in present building;

The Board of Adjustment,

R. B. Rankin,
Secretary.

On motion the communication was received, read and copy ordered sent to each Commissioner and further action postponed for two weeks.

Mr. Oakley Cook, 180 Washington Street.

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, if it is agreeable to the Board we would like to ask in regard to the Halsey Street application that you suspend the rules and act on the matter today.

The City Clerk: This is the application of Frederick H. Taylor for permission to have an automobile parking station at 232-236 Halsey Street.

Mayor Congleton: This is a matter where, I understand, the permit was granted by a divided vote of three to two. I think that we ought to inspect the property ourselves so that we know first-hand what it is. We do not suspend the rules unless the application has the unanimous vote of the Board of Adjustment. Where it has a divided vote we give the matter further consideration to see if there are objectors.

Mr. Cook: I don't think there was anyone there that brought up any objection.

Mayor Congleton: There was a very close vote in the Board of Adjustment, and we feel that when we have a matter of that kind we ought to give it further study and consideration ourselves. We do not suspend our rules under such circumstances.

Mr. Cook: Mr. Mayor, the only reason why we have come here today is that the owner has a chance to rent the property, and he doesn't want to hold it up, but to rent it as quick as possible. We are perfectly willing to acquiesce in the judgment of the Board, and I thank you.

A communication from the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commissioners, dated January 16, 1931, requesting payment under contract, was received, read and on motion ordered referred to the Director of Revenue and Finance.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the following person, resident of the ward specified opposite his name, be and he is hereby appointed Constable of the City of Newark, for a term of one year, beginning January 1, 1931:

Philip Cipriano, 387 Badger Avenue,
9th Ward.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter that he desires to call to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. George H. Reed, 2 Beaver Street.

Mr. Mayor, on February 21, 1930—I might say that I am accompanied here by Captain Boyd, a past commander, and Past Commander Otto Wittick. On February 21, 1930, there was a communication from the Spanish War Veterans, your neighbors across the street, in regard to the renaming of Clifton Avenue, Norfolk Street, Jones Street and Belmont Avenue, to be changed to either McKinley Avenue, or Roosevelt Avenue. We received an answer from you on February 21, 1930. We have just come over here today to find out what action has been taken.

Mayor Congleton: We did take action. We introduced an ordinance to rename Clifton Avenue, Norfolk Street, Jones Street and Belmont Avenue Roosevelt Avenue, and the matter was before us. The property owners on various sections of that long artery all filed petitions that if the name was to be changed they didn't want—each group wanted the through street named after the particular street that they lived on. We carried the matter through for many weeks. There was no one who spoke in favor of the change, and all the property owners along the street, practically, were here by their representatives objecting to it, so the ordinance was killed a couple of weeks ago after having been before the Board of Commissioners for months.

Mr. Reed: Is there any way by which we could revive it? I think the name of Roosevelt would not only be a very good name, but it would be a credit to the City.

Mayor Congleton: The Board of Commissioners thought they would like to perpetuate the name, but we have to give some consideration to people who live along these thoroughfares where you are changing the name.

It meant changing all the house numbers. A lot of them had their numbers cut in their brownstone copings, and there was a great deal of opposition to the change.

Mr. Reed: Still, it is a fact that having four streets one following the other—

Mayor Congleton: We are in thorough sympathy with doing away with that.

Mr. Reed: Couldn't we have another resolution introduced again and have another hearing on it?

Mayor Congleton: An Ordinance can be introduced if the Commissions feel that it is advisable, but we didn't get very far with the first one.

Mr. Reed: Supposing that were done and that we were to have another public hearing on to it where we could appear ourselves?

Mayor Congleton: How many of your men live on that street?

Haven't we, after all, got to give some consideration to the people who live there and who are affected by the change and where, as they say, it would put them to the expense of changing the numbers and disfiguring their steps where they had the numbers cut in, and things of that kind?

Mr. Reed: The same thing happened on Belleville Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: But there the procedure was different. The property owners along the street were asking for the change, and if you can get the people along this street, or a good part of them, in sympathy with your proposition we would be only too glad to do it, but there weren't any people along the street who were here advocating the change. They were opposing it. There was no one here advocating it. We carried it along for months.

Mr. Reed: Could it be revived in any way so we could possibly go up and work on the people?

Mayor Congleton: You go up and work on the people and see if you can get some of them in favor of it, and if you do we will be only too glad to introduce another ordinance.

Captain Boyd: Do I understand that each street residents are opposed to it, all of them?

Mayor Congleton: Oh, I wouldn't say every single individual.

Captain Boyd: I didn't mean that.

Mayor Congleton: For instance, the people living on that part that is now called Clifton Avenue said "If you are going to change it and carry one name for the through street, then, we think it ought to be called Clifton Avenue all the way through." The people on Belmont Avenue took the same attitude. They wanted the name Belmont Avenue and they gave us the history of the name. They thought that if a new street name were given it ought to be Belmont Avenue all the way through. The same condition prevails with regards to Jones Street, and when we come to Norfolk Street it was the same thing. They all had a pride in the name that their part of the street bore. That was our problem.

Captain Boyd: What procedure—suppose we would have an opportunity to get signers, all property owners on any and all of those streets? Is that something you would like to have?

Mayor Congleton: Yes, we would like to have some expression of the property owners along there that they have changed their attitude. If you had a little petition drawn up addressed to us asking us to change what is known as Belmont Avenue, Clifton Avenue, Norfolk Street and Jones Street to Roosevelt Avenue and get some signers in each group, we will give the matter further consideration.

Mr. Reed: Thank you.

Mayor Congleton: Will you take notice, gentlemen, that next Wednesday we have fixed ten o'clock for the public hearing on our budget.

Commissioner Egan moved to adjourn until Wednesday, January 28, 1931, at Ten o'clock A. M.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

The Board of Commissioners of
the City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.,
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., January 28, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: The time has now arrived when we will sit to hear anyone who desires to be heard on this budget. Under the law taxpayers are the only ones who have the right to be heard. Just so long as any person confines himself to a discussion of the budget we will hear anyone who desires to be heard. Who will be the first?

The following communication was received and read:

Chamber of Commerce of The City of Newark, N. J.

To The Honorable Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J.:

Gentlemen:—

On behalf of the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Newark, N. J., its Committee on Municipal Affairs submits the following in connection with the Municipal Budget for the year 1931.

Constructive criticism of the budget cannot be based entirely on the published figures. There are, no doubt, many projects for which there is some public demand which the Commissioners have wisely declined or deferred. Dropping the proposed widening of Academy Street, serves as an example. The capitalized cost of such an improvement, while not reflected in the budget for the current year, would be reflected in future years in the sinking fund interest requirements in the Debt Service Appropriations. Such charges as are represented in the Debt Service now amount to one-fourth of the municipal budget. These charges which, for 1931, will equal $5,981,621.-38, have reached a point where it will be wise for the Commissioners to be even more reluctant to comply with demands for improvements of various kinds, the cost of which must be met by interest bearing funds.

The increase in the cost of the Outdoor Poor Department is, of course, partly caused by the present economic depression. It is an emergency item which everyone hopes may soon disappear from the budget. This service, however, in 1930 cost $493,558.80, and necessitated an appropriation of $265,000.00, in the current budget to cover emergency bonds issued in excess of the 1930 appropriation. Contrasted with the 1930 expenditure, the appropriation for 1931 is $300,000.00.

The Committee has no thought that this appropriation should be made in a larger sum, but points to the possibility that an unanticipated prolongation of the present conditions may necessitate expenditures for Outdoor Poor in 1931 in excess of the budget item. Such a possibility, it is urged, is one additional reason why budget expenditures which are within the control of the Commission should be brought to a minimum.

In connection with the matter of relief for the poor and with the City's growing indebtedness, the Commission desires to remark the form of relief which has been given by furnishing employment as laborers on the City Railway at an admitted increase in cost over mechanical methods of excavating.

The excess cost of this work by pick and shovel, while purely a form of temporary charitable relief, is being met by the issuance of bonds presumably representing a capital investment.

The Committee is inclined to doubt the wisdom of using capital funds in this manner. It recommends a separation of the cost so that capital funds will only be charged a reasonable cost for the work involved and that the amount which in effect, is charitable relief, be met with current funds.

The Committee further recommends that this problem be reconsidered to determine the advisability of real-locating funds which have already been disbursed, to the end that the final cost of the improvement as charged to capital funds will be a fair one.

The recognition of the present economic crisis in the business life of the City, as voiced by the Mayor, is, the Committee believes shared by the other Commissioners. The abolishment of regular increases in pay for school teachers and the budgets, generally, are evidence of this fact.

However, a perusal of the budgets indicates that the recommended salary and wage appropriation for 1931, is $417,727.66, greater than the expenditures for personnel in 1930. $225,605.53 of this sum is represented by increases in appropriation over last year's expenditures for particular jobs. Of course, the Commission may not intend to grant the increases which the budget reflects, but if such is the case, it would appear that there is no necessity for raising, through the tax levy, such a sum in excess of salary and wage requirements.

These items appear in all departments, as follows:

NET INCREASE IN 1931 APPROPRIATION OVER 1930 EXPENDITURE FOR SALARY AND WAGES FOR SPECIFIC JOBS.

Department of Revenue & Finance .....	$ 22,068.82
Department of Public Affairs .....	36,677.81
Department of Parks & Public Property .....	13,757.50
Department of Public Works .....	21,232.89

Department of Public Safety .....	122,899.51
Non-Departmental .....	8,969.00

Total .....$225,605.53

The other sum, which, added to the above makes up the total of $417,727.66, is composed of salary and wage items which appear to be for increased personnel. By departments, they occur as follows:

Department of Revenue & Finance .....	NONE
Department of Public Affairs .....	A decrease of $ 81,180.50
Department of Parks & Public Property .....	22,725.00
Department of Public Works .....	25,634.76
Department of Public Safety .....	204,469.87
Non-departmental .....	20,473.00

Total .....$192,122.13

The Committee recommends that all present employees be paid at the same rate as in 1930, and that the excess appropriation for salaries and wages of these employees, in the total sum of $225,605.53, be stricken from the budget.

The Committee likewise recommends that the Commissioners reconsider the need for increased personnel during 1931, and eliminate all or a large part of the sum of $192,122.13, designed for this purpose.

When giving consideration to additional employees, it is interesting to note that there are now about 5,970, employees on the payroll, not including laborers on a temporary basis. Based on the present population, one out of every 75 inhabitants of the City is a City employee.

In this connection, the Committee specifically recommends that the new police station at the Port of Newark, known as the 9th Precinct, be not manned, with a consequent saving in both personnel and operating cost, and that, if, in the judgment of the responsible Director, additional policemen are needed in the Ironbound

District, the minimum number required be added to the force of existing precinct stations covering that territory.

The Committee does not feel that the existence of the 9th precinct station, now nearing completion, necessitates its use, but suggests that, as it is practically completed, it may be used as an administration building for the Newark Metropolitan Airport.

The Committee is informed that in line with its recommendation at the budget hearing last year, a budget has been prepared for the Water Department. It is now suggested that the total of expenditures and appropriations for this department be disclosed in the published budget.

The Committee understands that the budget, as published in the local press, conforms with the legal requirements, but it submits that when these bare legal requirements have been complied with, the Commission is justified in furnishing, either as part of the budget statement or as a supplement to it, the information about the Water Department. It likewise suggests that the taxpayer be more fully informed regarding such items as house sewer connections, where the appropriation in the advertised budget is $4,500, although the amount contemplated to be spent is $59,920. against which is applied collections amounting to $55,420.

The Bureau of Motors in the Department of Public Affairs has a published budget appropriation of $10,000, which sum is merely intended to carry the Bureau until the adoption of the budget, after which the various City Departments will be charged with the work done for them by the Bureau of Motors in a total sum for the current year of $203,214.00.

The published budget does not give the taxpayer a true picture of the financial operations of the Municipal Government. The fact that the law requires fees or collections from certain items to be applied to certain specific accounts, does not relieve the obligation on the part of the City Commissioners to fully inform the taxpayer. It is again urged that the published budget be amplified to this end.

The Committee further recommends that the compilation of the tentative budget forms for the various departments be standardized so that the same term will be used for the same item in each departmental budget; that payrolls be uniformly itemized; that counter charges among departments, such as allocated charges covering the Bureau of Motors, be clearly and uniformly labeled; and that increases or decreases in the budget appropriation reflect changes from the previous year's expenditures rather than the increase or decrease from the previous appropriation as is now the custom.

And finally, in this regard, the Committee recommends that the advertisement covering the City budget be amplified so as to include the previous year's expenditures and the increase or decrease from such expenditures—all to the end that the taxpayer may be truly informed as to the cost of his municipal government, and that such enlightenment will cause him to take a keener and more constructive interest in this important item of taxation.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Newark, N. J., by its Municipal Affairs Committee.

Francis Child,
Chairman.

Attest:—

Ross Nichols,
Secretary.

January 28, 1931.

Ordered filed.

Mr. Francis A. Child, Federal Trust

Building: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I have been requested by the Chamber of Commerce as Chairman of the Budget Committee of the Committee on Municipal Affairs to present, this report, which at least has the merit of brevity to the Commissioners.

Commissioner Howe: 'What was the increase in Revenue and Finance'?

Mr. Child: The increase in revenue and finance was $22,610.

Commissioner Howe: It is $6,010.

Mr. Child: Well, these figures were compiled by the Chamber of Commerce.

Mayor Congleton: I would like to make a statement with respect to the criticism made on the question of increased personnel and salary increases. I have made just as careful an analysis of this budget as possible and have called to my assistance Mr. Brady, not only with respect to my own department, but with respect to all the departments, anticipating that some such question would arise, and I would like to give my side of that picture.

The first is the Department of Public Works, in charge of Commissioner Murray. Under Public Health the increases shown in the budget for Public Health were made in 1930. No increases in salary are provided for in the 1931 budget. The increase of $3,240. in the Food and Drug Division is for the appointment of two additional inspectors. The increase of $1,200 for clinic physicians is for the appointment of two additional physicians. Commissioner Murray can justify the necessity for these additional men, which goes almost hand in hand with the economic conditions that are now upon us.

As to the City Hospital the budget does not provide for any increase in salary. The difference in amount shown over last year is due to additional employees, where again the population is so heavy.

The Public Baths shows no increase in salary. There is no increase in salary in the City Home. There is none in the Department of Outdoor Poor and none in the Department of Public Outings. The increase in salaries shown for the Ivy Hill Power Plant is for two additional institutional repair men appointed in 1930. For the Convalescent Hospital the budget shows no increase in salary. For the Alms House there is no increase in salary provided.

I analyzed all these various departments. I do care to bespeak the Department of Revenue and Finance, but the only increase I can find there in salary is $6,010. for new clerks that were appointed in 1930, one in the Comptroller's Office for $1160., one in the City Treasurer's Office for $1,850, one in the Tax Board Office for $2,000, one in the Tax Receiver's Office for $2,000.

Mr. Child: These figures, Mr. Mayor, I understand, were made up from expenditures rather than from appropriations.

Mayor Congleton: All right, the appropriations that we are comparing it with is the item that made the tax rate last year. Everything that is left over is accounted for in Expended Revenues and used in that way to reduce the amount to be raised by taxation this year. It is not used in any other way and cannot under the law be so used.

I may be wrong on some of these things—the Commissioners can tell you—but this is my analysis and I have made it for the purpose of being in a position to vote intelligently on this subject.

Commissioner Gillen's Department does not provide for any increase in salaries. The increase of $21,228.

shown in the budget is for additional employees appointed in 1930, caused by the opening and putting to full use the new annexes in back of the City Hall, including the District Court and the Board of Education Building.

The increase in the budget shown in the item of the Shade Tree Commission in the Department of Parks was caused by the operation of Hayes Park, which was put in operation last year, and of course in this budget we are bound to provide for a full year's salary for these employees. The District Court increase was caused by the appointment of two new clerks in May, 1930, over which we have absolutely no control. The Judge of a District Court can come in tomorrow and tell us that he has increased the salaries of his clerks to whatever figure he sees fit within the statute, and it would be mandatory upon us to raise it and do it.

The increases in the Law Department are for five members at $1,000 each, but the ordinance has not yet passed. The other item is for the transfer of a clerk from one department to a clerk in the Law Department at $3,000.

I have heard so much about the Police and Fireman automatic pay raises that I have been very careful, in view of the stand I have taken with respect to teachers' salaries. I analyzed that budget as carefully as I knew how and I found, very much to my surprise, that the increase in that budget by reason of the change of grade of various patrolmen amounts to the sum of $17,500.

Mr. Child: That is not excessive.

Mayor Congleton: In the Fire Department it amounts to $14,000, but their budget shows a net increase of only $7,000, so $7,000 of it has been saved in the other departments. The other items of the men in the Police Department are all properly accounted for by the increase in the personnel that the public has demanded.

Mr. Child: I think that the figures of the Chamber of Commerce were made up from expenditures rather than from appropriations last year. And if that is the fact, as I am informed that it is, then there would appear to be an increase over the contemplated expenditures from the actual expenditures that are increased in the year. Of course, where there is an increased personnel necessary there is no criticism of that, but with respect to the Ninth Precinct, we respectfully recommend your consideration of the suggestion that the precinct not be manned at this time.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard at this time?

Mr. John Kasper, 52 West Street: Mr. Mayor, gentlemen, and Commissioners, I am here heading a delegation from the Newark Campaign Committee for Unemployment Insurance.

Mayor Congleton: That is not a matter for discussion at this time.

Mr. Kasper: I am heading a delegation in here.

Mayor Congleton: Just a moment. We are here for a specific purpose this morning. This is the public hearing on the budget for 1931. We will hear you on any matter relating to this budget at this time. This is not the time for new matters. That will come later in our regular meeting.

Mr. Kasper: I am speaking of the budget now.

Mayor Congleton: All right, address yourself to the items.

Mr. Kasper: Reading the budget for 1931 I find that there is an item something close to $6,000,000. to be paid as redemption of loans and interest, while on the other hand, knowing that there are tens of thousands of unemployed workers in the City, with wives and children facing actual starvation, my organization through this delegation proposes that payment of this entire amount be postponed and the whole amount go into an unemployed fund.

Mayor Congleton: Well there is no use of your addressing is on that subject, because that obligation is a contract obligation and the City Commissioners of the City of Newark, I can assure you, do not propose to repudiate the City's bonds and default in their interest payments. It is a matter that is mandatory upon us, and there is no use of your wasting your time or our time in asking us to repudiate our bonds and put ourselves in the list of municipalities of the United States that have defaulted upon their bonds.

Mr. Kasper: It is not repudiation. I am asking for a postponement of payment.

Mayor Congleton: It cannot be postponed, sir.

Mr. Kasper: All right, nevertheless the City should do something in raising some amount of money to be paid as relief to the workers in the City.

Mayor Congleton: We are doing it, sir, in this budget and have been doing it right along.

Mr. Kasper: If you are speaking of the charity, the item that I seen in the budget, charity, a small amount of charity, that is enough for the workers. Besides, the workers resent charity. They don't want no charity; they want relief.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, and I am just a little bit sick of this proposition. I know that I am doing what you are looking for and I have been trying on my department to give work to people, yet you and your associates have been along the canal handing out your handbills urging the men to leave their jobs and come down here and make demands such as you are making. You don't want work. I have put over twenty-five hundred men to work there and they are tickled to have an opportunity to make an honest living; yet you and your associates are doing their best to disrupt them and call them off the work.

Mr. Kasper: Mr. Mayor, I just want to say there have been many evictions. Many families of workers who could not pay their rent due to the unemployment situation, they were evicted from their homes. I propose that you adopt a policy in here whereby there will be no evictions of any workman from his home because of his unemployment and non-payment of rent, and I further propose that there be a twenty per cent decrease in the rents that the employed workers are paying now, because rents are a little bit too high and the wages are too low, I further propose that the ex-service man, while also workers who fought during the war for the country, they be given cash for their policies now.

On behalf of the unemployed workers we want to also say that we want at least ten dollars a week for every unemployed worker and two dollars a week for each dependent. In this relief there should be no discrimination because of age, sex, color, nationality, or creed.

This is the demands I present to the City Commissioners and, Mr. Mayor, to you, and I want on behalf of the delegation and in behalf of the Newark Campaign Committee for Unemployed Insurance, I want some answer to those demands.

Mayor Congleton: Well, my answer is that you are addressing the wrong body. We cannot compel a man to decrease the rent. We cannot compel Congress to pay the soldiers their bonus, although I personally am in favor of making some adjustment on that. You ought to go down to Washington and talk to Congress on that. They are in session now. We have no power as to that.

Mr. Kasper: What do you propose to do about relief? Shall the workers starve?

Mayor Congleton: They are not.

Mr. Kasper: They are not starving, living on garbage.

Commissioner Murray: You have had the floor. Now sit down.

Mr. E. W. Wollmuth, Chamber of Commerce: Gentlemen, you have already heard Mr. Child read the written report prepared by the Committee on Municipal Affairs of the Chamber of Commerce. I would like to add just a word in connection with the compilation made for this committee with respect to the items pointed out in the budget system in the Chamber. The Committee, which is made up of some very heavy taxpayers, thought that a truer picture as to the amount expended in the previous year and the appropriations for the current year would be clearer and would more truly reflect the increase in cost in personnel without any question as to whether or not that personnel was required. That didn't enter into the considerations of the committee at all. Obviously there must be some doubt in the minds of the members of the Commission as to how we arrived at those figures. We shall be very glad to show the working figures to Mr. Brady, and then have him transmit them to the members of the Commission, if they agree to have that done.

We do ask that the points made in here with respect to the uniformity of the items in the budget—for instance one budget will show automobile accessories and repairs. We can bring out a uniformity of that and make it very much easier for those who are interested in analyzing the budget to understand just what that item means, and it affords a checkback with a total under the Bureau of Motors, which we obviously can't do now.

Commissioner Gillen: Do you mean to itemize them?

Mr. Wollmuth: Not so much to itemize them, Mr. Commissioner, but to have uniformity of the index, so that if you go through department budgets of the several departments, and the non-departmental budgets—you will find in one instance it is called accessories and repairs and in another instance it is garage and so on. You will pick that up very easily in the budget.

Commissioner Gillen: Do you mean to separate those items?

Mr. Wollmuth: They are separated now, but the designations are dissimilar, and it is very difficult to check back and balance against an item in the Motors Bureau. Of course, when people come in and say, "What does that mean?" And many of them have since the publication of the budget in the newspapers, we are not able to explain, although I do want to say that whenever we called Mr. Brady he certainly was very courteous and gave us everything we asked for. Obviously, however, between the time of the publication of the budget and the time of the meeting there are certain items you can't check back at all. It is obvious, therefore, that one cannot come down here and talk with proper knowledge and intelligence. We would like to have the opportunity, gentlemen, of presenting a detailed analysis of the payrolls. The payroll figures are omitted in the various budgets. I am not taking anyone particular item today, but there isn't any question of a doubt in the minds of those who have looked over these budgets, and in the minds of others who have come in for information—they do get the very definite idea that the payroll change, for instance—and I only use this as an example—in the Department of Revenue and Finance, is over $6,000, where actually it runs to a considerable sum above that. It totals in round figures over $22,000.

The point also arose as to when some of these payroll changes took place. If they took place in the fall of the year, when it was very well known that the economic depression was upon us, it should not have taken place at that time. There is one other point, with respect to the Ninth Precinct. It is believed that on account of conditions, and that is recognized by the Budget Committee as well, that we have approached to what might almost be termed a confiscatory tax rate. We think that further study should be given to the Ninth Precinct situation. It is believed that so far as the airport and Port Newark is concerned, from a police standpoint it can be pretty well covered, although you may need additional policemen, but it is believed that they can operate from existing police stations in the Ironbound District, in the light of our stress of heavy municipal expenses.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

(No response).

Commissioner Murray: I move that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe offered the following resolution:

Mr. Joseph D. Alessio, 207 Market Street.

Commissioner Murray: You said last week that the applicant was going to have that corner cut back?

Mr. D'Alessio: That is right.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk read the application of Salvatore Dellano (Gaetano (Dellano, owner) for the conversion of a garage to a poultry market; premises 67-69 Summer Avenue.

Commissioner Murray: I move that that be laid over, Mr. Mayor, because I have requested the Department of Health to make an inspection, report back, and give me a complete report on it.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk read the resolution concurring in the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment approving application of Hampton Auld for permission to construct addition to printing ink factory at 104-106 Verona Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard further on this matter?

Mrs. Barbara Horvelt, 392 Lincoln Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: All right, Madam. What is your objection?

Mrs. Horvelt: 392 Lincoln Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: That is in the rear? Your property would run back into the rear?

Mrs. Horvelt: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: The addition that they are building is in the front?

Mrs. Horvelt: Well, sir. I am objecting to the idea of a factory in the place altogether.

Mayor Congleton: Well, the factory is there and has been there for twenty years.

Mrs. Horvelt: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: When did you buy your property?

Mrs. Horvelt: Ten years ago.

Mayor Congleton: The factory was there when you bought it?

Mrs. Horvelt: Yes, but the houses on our street were there before Mr. Auld was there.

Mayor Congleton: I mean, you bought your house and went there to live after the factory was there?

Mrs. Horvelt: I didn't know it was any factory there. It was said about a shop for an ink factory, and then when I came there I found it was a chemical plant. He has been manufacturing anything. He had even an iron foundry operating in that place. As I said, he even had a brass factory in that place, and you know, a back door opens onto our backyards, and the fumes from that was so bad that it was perfectly choking. We have grapes in the backyard there, but we wasn't able to eat them without washing them, and the last year we couldn't eat them at all, because they were covered with a chemical fume. I left them on the trellis altogether.

Now, it depreciates our property so much. We can't keep decent tenants. One tenant left within two months. She went into hysterics when she seen the fire back in the place where the brass foundry was working.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Ludwig Fechter, 174 Verona Avenue:

You got my statement.

Commissioner Egan: Is this the same property that you are both talking about?

Mr. Fechter: No, I live adjoining Mr. Hampton Auld. I have the restaurant.

Mayor Congleton: The property you are objecting for is 110?

Mr. Fechter: I live 134 Verona Avenue. This is my sister's.

Mayor Congleton: The property you are objecting for is the one next to the plant with the vacant lot between, upon which you have erected garages?

Mr. Fechter: Yes, sir.

Mrs. Horvelt: The neighbors are so discouraged they didn't even care to come, but as I understand, gentlemen, it can't be passed without every neighbor adjoining this property being called here for a hearing, and this building that Mr. Auld has there wasn't even known as a factory and never was considered—

Mayor Congleton: What did they think it was?

Mrs. Horvelt: Well, it was just a shack, I was told. Why, the Board of Adjustment told me to my face, the lawyer that told me it was a residential section was fooling me. Now, I know there was five lawyers in my case, and they are not liars. As far as I have seen, Mr. Auld is always overstepping his rights.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who desires to be heard in opposition?

Commissioner Gillen: Is there a foundry there?

Mr. Steiner: There is no foundry, sir.

Mrs. Horvelt: It has been moved out by December first.

Commissioner Gillen: There is nothing there but an ink factory?

Mrs. Horvelt: I don't know what he is doing, a chemical factory, not ink alone. He even had the sign up, "Hampton Auld Chemical Works." Now, a chemical factory in our neighborhood there is not a place for anything like that.

Commissioner Gillen: I was under the impression that it was an ink factory.

Mrs. Horvelt: He calls it that, sir.

Commissioner Egan: I move that it be laid over for a week for further inspection.

Mayor Congleton: The motion is that the matter be laid over for a week for further inspection of the Commissioners.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mrs. Horvelt: If you please, gentlemen, has every property owner called?

Mayor Congleton: They have had their day in court.

Mrs. Horvelt: They weren't properly notified.

Mayor Congleton: Oh, yes, they were notified to appear before the Board of Adjustment.

Mrs. Horvelt: I was told no.

Mayor Congleton: Well, the records show that they were here.

Commissioner Murray: Some of them were here. A man on Lincoln Avenue said he didn't care as long they put the addition on the front and not the back.

Mrs. Horvelt: But they make chemicals there.

Commissioner Murray: What do you make up there?

Mr. Auld: Printing ink.

Commissioner Murray: What else?

Mr. Auld: Printing inks and dryers and varnishes.

Commissioner Murray: Varnishes?

Mr. Auld: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: How can you make varnishes up there?

Mr. Auld: Why, I boil them.

Commissioner Murray: Don't you have boilers and stills for varnish?

Mr. Auld: We have no stills, just a little boiling. We don't make much.

Commissioner Murray: What do you do with the varnish?

Mr. Auld: We use the varnish for making printing ink.

Commissioner Murray: Oh, that is part of the process of ink manufacturing?

Mr. Auld: Yes.

Mr. Steiner: The general idea is to build this as an addition in the front. All of this manufacturing which is objected to, instead of being done in the sheds, will be done in the concrete building in the front. As a matter of fact, it ought to make the neighborhood more comfortable there.

Mrs. Hervelt: This place has been such a menace to us. They had four fires within three years, gentlemen.

The City Clerk read the resolution concurring in the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment approving application of Cook & Dunn Paint Corporation for permission to manufacture paint at 109-115 St. Francis Street.

Mayor Congleton: A notation was made yesterday that that be laid over for a week for a further inspection by the Bureau of Combustibles.

Mr. John L. Schlesinger, 31 Clinton Street.

May I ask if the Bureau of Combustibles recommended that that is satisfactory?

Mayor Congleton: I don't know. We will have to see what the facts are.

Mr. Cook and Mr. Dunn are both here. They would like to get action favorably or unfavorably, because they have been held up for several extra weeks. They would like to know where they stand. They are ready to take title if the permit is granted, and they are being held up on that title.

Commissioner Murray: We will take definite action a week from today—positive action.

Commissioner Howe moved that the application be laid over to February 4, 1931.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter that he desires to bring to the attention of the Commission?

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

February, 1931

Newark, N. J., February 4, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present:—Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of the meeting of January 28, 1931, were read and approved.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the resignation of Frank R. La Fera, dated January 30, 1931, as Overseer of the Poor of the City of Newark, be and the same is hereby accepted, said Frank R. La Fera to be relieved of duties from the date of the said resignation, his salary to be paid to him until March 1st, 1931.

Jerome T. Congleton
Charles P. Gillen
John Howe
Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen: It was with great regret this morning that we learned that Mr. Joseph P. Murphy declined to accept the office of Director of Welfare vested with the powers of Overseer of the Poor; and in tendering his declination he gave us a very full statement of his reasons. Those are reasons which we could not argue against because they were a statement of what he considered his moral obligations to those working with him and to the job which he has undertaken and which he feels he has not yet completed. Mr. Murphy, nevertheless, said, in offering his refusal, that he could not see his way to do so without offering substantial suggestions which might relieve the situation as it now exists, and bring about a condition which would be so happy as to be satisfactory to all those who have a particular interest in that line of the City's business. Mr. Murphy spoke of a man who has been working with him for sometime, a man who formerly did this kind of work, a man who has qualified himself by study, contact and experience, and he has suggested that if this man be selected he, Mr. Murphy, will gladly, with or without compensation, accept the obligation of being the consultant of the department for a period of at least a year to the end that it may be organized so as to embrace all the welfare branches of the Department of Public Works, which we are all agreed would be a very happy solution. So far as we are concerned, and would be quite in line with what we would like to see done in our city. Mr. Murphy suggested the name of Mr. Owen A. Malady, and gave him unqualified approval as being the man with necessary experience and background to make him a most satisfactory appointee, if the Commission should see its way clear to designate him. The Commission has considered him and has accepted the suggestion of Mr. Murphy, and I am offering a resolution appointing Owen A. Malady, Overseer of the Poor, at a salary of $5,000 a year, arrangements as to Mr. Murphy in his connection with the Department to be determined upon as conditions will permit and just as soon as those conditions will permit; the appointment of Mr. Malady to take effect immediately. I feel that Mr. Murphy is entitled to the gratitude of the City Commission for his earnest study for the last several days; that we appreciate the full statement which accompanies his declaration of inability to accept the position at the present time, and to thank him for the suggestion which gives to us what I think is going to be, and what according to his judgment, which is very reliable in the premises, will be a happy solution of the entire situation. I offer this resolution.

Mr. Joseph P. Murphy: I might say, Mr. Mayor, I appreciate very deeply the expressions of confidence which each Commissioner has made in the last few days, and I am very grateful to both Commissioner Murray, for his very gracious attitude, and to the Commission for the manner in which they have considered me for this post. I hope to show in the future that I deeply appreciate that attitude.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I would like to say this, that I think in addition to all these features having to do with the welfare work of the City, that Mr. Murphy assuming this additional responsibility as consultant Director of Public Welfare, will more fully coordinate activities between the City and the County, even in so far as probation work is concerned, and will give Mr. Murphy an opportunity to more intimately keep in touch with problems having to do with the juvenile situation, in the hope of reducing crime in this City at the hands of the juveniles.

Mayor Congleton: I concur in all that has been said. I regret personally that Mr. Murphy could not accept the position, but I, of course, must respect his views with respect to what he considers his first obligation. His constructive suggestions, however, have helped us out of a rather difficult position, and to know that we are going to have the advice of Mr. Murphy in a consulting capacity for a year in assisting in coordinating of the various bureaus that have to do with welfare work, is really a very great thing, in my opinion.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, that Owen A. Malady is hereby appointed as Overseer of the Poor of the City of Newark, at a salary of Five thousand dollars ($5,000.) per annum, said salary to be paid in the same manner as all other salaries are paid; and said appointment to take effect immediately.

A communication, dated February 2, 1931, signed by various property owners, re: Application of Hampton Auld for the construction of a printing ink factory, 104-106 Verona Avenue, was received, read and on motion ordered filed.

The following petition was received and read:

Newark, N. J., Jan. 31, 1931.

To the City Commissioners of Newark:

Gentlemen:

We, who have signed our names to this petition, ask your kind consideration and protection of our interests as taxpayers and citizens of Newark in regard to an application of Hampton Auld, 104-106 Verona Ave., Newark, N. J., to build a factory at said address in violation of a Building Zone Ordinance.

Having a factory on this site would affect our fire insurance rates and depreciate our properties considerably.

Mr. Auld, a resident of Nutley, has furthermore maintained for years his present shop as a menace to the health and safety of his neighbors.

We trust that you gentlemen of the City Commission will give this matter your most careful consideration and sign:

(Signed by approximately 24 persons).

Ordered filed.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Hampton Auld, owner, for the construction of an addition to a printing ink factory; premises 104-106 Verona Avenue;

Therefore Be It RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I have a report from the Combustible Bureau in this matter to the effect that this is just an ink plant, and that provided they comply with the rules of the Building Department and the Bureau of Combustibles, there is no reason why it should not be granted, for the reason that it is just an improvement of their present ink factory layout.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anything further that you want to add to what you have already said?

Mrs. Barbara Horbell, 392 Lincoln Avenue.

Mr. Mayor, I promised at the last hearing that I would prove that the most important property owners have never been notified, and here is my proof, if you please (presenting letter).

Commissioner Howe: There isn't another house on the block but that one. I was up there this morning. Across the street are the freight yards.

Mrs. Horbell: Yes, sir, but we get the fumes from the back of this building, and we have seven babies within four houses.

Commissioner Egan: May I read this report concerning the situation up in that neighborhood? (This is a report covering an inspection made by the Bureau of Combustibles. (Commissioner Egan reads report.)

Mrs. Horbell: Wouldn't that increase our fire rates?

Mayor Congleton: The plant is already there. They have taken down a place where they manufactured chemicals. I should think it would reduce them.

Mrs. Horbell: There is every property owner as far as I could see within a short time. We have stood so much in this respect, Mr. Mayor, that it certainly is not fair to the citizens of Newark, as well as us taxpayers there. It is an awful thing, those fumes, for our children.

Commissioner Egan: I would have to say that all the signatures on this petition that is submitted to the Commission seem to be in the same handwriting.

Mrs. Horbell: For four different owners. He is the manager of the property.

Mr. Joseph Steiner: I think the confusion in this lady's mind is due to the fact that the foundry that was reported on by the Bureau of Combustibles is no longer there and also the chemical establishment. We have moved it in order to make this improvement. Now, there are no flames involved in the manufacture of printing ink.

Mrs. Horbell: He is the manager of the property.

Mayor Congleton: How can he sign for somebody else?

Mrs. Horbell: For his sisters and brothers.

Mayor Congleton: The same way on here (referring to petition).

Mrs. Horbell: Yes, sir. I should think he has a right as the manager of the property.

Mayor Congleton: I don't know what his rights are as manager; I don't know whether he has the right to sign for the owner of the property in a matter of this kind or not.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the hearing be closed.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.,
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., February 11, 1931

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present Commissioners Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioners Egan, Gillen.

The minutes of the meeting of February 4, 1931, were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An Ordinance to order and cause the change and establishment of the grade of Blanchard Street, from Raymond Boulevard 280 feet northerly, the new grade to be established to include the roadway, curb and gutters; and to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Blanchard Street, from Raymond Boulevard 280 feet northerly, with broken stone, including the demolition and removal of the bridge over the Morris Canal, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. William B. Sandmeyer, Left Court Building.

I represent the Newark Box Board Company that has a plant on Blanchard Street right at the junction of the street and the canal and this proposed change will lower the grade at the building in such a manner that they feel the building will not be usable. The loading door will be four feet above the grade, I believe, and the buildings are constructed right out to the street line. I am wondering if there is not something that can be done to allow this plant to go on using its property without interfering with the proposed improvement the City wants to make there.

Mayor Congleton: The change is necessary in order to meet the ramp of the State Highway. We have devoted a great deal of time to it, we have tried our best to do as little damage as possible, and this is the second plan. The other one was worse than this, and this is limiting them so they can go on—

Commissioner Howe: Do they load on the front or on the side?

Mr. Sandmeyer: On the side of Blanchard Street.

Commissioner Murray: Why does a four-foot elevation above the grade of the street block the loading platform?

Commissioner Howe: They have got four feet now. That will make it eight. I know that building like a book. But they can load on the side.

Mr. Sandmeyer: I don't know about that.

Commissioner Murray: Have you got a plan of it there?

Mr. Sandmeyer: Yes. (Producing blueprint).

Mayor Congleton: Is this the McKeown property?

Mr. Sandmeyer: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: We went into this very carefully at his request, and as it is now proposed he told us it would meet the purpose and be satisfactory.

Mr. Sandmeyer: Well, he called me on the phone a few minutes ago—

Mayor Congleton: Well, then, he changed his mind since we have gotten it up, because we got the State Highway Commission to make a restudy of their ramp, and it was done for the purpose of helping your company out.

Commissioner Howe: They can load on the side.

Mayor Congleton: He went over this plan before we put the ordinance in and he said it would help him out. Of course, it was not what he wanted, but he said he realized that was the best thing to do and it would be satisfactory to him. Does anyone else desire to be heard on this ordinance?

There being no one else to be heard, Commissioner Murray moved that the hearing be closed.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to order and cause the change and establishment of the grade of High Street, from a point 67 feet north of the south side line of Academy Street, 254 feet northerly; and to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of High Street, from a point 67 feet north of the south side line of Academy Street, 254 feet northerly with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new 6 inch concrete foundation, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Leuin, from McCarter & English, Lefcourt Building.

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I represent the Splitdorf Electrical Company, owners of a substantial piece of property on High Street. The company, of course, is not opposed to this public improvement in any way, but we feel that inasmuch as it is mainly an improvement for the benefit of the City as a whole, that a substantial part of the assessment should be levied against the general taxation fund; and at this time we would like to go on record as requesting your consideration of that matter.

Mayor Congleton: Well, of course, the change of grade is not necessary for our subway at all. Changing the grade is done for the purpose of making a better street there for the abutting property. We think instead of your property being damaged it will be very greatly benefited and improved by having that hump taken out. But we do not have to change that at all for our subway, because the grades are going to be separated at High Street. The subway and the roadway will go underneath High Street.

Mr. Leuin: Of course, we feel that the improvement is for the general good, but our understanding was that the change of grade was indirectly, if not directly, due to the putting of the railroad through the canal property.

Mayor Congleton: It does not have to be changed a bit for the railroad; but when we were doing it we felt it would be of great benefit to the property along High Street to have that hump taken out. Your objection will be noted on the minutes. The assessment Commissioners will--

Mr. Frank LeCerff, 368 High Street:

How much it is proposed to assess us?

Mayor Congleton: Whatever the Assessment Commissioners feel should be assessed.

Mr. LeCerff: What proportion will be assessed on the property owners and what proportion on the City at large?

Mayor Congleton: There is none fixed at this time. That is fixed by the Assessment Commissioners after the improvement is made, and you all have your day in court before them.

Mr. LeCerff: How can we receive notice to that effect?

Mayor Congleton: Through the Board of Assessment Commissioners; but that is a long way off.

Mr. LeCerff: Then we gain nothing or lose nothing at the present time?

Mayor Congleton: Nothing.

Does anyone else desire to be heard on this ordinance?

In the demise of Wallace McIlvaine Scudder, which occurred Tuesday, February 24th, 1931, one of the foremost citizens of his time was lost to the City of Newark, New Jersey.

Qualified in three professions—engineering, law and journalism—he chose journalism as his life's work and as founder and publisher for forty-seven years of the Newark Evening News he made of that newspaper an institution noted for its fidelity to the ideals of truth and justice. Directing its destinies with a firmness of purpose, a high degree of integrity and devotion to the highest ethical standards, he brought it to the leading position it occupies today among the newspapers of the world, and in so doing he brought honor and prestige to the City of Newark.

Born of ancestry dating back to the days of the founding of America and of a line of men distinguished in the early history of New Jersey, Mr. Scudder, though born in Trenton, chose Newark as the field of his endeavors and having become devoted to the city of his adoption he remained within our midst after achieving success, and applied himself to philanthropy and the cultural development of the community. He was long a director of the Newark Museum Association and its President for several years until his death.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, New Jersey, on behalf of the people of this City, do hereby record this expression of their appreciation of Wallace McIlvaine Scudder for his life-time of enduring service to the City and to his fellow-man, their sense of community-lose occasioned by his passing, and their deep sympathy for the members of his family;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions suitably engrossed be presented to the bereaved family.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. Joseph Zemel, Prudential building.

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I appear here on the matter of an ordinance which I understand is at this time before the Commission for consideration, and that is the matter of cutting or narrowing down the sidewalks on Market Street between Mulberry and Raymond Plaza.

Mayor Congleton: That comes up for hearing and consideration on March 25.

Mr. Zemel: Very well, I will hold off until then.

Mayor Congleton: Does any other person have any matter they want to take up with the Commission?

Mr. Frank J. Geiger, 795 South 13th Street.

This here ordinance on the inspection of cigar factories, that is, the workers. Probably ninety per cent. of the cigars used in Newark are manufactured out of Newark. What control is there going to be over them? I am a cigar manufacturer myself—

Mayor Congleton: We do not know much about it. It will come up for hearing two weeks from today. It has just been introduced now, and it has to be published in the newspapers so broad publicity can be given to it, and two weeks from today everybody will be heard on it.

Mr. Geiger: Has the origin of that letter been traced?

Mayor Congleton: I don't know.

Mr. Geiger: The reason I ask, there has been a lot of trick advertising that has been detrimental to the small shops left. I would like to see the origin of this trick letter being traced.

Commissioner Murray: The source of this ordinance was a report from the department of Public Health that in one cigar factory in the City of Newark five cases of tuberculosis had been found. It is just to make sure that tuberculosis or any other communicable disease is not being passed out. It is just the same kind of an ordinance as we have for waiters and food handlers.

Mr. Geiger. How about manufacturers outside of Newark who sell in Newark? That is about ninety-five per cent. of your cigars sold in Newark today.

Commissioner Murray: Well, that is a very good point. You had better study it up.

Mr. Greiger. I think it should be looked into.

Commissioner Murray: It is up to you fellows to look into it.

Mayor Congleton: Does any other person have any other matter on which they desire to address the Commission?

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

Commissioner Howe: Does any citizen wish to be heard or has anyone anything to bring before the Commission?

Mrs. Antonia Bovio, 11-11½ Seventh Avenue, appeared before the Board and complained of the condition of the property next door, and stated that they had permission for only a storage place but that machinery was being operated. She said she was the owner of a sixteen-family house and that the neighboring property was a fire hazard. The property extended through from Broadway to Seventh Avenue and Webster Street.

On motion the matter was referred to Director Egan for investigation and report.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we adjourn:

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.,
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., March 25, 1931

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Gillen, Lowe, Murray.

Absent: Commissioner Egar and Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe, presided.

The minutes of meeting of March 18th were read and approved.

Commissioner Howe: Does any citizen wish to be heard, or is there any matter to bring before the City Commission?

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to authorize the acquirement of lands at the southeast corner of Avenue A and Wright Street and the southwest corner of said Avenue A and Wright Street, in the City of Newark, for municipal use, and providing for the financing thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Commissioner Howe: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Charles H. Stewart of Irvington, N. J., replied that he was present as attorney for the North Jersey Market Gardeners Association which he said is composed of farmers in rural sections. He requested that a hearing be granted on the proposed ordinance for the purchase by the City of Newark of a site for a Farmers Municipal Market to replace the present municipal-owned market at Centre Market.

Commissioner Gillen: The ordinance is going to be laid over.

Mr. Stewart then went into a lengthy explanation of the purposes of the proposed new market in the "Island" section of Newark and which he said would be owned and operated by farmers. He objected to the City of Newark continuing its municipal farmers market because it would interfere with the plans of the farmers. The latter plan he said, would be more economical so far as the interests of Newark are concerned. He declared that the proposed new municipal farmers market site was too small. Mr. Stewart called on persons in the audience in the Commission Chamber to declare they were "dirt farmers". He also asked the same persons in the Chamber to state that they "hold stock" in the "Newark Farmers' Market, Incorporated." A number of hands went up. Mr. Stewart said that an audit of the "Newark Farmers' Market, Incorporated" shows "that the assets consist of cash $18,487.50; notes receivable $50,000; subscriptions receivable, March 31, 1931—$45,912.50; amount due September 1, 1931, $45,800; organization cost $7,462; leases, leasehold costs for the nine and a half acres of land and promotion expenses, $40,000. Among the liabilities are accounts payable $2,000; commission payable, $5,462; liabilities to subscribers for amounts paid in and for the $40,000 for the promotion expense $58,487. For the two halves, March 31 and September 1, there is payable $91,762." He said: "we have 415 farmers who have subscribed to this stock, subscribing initially from one share up to three hundred."

Mr. John H. Van Riper of Montville, N. J., spoke in favor of the Newark Farmers Market, Incorporated" project.

Commissioner Gillen explained that the reason for the introduction by him of the ordinance for the purchase of a new site for a City Farmers Market was due to the fact that for fifty years the City has operated such a market. He pointed out that a few years ago the farmers started a co-operative market in Harrison.

This Harrison Market was a failure. He added. "This proposition that Mr. Stewart explained so beautifully was not started by the farmers. It was started by some promoters who understood what the receipts of a farmers market were and who believed that there would be handsome profit in it for anyone who would run the farmers market if it were operated by private owners."

Commissioner Gillen related how the present city-owned farmers market would have to be discontinued because of improvements in conjunction with the new Pennsylvania Railroad station. He said that delegations of farmers from time to time had come to him in recent years asking whether or not the City would continue the municipal farmers market. He had from time to time discussed this matter with his colleagues of the Board of Commissioners and that he felt it was their opinion that the City would continue the farmers market in another local place. Commissioner Gillen said that he has been petitioned by 1,200 Newark store operators and by more than 400 "dirt" farmers to continue the municipal farmers market. This new investment would not cost the city taxpayers as much as one cent because the income would more than meet all expenses by a fair margin. He referred to the necessity of farmers market supervision by the City of Newark in order to see that good food only is sold at the City Market. The speaker pointed out that the produce merchants in the Miller Street district had greatly increased the tax ratables by leaving Commerce Street six years ago and constructing a new business centre in their present locality. By locating the city farmers market in the Miller Street section the "split market" situation would be eliminated. This would be a matter of much economy to the buyers and to the public. The purchaser, in the event of a farmers market being located in the "Island" section of the city, would first have to go to the Miller Street section to obtain foodstuff there which is brought from all parts of the nation and other parts of the world by the wholesalers, and then the purchaser would have to travel miles off to the "Island" to get the New Jersey farm produce. At a meeting of the McAllister Legislative Committee which he attended recently, all present were in favor of a city-owned market.

Mr. Stewart: We will be here next week. I understand there are some representatives here from the civic organizations. I don't know whether you would like to hear them today, now that they are here.

Commissioner Gillen: Let them come here next week and let both sides be heard. This isn't fair to the commission men, to have a one-sided discussion.

Mr. Joseph Zemel, 763 Broad Street: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I am not a farmer, even though one of the speakers has said that everyone here is a farmer. I am not one of them. This matter that has just been acted upon I haven't given enough consideration to form an intelligent opinion upon, but I think that Mr. Gillen, in whose ability and in whose integrity I have the utmost confidence and faith, will give the matter his most careful and intelligent consideration to bring it to the best ultimate end.

I am here on a matter which is of more vital importance to me, and that is the matter of an ordinance which is to be considered today—to cut down the sidewalks on Market Street.

Commissioner Howe: Will you speak on that subject when it comes up?

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the public hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the ordinance be laid over for one week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray.

A communication dated March 21st from the Landisville Fruit Growers' Ass'n, Landisville, N. J., favoring a municipally controlled farmers market close to the Commission Market was received, read and on motion ordered filed.

A communication dated March 24th from Henry P. Day, 212 Grafton Avenue, protesting against the proposed municipal-owned Farmers Market was received and read and on motion ordered filed.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to regulate public markets in the City of Newark, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Commissioner Howe: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Commissioner Murray: The Department of Health has always had the issuing of market permits.

Commissioner Gillen: Market permits?

Commissioner Murray: Surely.

Commissioner Gillen: This is a public market.

Commissioner Murray: Everyone is a public market. It is not private; it is subject to the limitations put on it by the Health Department, such as the limitation and the no chicken killing in a private poultry market

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the ordinance be laid over for one week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance requiring medical examination of workers in cigar factories, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Commissioner Howe: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, I think there is a very fair reason against this ordinance. While it is true that in a single cigar plant in Newark we found five cases of tuberculosis among the cigar makers, I think that we may have another way of preventing the occurrence of that. If we put this obligation upon the Newark man, even though it doesn't cost them anything, he may be somewhat embarrassed, inasmuch as we can not reach the cigar manufacturer who manufacturers outside the City of Newark, it would seem to be somewhat discriminatory, although it is actually beneficial. I will arrange through the Department of Health to check the cigar factories, and so long as there is no object to our making the examination without an ordinance, simply under the police power of the Department of Health, I will not move the ordinance.

I now move that the ordinance clause be stricken out.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled: "Zoning Ordinance of the City of Newark", adopted January 8, 1930, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

(No response).

No one appearing, Commissioner Murray moved that the hearing be closed.

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray.

Commissioner Murray moved that the title of "An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled: 'Zoning Ordinance of the City of Newark', adopted January 8, 1930," be taken for its third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray.

The clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled: "Zoning Ordinance of the City of Newark," adopted January 8, 1930.

The ordinance having been read three times was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray.

The City Clerk presented an ordinance providing for the opening and widening of Silk Street on the westerly side thereof from West Market Street northerly to Academy Street, and for the opening of Colden Street, 50 feet in width, from its southerly terminus at the northerly line of the Morris Canal southerly to Academy Street, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Commissioner Howe: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Morris Metzky, 9 Beaver Street: Gentlemen, I am interested in property at 54 West Market Street. I own the property five or six years. I have a half interest with Philip Klein, who owns the other half. We should not be taxed a hundred per cent.

Commissioner Gillen: You are never taxed a hundred per cent.

Commissioner Howe: What is your objection to it?

Commissioner Gillen: He is objecting to the assessments on the property owners.

Mr. Metzky: The improvement will be a benefit to the entire city. It will be a highway for the entire city.

Commissioner Gillen: There is no objection to the improvement. The objection is to the cost of the project being put on the property owners. The taxpayer is never assessed 100%. In fact, the city usually bears the greatest part of the cost of a street opening.

Commissioner Howe: That is spread over quite an area there.

Mr. Metzky: I believe this improvement should be a public assessment. It is a public improvement.

Commissioner Murray: Don't you see how much easier it will be to get people to live on Colden Street than it was when the street was a dead-end street? Do not kid yourself and do not kid us. The whole dead-end street will be benefited.

Commissioner Howe: The City assumes the greatest proportion of that. The balance will be assessed over quite an area, so that your proportion will be very light.

Mr. Metzky: I think it would not be fair to put the heavy taxes on the property owners.

Commissioner Howe: We cannot adjust it here. Your remedy is to go before the Assessment Commission and make known to them the conditions and the extent to which you will benefit.

Commissioner Gillen: Your assessments will be very low.

Commissioner Howe: You will be assessed accordingly.

Mrs. Ann Zillmer, 228 South Burnett Street, East Orange: I think my complaint is about the same as this man's.

Commissioner Howe: You will have an opportunity also to go before the Assessment Commission. The City is assuming a large proportion of this, and people who will benefit by the improvement, although they may not own property there, will be assessed.

Mrs. Zillmer: If we are assessed any more we will have to let it go.

Commissioner Howe: The only thing we are doing here and the only thing we have the power to do here is to authorize the work to be done. The Assessment Commission on the third floor adjusts the assessments for us. You will receive notice.

Commissioner Murray: Where is your property?

Mrs. Zillmer: 215 Bank Street. I think it is 65 West Market Street now. We don't hardly get rent to be carrying this, as it is.

Commissioner Murray: You never will as long as you allow that neighborhood to lie dead.

Mrs. Zillmer: There is no customers there now.

Commissioner Murray: I know, but there aren't any anywhere else. You won't have to worry about it.

Mrs. Zillmer: Oh, I will when I get a notice that the place is on the market for payment of taxes.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance changing and establishing the width of the sidewalks of Market Street from Mulberry Street easterly to Alling Street and Raymond Plaza West and requiring the removal of obstructions projections or encroachments thereon, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Commissioner Howe: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Joseph Zemel, 763 Broad Street:

Gentlemen, I appear on this ordinance today because it is one of vital importance to me. The matter of the width of the sidewalks on Morris Street is of vital importance not only to me, but to every property owner on Market Street, as well as in other parts of the City. I want to call your attention to two instances in Newark where cutting down on the width of the sidewalks has hurt the storekeepers. The first one is Washington Street. There is room for two or three people on the sidewalk. Where you have a continuous flow of traffic you can't walk there. The next instance is the matter of Ferry Street directly east of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The stores there are continuously vacant, and one of the reasons why they are vacant is the pedestrians cannot get there.

Commissioner Murray: Do you know how wide the sidewalk is going to be after it is cut down?

Mr. Zemel: It is going to be two feet narrower.

Commissioner Murray: It is going to be twelve feet instead of fourteen feet.

Mr. Zemel: Have you ever been down there, Commissioner?

Commissioner Murray: Oh, I have been down there before you were born.

Mr. Zemel: I do not doubt that. If you have been down there around six or seven o'clock and seen the crowds—

Commissioner Murray: Yes, I come up from the depot when the commuters' trains come in and I have seen the crowds.

Mr. Zemel: We need every inch of the property. Don't cut the sidewalk and destroy our property.

Commissioner Howe: Oh, no, we don't want to do that. We have had enough of that. When we go to get the property it costs $10,000 a foot. We have had enough of that.

Commissioner Murray: Perhaps they will give us a little bit of the frontage of their property.

Commissioner Howe: They wouldn't give you an inch of their backyards.

Mr. Herbert Boggs, 730 Broad Street: Gentlemen, I represent the property owner of some forty-odd front east of Lawrence Street between Lawrence and Ward, which is paved. First, it seems to me that you are making the sidewalks pretty narrow. I understand that it is twelve or thirteen feet.

Commissioner Howe: That is a pretty wide walk, Mr. Boggs.

Mr. Boggs: Well, I don't know, and I doubt if you are gaining much. Where are you gaining by widening the street there? Your are widening it about four feet.

Mr. Costello: Here is what you are gaining: You are gaining an 18-foot clearance and a curb which will permit a bus to pass between a trolley car and standing car.

Mr. Boggs: That is what you theoretically will gain. Practically you will only gain another place for people to park cars.

Commissioner Gillen: They park there now, don't they?

Mr. Boggs: I am not speaking of the big stores, but the small storekeepers. Another thing, just now is a most unfortunate time, when everything is so depressed, when it is impossible to rent the property at any reasonable rate, where you are forced to lower your rents, where there are a great number of vacant properties, and when the property owner on this side of the street can't predict what the improvement will do, whether his property will be worth less or more with these improvements then it is today. Nobody can tell anything about it. If this were deferred until we can see what the developments down there are going to be, and whether we really would need this after the developments are finished—whether you need this wider place.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the ordinance be laid over for two weeks.

Mr. Boggs: Oh, no, I wanted it deferred much longer than that.

Commissioner Gillen: You can see the Mayor in the meantime. He will be back. It is in the Mayor's Department.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray.

MINUTES OF MEETINGS

Board of Commissioners

April, 1931

Newark, N. J., April 1, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of meeting of March 25th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to authorize the acquirement of lands at the southeast corner of Avenue A and Wright Street and the southwest corner of said Avenue A and Wright Street, in the City of Newark, for municipal use, and providing for the financing thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: We will now take up the public hearing on this ordinance, first hearing from those who are opposed to the project. We will ask each speaker, as he begins to speak, to give his name and address to the stenographer,

Mr. Charles H. Stewart, 9 Clinton Street, explained the proposition of his corporation to build and operate "A Farmers-owned Market" in Newark.

Mayor Congleton: We are all familiar with it, Mr. Stewart, because we have been down and looked it over any number of times.

Mr. Stewart: I don't know whether you have been down and have seen the work down at the Island Section.

Mayor Congleton: I have.

Mr. Stewart declared that the farmers never went to the Miller Street Market built by the wholesale commission men.

Mayor Congleton: Wasn't that because the City was maintaining the market here?

Mr. Stewart contended that the proposed investment by the City of Newark at Miller Street was not justified by actual value.

Mayor Congleton: What do you say with respect to the price of $140,000 less the $30,000 for the concrete—that is, with respect to its fair market value today as compared with that of years ago?

Mr. Stewart: I am told, sir, by real estate men that that land down there today is not worth more than 70 cents a square foot.

Mayor Congleton: Real estate men, then, like lawyers, differ.

Mr. Stewart: I have no doubt about that, sir.

Mayor Congleton: Because we have had several appraisals.

Mr. Stewart: I have no doubt that they differ—

Mayor Congleton: Appraisals by reputable real estate men.

Mr. Stewart questioned Commissioner Gillen's figures as to estimated cost of operating a City-owned market.

Mr. John Spargo of Dover, N. J., spoke on farm problem. He urged the "Island" project.

Dr. Frank App, Bridgeton, N. J., spoke on the policy of the McAllister Legislative Committee.

Mr. Jacob Hagenbuch, 50 Bellair Place, spoke in favor of the "Island" market. He offered a petition bearing 100 names in behalf of this plan. He said Newark did not desire a city-farmers market.

Commissioner Gillen: The City did that, though, for over fifty years, didn't it?

Mr. Hagenbuch: I really don't know, Commissioner Gillen, I am presenting my arguments—

Commissioner Gillen: What organization do you represent?

Mr. Hagenbuch: I represent the taxpayers, I should not say that. I come here as an individual taxpayer.

Commissioner Gillen: I thought it was some organization.

Mr. Hagenbuch: The group of 110 taxpayers have simply asked me to read this petition.

Commissioner Gillen: How were these signatures procured?

Mr. Hagenbuch: They were procured by representatives of the Newark Farmers' Market, Incorporated.

Mr. Stewart: I understand that Howard Demarest is here representing the United Civic League.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Demarest, do you desire to be heard.

(No response).

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who desire to be heard in opposition to the ordinance?

Mr. E. W. Wollmuth appeared and said he represented the Municipal Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. He said that the Chamber of Commerce Committee believed that the Miller Street property was inadequate for farmers' market purposes. He suggested that the City used vacant meadow land at Port Newark. Mr. Wollmuth also suggested that the Miller Street Wholesalers operate their own farmers' market.

Commissioner Gillen: Your thought is that this large distribution space would be used for the distribution of foods for the whole metropolitan area, I presume?

Mr. Wollmuth: Yes.

Commissioner Gillen: New York, and so forth?

Mr. Wollmuth: Well, there isn't any question but that we would find that with the ever growing congestion in Manhattan and the waterfront the time is coming when New Jersey will have to become rather more autonomous than it is now in the distribution of its own food requirements. Mr. Wollmuth also spoke on the cost of food distribution.

Commissioner Gillen: You know, I suppose that the present farmers' market is a little in excess of two acres?

Mr. Wollmuth: I believe it is 2.34.

Commissioner Gillen: The old farmers' market wasn't as large as this space that the City contemplates purchasing from the Commission men.

Mr. Wollmuth: I measured it on the blueprints offered by the farmers' market group and it indicated that it was 2.34.

Commissioner Gillen: The market out near Broad Street?

Mr. Wollmuth: On commerce Street.

Commissioner Gillen: The original farmers' market, on which the Lefcourt Building now stands, had only 60,000 square feet.

Mr. Wollmuth: That was small enough.

Commissioner Gillen: The present farmers' market has about 94,000 square feet on Commerce Street down near the Pennsylvania Railroad. They have always accommodated the farmers there. You don't think for a moment that the number of farmers in this county is increasing, do you?

Mr. Wollmuth: Actually in Essex County the number of farmers is less today than in recent years.

Commissioner Gillen: In the face of these conditions, you do not anticipate a greater number of farmers coming into Newark, do you?

Mr. Wollmuth: May I answer that in this way. Mr. Commissioner? Regardless of the number of farmers in this state, the fact is that supplies must be brought in here, and this is a logical point of distribution for this district.

Commissioner Gillen: The food supplies are being brought in on railroads and steamships from all over, and the commission men are handling it.

Mr. Wollmuth: But food will have to be brought into this district.

Commissioner Gillen: That is aside from the farmers market?

Mr. Wollmuth: That is for the food distribution as a whole.

Commissioner Gillen: The farmers market is primarily for the purpose of accommodating farmers as a whole, too.

Commissioner Egan: The question of establishing a market to take care of greater New York on this side of the river is academic as yet, even though the railroads and the New York interests have studied it for twenty years, to my personal knowledge. Still, twenty or twenty-five years ago the Erie Railroad and the Pennsylvania Railroad had their piers along the river at Pier 16, at Pier 28, and at Pier 2, and they are still doing such a tremendous business in perishable fruits and vegetables, that you will never be able to eliminate the congestion in New York and never be able to get them to come to this side of the river, based upon their past experience. Fifteen or eighteen years ago they attempted to establish a market at Jersey City comparable to the one they have in New York City, but it ran contrary to customary usage and contrary to modern plans. It is still very hard to get them to go out of New York.

Mr. Wollmuth: That is true.

Commissioner Egan: You are right in principle, though.

Mr. M. L. Irish, 444 Raymond Boulevard, appeared and said he spoke for the Ironbound Manufacturers Association, which opposed the Miller Street plan. "It was the consensus of opinion of the members that this market is a step toward paternalism that isn't warranted".

Mr. John Van Riper, Montvale, N. J. renewed the history of the Newark Farmers' Market. He was in favor of the "Island" plan.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, in order to have a remark placed on the record in connection with the talk made by the Freeholder from Morris County, who in his talk commended the farm board for the wonderful work done for the farmer, I would like to call attention to an article in the Newark Evening News, dated March 30 at Washington, D. C. It is headed "Hoover to let Farm Board Board hoe own row:" "Almost first thing that President Hoover did upon the arrival home from Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands was to cause it to be known that he did not intend to take a controlling hand in the grain question".

"With reference to the announcement that the Farm Board does not intend to buy any of the 1931 wheat crop, Mr. Hoover has preserved silence. His attitude is that the Farm Board makes its own policies, that it was given complete control by Congress, its status being comparable to that of the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Shipping Board."

"This attitude some of the members of the Farm Bloc in Congress regard as evasive. They say the act creating the Farm Board was an administrative measure, put through without changes. The measure, in the framing of which former Representative Franklin W. Fort of East Orange, close friend of Mr. Hoover, took a prominent part, is, these men say, the President's baby, and he must accept the onus of its failure to work"

"It has been the view of many high officials in the Hoover administration that the stabilization work inaugurated over a year ago by the Farm Board had in view the saving of a great many banks in the wheat belt which would have failed if wheat prices continued to decline as rapidly as they had started."

Many of these banks held loans secured by wheat at prices ranging around those set by the Farm Board for buying the surplus. These banks now have been able to clear these loans and readjust themselves to prices on the world wheat market".

It seems interesting on the question as to why a Congressman in a non-farming district should be so much interested in agriculture.

Mr. E. F. Neagle, General Development Agent, Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, 143 Liberty Street, New York City, advocated the Miller St. plan, describing its railroad terminal and other advantages. He said it was an ideal location for future expansion. His Company recently spent $280,000 for improvements there and proposes to spend more there.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Neagle, you spoke about the expansion of the market. What do you mean?

Mr. Neagle: Further expansion of the farmers and produce dealers.

Commissioner Murray: Does it make any difference to the railroad company whether the farmers are in one place or in another?

Mr. Neagle: Not so particularly on the farmers. It does on the split of the markets.

Commissioner Murray: The farmer doesn't ship to the commission merchant.

Mr. Neagle: That is right.

Mr. R. C. Morse, Assistant to General Manager, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, New York City Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, I would like to speak for the Pennsylvania Railroad's interest in the location of this market in the Hunter Street area. We have an investment already amounting to over a million dollars where we deliver perishable freight and commodities relating to perishable, and we feel that it is a decided mistake not to combine the markets at this time, when there is an opportunity to combine the interests, as has been done in all the later developments in the large cities, such as Cleveland, Buffalo, Philadelphia, and in Pittsburg, where we got together the farmers' market and the delivery of produce in the big terminal yards. We deliver here about 12,000 cars of perishable a year, and naturally that is the center of the delivery of the food products for Newark. Now, we are not in opposition to a farmer or a farmers market in the least, because we haul the New Jersey farmers' produce to Hunter Street or the Miller Street area and deliver it there. We think it is a decided advantage to have the farmers' market related to the market that is established, where the largest portion of the perishables naturally come, and therefore we are interested to that extent of having this farmers' market close to the commission market and the delivery yards of the Pennsylvania.

I would like to add that the plans have been completed, and we will spend this year a million and a half more to enlarge that yard for the delivery of perishables. That is in the Hunter Street area north of Avenue A, and we probably would have extended south of Avenue A were it not for the very high prices that that land was held at, but we are very clear and decided that in view of the trend of all other big cities, Newark ought to fall in line in the same way and combine those markets when the opportunity presents.

Mr. Frank A. Horne, President,

Merchants Refrigerating Company, 17 Varick Street, New York City: May I qualify as somewhat of an expert on the matter of markets, having made this a life study? During the world war I was in charge of the refrigeration and cold storage section of the Food Administration under President Hoover, who was then in charge of the Food Administration. During the administration of President Harding I was appointed Chairman of a commission to study and appraise the Center Market in Washington, D. C.

Now, coming down to the question at issue here, I think there are three essentials that every large serviceable market should have, the first is the item and the principle of concentration of as many of the interests involved as possible, involving the wholesalers, the coming of the buyers and the sellers, and the farmers. The second essential is adequate railroad facilities, and the third is the availability of refrigeration and cold storage for the handling of perishables, whether produced on the nearby farms or whether coming from the more distant points.

The company of which I am president has been in the business of refrigeration and cold storage in the City of Newark for over twenty-five years. We were located at River and Cherry Streets for over twenty-five years, but in 1927, when the wholesale market came up to Miller Street, and desiring to have a plant on the railroad track, we purchased property at Avenue C and Vanderpool Street and erected warehouse and acquired additional property for development, with a total investment in real estate, buildings, machinery, and so forth of about a little over $1,000,000. We went there because we believed in the future of that market, the wholesale market, and we made provisions for the natural expansion and growth which we believed would come, believing ultimately that also the farmers and other interests would concentrate at that point. In building that plant we provided for double the capacity which we had at the old site of River and Cherry Streets. We have at our plant at Avenue C and Vanderpool Street 1,800,000 cubic feet of space with a refrigerating capacity of 150 tons of refrigeration for every twenty-four hours, with capacity in our plant for enlargement. We stand ready when the business is there—and it can be made probably, subject to the franchise of the City of Newark—to run refrigerating pipes into the market to serve refrigeration into the stalls of the dealers who handle perishable products. That is the type of business we do in Manhattan, under a franchise of the City of New York.

We have at the present time undeveloped property adjacent to our cold storage plant of about 75,000 square feet of land available for developments or for dealers who may wish to construct buildings in order to have railroad siding and refrigeration. Now, may I give you just a few figures to show the vital importance of refrigeration and what is now going on, to indicate that there should be the facility of refrigeration and cold storage available for the products which these farmers bring in for consumption in the City of Newark. I don't want to bother you with a lot of statistics, but I have some figures which I think Mr. Murray and you gentlemen will find very informative. Our property during 1930 handled a total of 55,000,000 pounds of perishable foods. Among these items are, for instance, 2,600,000 pounds of eggs in the shell, 3,500,000 pounds of apples—I state this in pounds, as that is a convenient unit; I have here the number of packages if it should be required, and I will file this paper—1,900,000 pounds of potatoes, 3,000,000 pounds of pears, 6,000,000 pounds of citrus fruit, 2,500,000 pounds of poultry, and other items which I will not state now Going down to a little further analysis of this matter, gentlemen, we received by truck—and I state this because this is clearly material, remember, from the merchants in Newark and available for the consumers of Newark—16,000,000 pounds during 1930, in addition to about 40,000,000 pounds which was received by car, both of which was pledged to the citizens of Newark and vicinity. We delivered by truck 24,000,000 pounds. Part of that came in by truck and part of that came in by car, but that clearly indicates that that volume, 24,000,000 pounds of these perishables, was for the consumption of the people of Newark.

Now, I have had a statement made at my office of the quantity we handle for five days or less which covers specifically the particular matter of the desirability of refrigeration and cold storage where the farmers do their business, because when goods are not sold they should be put in cold storage over night or for a period of a few days. These are our figures during 1930 for fruits and vegetables which we handled for a period of five days or less. 70,000 packages of fruits and vegetables carried for that short period, largely coming from the merchants in the market and from the farmers. When these fruits and vegetables come in they cannot be quickly marketed.

I therefore, Mr. Chairman, give you as my judgment, as a student of market conditions the desirability of having this farmers' market close to the existing market and close to the existing facilities of rail and refrigeration. I hope you will show foresight. If you desire any of these figures, I will be glad to leave them with you.

Hon. J. Henry Harrison, 810 Broad Street: I represent, Mr. Chairman, a group of men who some seven years ago went down to the Wright Street area, men, some sixty or seventy of them, known as commission merchants, who have invested a million dollars in the business, who are doing a business well in excess of $50,000,000, who have a payroll of some three quarters of a million dollars a year, and who, I think, represent a very substantial element in this community. They come here and they favor passage of this ordinance positively and unequivocally. I am not going to spend my time in discussing the waste of the taxpayers' money, paternalism, and so forth, as some people here have, because I think that you gentlemen with your experience of some fifty or sixty years of the managing of a city owned market—and it has been very successful, not only from the standpoint of operation, but also from the standpoint of the investment of capital because if my recollection serves me right, on the site that we call the Lefcourt site the City is getting a net return of some $250,000 a year. Just what was paid for that land fifty or sixty years ago I don't know, but the gross return as compared with the capital investment made fifty or sixty years ago—if I may call it capital—was a very excellent one.

Now, I am not going to discuss the question of the consolidation of markets and how absolutely the experts all agree. The figures were given by the speaker who just preceded me, Mr. Horner, I think it was, of some 56,000,000 pounds of foodstuffs, some 28,000 tons, if my arithmetic is correct, impressed us with the importance of this great subject, and this assemblage that you have here favoring or opposing this matter shows that there is a great deal of importance in this subject, and to me Mr. Chairman, that is the fundamental subject in this whole matter. That is the assurance and protection of the food supply of the City of Newark, and you gentlemen as the Board of Directors of the City of Newark, with your experience and realizing the benefits of a united market, are taking the proper stand to bring all these food serving and food producing facilities together.

Without arguing that, and knowing that the time has already slipped by very rapidly, I do not want to say that I think there are a number of advantages in a city controlled and a city owned market. With the idea of hurrying things along I will, with your permission, read what I think illustrates the advantages of the city controlled market:

The matter of permanency.

The matter of public operation.

The matter of public supervision and regulation, and the public control over the bootlegging of foodstuffs.

Now, to me it seems that these are sufficient answers to the question that these farmers say that they want to do as they please in the matter of running a market.

I would like to spend a minute or two in analyzing the advertisement which they have put in one of the papers. I am reading from the Newark Sunday Call advertisement of March 29, 1931, in which they ask the farmers to appear here today and protest against the passage of this ordinance. They say, "The plans had hardly been announced when Commissioner Gillen introduced an ordinance before the City Commission which would set the City up as a direct competitor with the farmers." That isn't so, and I think the farmers know that isn't so.

If you had substantial unanimity among these farmers, Mr. Mayor, that would be quite a different proposition. They say they have four hundred and some odd. The fact is, as I am informed, that the farmers who are favoring the location of the farmers' market at the Wright Street site are quite equal in number to those who oppose it, so that you have a fairly equal distribution.

Now, if my information be correct, Mr. Mayor, it wasn't many months ago when these same farmers came down here asking you gentlemen to establish your own city-owned market. So far as I am informed the location wasn't just definitely located, but their point of view was that these should be a city-owned and a city controlled market. Now, the query naturally follows: Why the change? My answer to that query is that these men have ceased to be farmers and have become real estate promoters, and their interest is not perhaps primarily in the sale of their produce so much as it is in getting themselves into a business situation, the laying out of a large capital investment, and putting themselves into a position where they can, as I see it, become real estate promoters. So following the suggestion of some real estate promoter who has this dream of a market down at the Island, where they are going to erect commission house, and where they are going to have a fine site for a thousand trucks.

I am not going to take the time of discussing the adequacy of this Wright Street site and I am not going to take the time of discussing the price to be paid for the site, because I and the gentlemen that I represent have sufficient confidence in you to know that you are going to pay the price that is proper and that if you are not going to get it at the proper price you have your redress in the courts or to put it up before three commissioners or before twelve jurymen as to what the price should be, so it seems to me that is a bit of persiflage.

Now, referring to the advertisement again. The conclusion in this: "Matters have come to a fine pass when the City tries to stifle the plans of its distributors of produce foods"

With what plans? Not so much as it is with the producers, but with the real estate plans of the producers. This City has cooperated with the farmers for sixty years in the Farmers' Market, and they will continue to cooperate with the farmers, no matter where they venture, but in the real handling of food—and that is, as I have already stated, the great question, what is the wise thing. What is the prudent thing? If your investment of $140,000 for the establishment of a proper farmers market—and everybody seems to think that there should be a farmers market—is going to serve the interests of those men who have invested a million dollars, is going to serve the interests of some twelve hundred store men, is going to serve the interest of those railroads that have invested money here for the handling of food, when I say that this resolution should pass, and I think that your judgment should go along with the passage of this resolution.

I think it would be very interesting to elaborate on this subject more at length, but I do want to say on that particular point that there has been no indication, so far as I can see, of lack of cooperation on the part of the City with the farmers. One-half of these farmers are not here protesting. You issued in 1928, 1929, and 1930 an average of 700 farmers' licenses, and it is presumed that from time to time these men availed themselves of the privilege of coming into the public market. The opponents of this measure say that they have some 450 or some 421 who have signed for stock subscriptions, and a word, if you please, Mr. Mayor, as to the stock subscriptions. The buying of this land—and it has not yet been stated that it has been bought—

Mr. Stewart: I stated, Senator Harrison, that it is under lease. The lease is signed up with the privilege and option of buying, and the rent is paid.

Mr. Harrison: I was about to say that the question of permanency of this proposed farmers' market operated by themselves is also a question which would be very worthy of analysis, but I am not going to take the time; I am merely going to content myself with the observation that the purchase of the land, if it ultimately be purchased and the investment of a million dollars is a big program, is a big business venture. If I am correctly informed, some ten or fifteen years ago in the Town of Kearny or in the Town of Harrison a similar attempt was made, and it proved a terrible failure.

I will burden you but a moment longer, Mr. Mayor and gentlemen. I have put down what I have picked out as the advantages of the Miller Street site:

First, economic saving in joining commission market and farmers' market.

Second, railroad facilities, Lehigh Valley and Pennsylvania Railroad.

Third, location of a refrigerating plant there handling vast quantities of food, to which Mr. Horne has already testified, with an investment, as I understand, of $1,250,000.

Fourth, wide, well-paved streets and nearness to Route 21, 25 and 29. Mayor Congleton: And 10.

Mr. Harrison: And 10, if and when located, and that is a very important thing. You gentlemen, of course, know that area very much better than I do, but it seems to me to be remarkably well adapted for the purpose that is covered by this ordinance.

Five, matter of central location. Nearness to Broad Street and residential area.

Six, removal from heavy traffic.

Seven, nearness to source of supply, foodstuffs coming from middle and South Jersey, Maryland, Virginia, and Carolina, and nearness to residential area, the consumers.

Eight, probable increase in tax ratables resulting from consolidated market.

What have you in the Island market to contrast with that? You have no connection with your commission men. You are in an industrial section. You have poor railroad and street facilities. It is inaccessible and isolated.

It is true, as Mr. Wollmuth has stated, that perhaps the area would be better oriented to New York, but I think this market is not serving New York, but is serving in Newark. We in Newark are more interested in that than in serving New York.

That is the position of the commission men. There are others here who will elaborate upon some of the matters to which I have referred, but in a general way it seems to me that the passage of this ordinance with a nominal amount to be paid, $140,000, for the purchase of this land, for the part of the site already equipped for use by the farmers' market should be practically assured. With the request of all the big property owners, with the request of the Merchants Refrigerating Company, with the request of the railroads, who take a very definite and positive stand, with your knowledge of a split market, with your knowledge of the hundreds of retailers who have petitioned for this market at this particular site, and with the very superior advantages of the arguments that you have heard in favor of it, it seems to me to lead to only one conclusion—that this ordinance should pass.

Permit me in closing to thank you for the people I represent and for the very courteous attention you have shown me. (Jeers).

Mayor Congleton I make the same request now that I did earlier in the hearing. You are only wasting your time and ours by such demonstrations, and it will not produce a very good friendly feeling for you if speakers are to be booed or applauded. If you will attend strictly to business we will get along very much better.

Mr. Harrison: Mr. Chairman, may I interrupt once again? We have available here some four or five hundred petitions of farmers who wish the location of the Farmers' Market at the proposed site.

Mr. Maxwell L. Rothman, Firemen's Building, spoke in favor of the Miller Street plant.

Mr. George Loser, Rahway, N. J., advocated the Miller Street site because of its convenience and general facilities.

Mr. Meyer Dubow, Englishtown, N. J., spoke in behalf of farmers of Monmouth County who favor Miller Street. He opposed the "Island site because 40% of the stock was controlled by real estate promoters. Mr. Dubow read the following petition signed by more than 400 farmers:

"To the Honorable Mayor and City Commissioners of the City of Newark.

We farmers, who are growers and residents of the State of New Jersey, who have been bringing farm products such as vegetables, fruits, etc., for a great many years during the past to the City of Newark Farmers Market, hereby petition and request a City owned and city maintained Farmers Market, by the City of Newark, same to be located at Miller Street adjoining Commission Merchants who are now located at this place, due to its central location and established business centre, which has been located there for many years past. Commission merchants at this place, namely, (Miller Street) are established business concerns of Newark for years, whereas if the City of Newark does not furnish farmers with a Farmers Market, the farmers will be compelled to go to this so-called Farmers Market and in any case any commission houses should locate there, which we are very much in doubt, we do not know who they will be, or how responsible they will be, or how long they will remain there, as the location of this so-called Farmers owned Market is in such an isolated section, that it is not suitable for a Farmers Market or a Commission House Center.

The following are only a few reasons why we desire a City Owned Farmers Market in preference to this so-called Farmers Owned Market.

1. Treatment received by us from the City of Newark, and employees as we know from experience has been good, honest, and decent.

2. We have always been able to get our regular stands every night that we came into Farmers Market while they owned and maintained Farmers Market.

3. In case of tire or truck trouble on the road, we would be late for opening of Farmers Market, we would phone office and those working for the City of Newark would hold our stands open for us until we reached market. They would also inform farmers who occupied stands next to our that we would be late, so that they could tell buyers who had ordered from us, that we would be late in getting into market, thus buyers would know that we were coming into market, and his orders would be filled.

4. Always could find City of Newark employees around market to see that everything was all right at all times. Also always available to hear and settle all complaints and disputes between buyers and farmers All decisions in the past whether for or against us farmers were fair, honest, and square, and settled to the satisfaction of both buyers and farmers.

5. City Market police with authority always around Farmers Market so as to give us proper police protection, and beside regulate traffic. Unless there is police with proper authority there will be stealing at all times, and traffic is always tied up.

6. Location of City owned Farmers Market at Miller Street will centralize distribution, saving time for both farmers, commission merchants and buyers, which will eventually reduce cost of fresh vegetables, fruit, etc., to the citizens of Newark.

7. At Miller Street location there will be sufficient entrances, exits and streets so as to allow traffic to move at all times.

8. It is not our desire to prevent farmers from leasing grounds for a Farmers Market, or operating any Farmers Market, but we do object to any promoter's scheme with the aid of some farmers to whom this promoter had sold stock, too, coming before you, Mr. Mayor, and City Commissioners, telling you that they represent the farmers, and that the farmers do not want a City owned Market, nor will we ride into a Newark City owned Farmers' Market because this is not true, as they never spoke to us about this matter of coming before you gentlemen, Mr. Mayor and City Commissioners, and their only object in telling you gentlemen this story, was so that the City of Newark would not open another Farmers Market, thus compelling all farmers to go into this so-called Farmers Owned Market.

9. If promoter with the aid of those farmers who have bought stock wants to open a Farmers Owned Market, then why don't they do it, as we have no objections, but will inform all, that if the City of Newark does not have a City Owned Farmers Market, that we will not bring our produce into the City of Newark, but will take same to New York Markets.

10. The reason why we desire a City Owned Market, is because we have found out from experience during the past from coming into Newark's Owned Farmers Market to sell our produce was conditions were good as to treatment, fairness, good police protection, traffic regulations, lights always in proper shape, and everything taken into consideration would say we always received a good fair deal."

Mr. J. Victor D'Aloia, 738 Broad Street: Mr. Mayor and Honorable Commissioners, I represent here today the most important factor in this circle of interested parties, and that factor is the retail man, the distributor of these foodstuffs who have got to get the goods and get them to the people who need them, and who is the man who ultimately returns this $50,000,000 to the railroads, to the cold storage houses, to the City, and to everybody else—the men who preserve the health of the citizens. They are the retailers, 1200 of them, my clients, who have addressed a petition to this Board advocating Miller Street, and there are four or five hundred others who have signed. They feel that the distinctive feature of the Miller Street site is the coordinated market at the same place. The concentration there is absolutely important when it comes to the distribution of food. You must have a good distribution center, and those national experts and those state experts who have spoken here today have made that the concrete point.

Everybody who knows anything about foodstuffs knows that speed is the keynote and the essential when it comes to distributing perishables, and speed is not what is provided by this Island scheme. The retailers first go to the Miller Street site for his produce from the commission men. Then he has three and a half miles more over badly paved streets to go and get what the farmers may have, and if he buys, fruit, lemons, oranges, and bananas down at Miller Street that fruit is going to be bruised during the trip, and when it comes to his stand it isn't fit for human consumption.

Now, in order to be particular why my clients are in favor of the Miller Street: The purchaser and the distributor will have ample room to do business. There is ample room for expansion. I have heard something about space. At the peak of the month of August the average number of farmers' trucks was 262. There is plenty of space down at Miller Street to accommodate 262 trucks.

We are against the split market. It will cause a waste of time, a waste of labor and a waste of money. We can obtain our products from the Jersey farmers who come there, at the same time getting our produce that comes from distant spots.

As to this unanimity you have heard about, there are 150 farmers here from Monmouth who are with us, the commission men have that place readily accessible for the farmers. There we have the commission men all ready to do business with them. There we have the cold storage plant and the railroad facilities and there is where we have to go, and we can say to the people, "Here are fresh goods." We want to visit one district in order to get our goods without traveling from one point to the other, especially at a distance that this proposed market is to be located at.

Now, Mr. Mayor and members of the Honorable Commission, this body, the men that I represent operate here in Newark. They are all New-arkers. There isn't anyone of them who doesn't live in Newark and who doesn't pay taxes in Newark and who doesn't have his business here, and the people of Newark depend upon them for their foodstuffs. We know that he is the one who is in favor of Miller Street and we hope the record of Commissioners will express itself in favor of this ordinance.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who desires to speak in favor of the ordinance?

Mr. Sidney B. Finkel, 31 Clinton Street, declared that he was in favor of the City of Newark retaining its fifty year prerogative of operating a Farmers' Market.

Mr. William H. Gifforn, Spotswood, N. J., declared in favor of a Miller Street City Market. He opposed the financial methods of the "Island" Company.

Mayor Congleton: We really are not interested in that. The farmers have a right to go into a business deal if they want to. They have a perfect right to do it. That does not concern the Commissioners.

Mr. Gifforn: Mr. Chairman, I want to impress upon you why these people are coming to my house asking for relief.

Mayor Congleton: That is their private affairs. They have made their own bed and they must lie on it. We are not concerned with that. We want to know whether we should buy this land at Miller Street or whether we should not. That is the question before us.

Mr. Gifforn: Then I must say that in my neighborhood there is a universal demand for the relief from the market that they are trying to open in this neighborhood. Everybody says to give them relief from that market down there.

Mayor Congleton: All right, Judge Stewart, have you any matter that you want to submit in rebuttal?

Mr. Stewart: It is simply this: The last speaker and the other gentleman from Monmouth County, are the only two gentlemen who have not carried on the argument in a perfectly orderly and fair way. I do not intend to enter into a discussion with them further than to say that the statements that they have made with reference to the meetings in Monmouth County are absolute falsehoods from start to finish—absolutely. That is all that I care to say about that.

Commissioner Gillen: I want to say a word Mr. Mayor, as the introducer of the ordinance.

I want to make it very clear, in addition to all that I said last week, that there was very good ground for the introduction of this ordinance for the establishment of a city-owned and city-operated farmers market in Miller Street. First I want to correct a few misstatements. One is as to the number of farmers that this space at Miller Street and Avenue A will accommodate. Judge Stewart makes the same mistake today that he made last week. He said that in the present farmers market at Commerce Street there is an area of 95,000 square feet, or something in excess of 90,000. In the proposed market at Miller Street and Avenue A there is an area of 67,000 square feet. He says that the Market at Commerce Street has accommodated over 400 farmers' trucks and that the space at Miller Street cannot accommodate over 180 farmers' trucks. What ridiculous statement that is. The space at Miller Street is almost three quarters of the space at Commerce Street, and if the space at Commerce Street can accommodate over 400 trucks, surely three-quarters of that space must be able to accommodate over 180 trucks. To get down to figures, I should say that the space at Miller Street would accommodate at least three quarters the number of trucks that the space at Commerce Street is now accommodating, which would be somewhere between three and four hundred trucks. In addition to that, the Commission men have built their commission houses away back from the building line, leaving large strips of vacant paved space between their buildings and the curb line. The Commission men have agreed with the City to permit the farmers and an overflow market to occupy this space. That, I believe, would more than make up for the lack in area of the Miller Street Market as compared with the Commerce Street market. In other words, with this additional accommodation the Market at Miller Street will be able to accommodate just as many trucks as did the market at Commerce Street, and I believe that that will be quite sufficient for all our needs, because, as Mr. Wollmuth, who changes so often, has expressed it, the number of farmers in this section is growing less year by year and must grow less, because as communities build up farms are absorbed and buildings are placed on them. That means that the number of farmers that will come to this market in the future is bound to be less than we now have. The number of commission houses, I believe, is bound to increase, and I think that that is another big argument in favor of the City's establishing a city-owned and city-administered market.

With all these facilities that have been explained to you today concentrated and coordinated—the all-important refrigerating plant, cold storage, the distribution yards of the railroads, the superior rail facilities, the commission men there, and the two markets combined—there is no question in my mind at all that a great deal of the property in that vicinity in the very near future be devoted to the expansion of the commission market. The commission market is bound to expand, because this section is growing greater day by day, which means that more foods must be brought into this territory as the products of the local farmers decrease. I do not mean to say that they will be wiped out altogether; that is not conceivable; but as the farmers naturally decrease the commission men will be forced to bring in more food from the outside to accommodate the increase in population.

Now, there is no question at all in my mind about not only the absolute desirability but the necessity of having two markets combined. From all the reliable information that I have been able to gather I am firmly convinced that if these markets are to continue in a satisfactory and prosperous manner and to bring in sufficient foodstuffs to the people of Newark at reasonable prices with proper competition they must be together. The two markets must succeed and must prosper, and they cannot succeed or prosper unless they are together. That is an absolute certainty in my mind. Therefore the only logical thing, it seems to me, for the City government to do, in order to serve its people and in order to insure its citizens a proper daily supply of fresh food, is to combine the two markets.

The City, I may say in answer to all the foolish statements that have been made, has never abandoned the idea of continuing a market here. While it leased out the Center Market because it didn't pay and because it created a deficit, it never had the idea of doing away with the City-owned farmers market. The City-owned farmers market always paid a profit. I am very sure in my figures when I say that the total cost of carrying the bonds on this new enterprise at Miller Street, plus the cost of operating expenses, would not reach the figure of $20,000. The receipts for the farmers market for years past have been in excess of $40,000. Even if we take in only half the receipts of the present farmers market, $20,000, the City will still have enough to pay all operating charges and carrying charges on the bonds, and will probably be able to bring in a profit to the treasury.

. They talk about the taxpayers. Whenever there is a proposition that is any way revenue producing, that might bring revenue to the City, we find, strangely enough, many citizens who do not want the City to go into it. Most of our revenue is spent without income coming back, being spent usually for governmental expense, where there is never returned any revenue; but here is a case where there is a revenue. There is a certain revenue. It does not mean an increase in taxes. It does not mean that any citizen has to put his hand in his pocket for another dollar. If it did I would not go ahead with this ordinance for a minute.

Now, as to the so-called farmers market at the Island, its origin and its purposes have fairly well been discussed here today. I do not believe that that market could go on and prosper unless it reached out in every direction and rented space to every person who wanted to use space down there. That is one of the dangerous things that we have to contend with in Newark. While operating the farmers market here we were continually faced with the problem of cheap speculators coming in from New York with partly decayed food that was probably not bad enough to be condemned by the Board of Health but not fit for the citizens of Newark to eat. If the farmer owned market is established and if they pay dividends on their stock, which is doubtful, they will have to rent space to those speculators. The result, in my opinion, will be that the farmers market on the Island will become a distribution point for a lot of food that is practically thrown away in New York City. We don't want that; we want the market under the absolute control and ownership of the City. In that way we can properly regulate it and keep out the undesirable speculators. In that way we can see that the market is run in a proper and safe manner.

So far as the effect of the farmers market going down to Miller Street is concerned, I have no fear at all about the returns to the City. I know that with the increase and expansion of the commission market in that vicinity and with farmers market going there, combining the two markets, it is only a question of a very short time when the ratables will so increase there that it will bring in a large amount of taxes to the City Treasury, aside from the other advantages that have been talked about.

Mr. Wollmuth, representing some committee of the Chamber of Commerce, talked about a great distribution yard down on the meadows. We have no quarrel with them at all. We have no objection to them nor their committees. It seems to me that for a number of years past they have been stressing too much the question of our taking care of New York. Under what obligation are we to take care of the City of New York or of its people? Does the City of New York or its people want us to take care of them? Aren't they large enough and rich enough to take care of themselves? Haven't they the greatest facilities in the world, both rail and water, with which to bring into New York all the foodstuffs they need? Why should we take valuable property belonging to the City of Newark and turn it over into a distribution point to take care of New York? There is now no reason why. If it were something that would bring in a return to Newark or bring large revenue to Newark, there would be a reason, but it will not. It will mean that trucks will come in from

New York, get their stuff, and go right back to New York, leaving nothing in Newark. Newark would simply be accommodating them. We would have to keep well paved streets for them. We would have to put on additional police and provide more regulation, in order to take care of these yards. I have no quarrel with the railroads and the New York men if they feel that they need a distribution point down here. There is plenty of land that they can acquire for providing a distribution yard for food products for New York. It certainly would bring nothing to Newark, because, as Mr. Wollmuth, stated, they wouldn't put up any buildings, except one low shack. It would not increase our ratables any. If we turned our property in Port Newark over to the State the land would still be out of the ratables.

This is the point that I have wanted to make and the thing that has actuated me in coming to the conclusion that the City should go down to Miller Street: We are primarily interested in providing the people of Newark with proper and wholesome food. That means bringing into the City of Newark a daily and abundant supply of proper and fresh food. We are interested in serving the City of Newark. These commission men who have established a market at Miller Street are citizens and taxpayers of Newark. They have a large payroll. The people who work for them live in Newark, pay taxes in Newark and pay rents in the City of Newark. Now, if they are all important in supplying the people of Newark with a proper supply of farm products, wholesome, fresh products, and if it is very essential, as has been explained by men who know all about the situation, that the farmers market be closely coordinated with the commission market, I say that it is our bounden duty and obligation as commissioners of Newark, to put that farmers market down at Miller Street, and no where else.

I do not believe that the project down at the Island could prosper under the conditions. Mr. Stewart told us last week that $40,000 of the money to be invested in the enterprise is to go for promotion purposes. That is the whole story so far.

Mr. Stewart: I did not say that at all, Commissioner Gillen.

Commissioner Gillen: Yes you did.

Mr. Stewart: Pardon me, you said it at this meeting. I didn't say that at all. I said that forty per cent. of the stock of the project was issued for the promotion, for the development, for the laying of the concrete walks, for the driveways and the roadways, and for the administration building, and for the plans. That is what I said.

Commissioner Gillen: You said it was for promotion purposes.

Mr. Stewart: I said nothing of the sort.

Commissioner Gillen: That is all right. The question is whether this should be considered alongside the policy of the City. The policy of the City for over sixty years has been to conduct this farmers market with the fundamental purpose in mind, as I said before, of supplying our citizens with a daily fresh supply of farm products. I think that the City should go on with that policy and not deviate from it at all.

In addition to that, some of the gentlemen who are now talking about the island site being a superior site have come to me for the past two years and have implored and begged me to establish a city-owned market close to the commission market. At a meeting of the McAllister Committee at the Robert Treat Hotel, at which Mr. Oley spoke—he speaks quite frequently; I don't know what his interest is—the representatives of the Chamber of Commerce all sat there and told me definitely and positively that the farmers market must be close to the commission market and that the two markets should be combined. They made that very clear. If they have changed their minds I don't know why they have. I think, Mr. Mayor, that that explains my views on this question. I think that we should go ahead with the ordinance.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance to authorize the acquirement of lands at the southeast corner of Avenue A and Wright Street and the southwest corner of said Avenue A and Wright Street, in the City of Newark, for municipal use, and providing for the financing thereof.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray: There has been a great deal said here pro and con. The record of the hearing is tremendous. I think that the City Commission should lay the matter over, take it up in special conference, and decide it a week from today. I am not prepared to vote on it now.

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Mayor, before I vote on that there are a few things I think both sides to this controversy should know. Because of the very position that I hold as Director of Finance, which includes taxes, I have made a very careful study of this matter. In fact, I think I have spent more time on this matter than on any other matter that has come before the Board in the year that I have been a member of the Commission.

There are two sides to it. First I learned that the merchants have property in which they have invested to an extent upon which they are taxed $966,900. In addition to that, the refrigerating company has erected a building upon which they are taxed $534,000, making a total of $1,500,900, upon which they pay $59,375.82 to be exact. Now, we want to protect them. There isn't any doubt about that.

I recall the time when they purchased that block. I wish I knew then as much as I do now, for I owned over two acres of land within one block of that site, bordering on Avenue B, but that is neither here nor there. What has impressed most is the 1200 storekeepers that Mr. D'Aloia spoke for. I believe that the best interests of those people should be conserved. If these gentlemen wish to have the other market, I see no reason why they should not have it, but the one thing that I have in mind is that we should protect the property now established.

I know the prices paid for that property at the time, for five days after I had disposed of my land almost across the street, through Mr. Schlesinger I learned, when he applied to me asking if I would sell my land, what the prices were. He told me the prices he was paying.

What I do positively object to is the City's paying $140,000 for this piece of property. It seems to me that we are willing to help the merchants who have already established there. We are willing to protect them in every way possible, but here is a time when they realize that if this farmers market is not located adjoining their market they are apt to lose a lot of money. They say they have much at stake—the merchants association, the cold storage warehouse, and the rest of them. I don't know the exact cost; I can find it out; but they are taxed on it to the extent of over $1,500,000, from which we receive practically $60,000 in taxes. Why, then, if they have so much at stake at this time do they ask us such an exorbitant price? I have the records in my office of what was paid for this property. If they want to be good sports, I will second Commissioner Murray's motion until they come along and offer to sell that land at a fair price. This price it not fair.

I am in favor of a farmers' market at Miller Street, but I am positively opposed to the merchants' submitting to us a price which includes the original cost and the taxes they have paid on the property that they have used for seven years, which none of us could do if we wanted to sell our property. There is something for the merchants to think about. I am ready to vote for a farmers market at Miller Street, but the price the merchants are asking us is unfair. They have even added insurance. I have talked with some of the men and I have told them that the price is not fair. They considered that they could do better. I am wondering if they are ready to give us a decent price for that property, because we are helping to protect their investment in the property which they have there now. I think that is only a fair thing.

Commissioner Gillen: The site was appraised, Mr. Mayor, by two competent real estate men. They have based their value of the two plots at over $150,000, somewhere between $150,000 and $160,000. They figured that the improvements on one of the plots would cost the City in the neighborhood of $30,000 to place there if we had to do it. Deducting the $30,000 from $140,000 would leave a cost of $110,000. The real estate men figured that the land was being sold at a rate of about $150. a front foot, which, they said, was a fair and proper value for land in that section, eliminating, of course, the additional amount for corner influence and plottage.

We dickered with the commission men, as you know, for a long time before we made any attempt to deal with them at all. They wanted in excess of $200,000 originally. After long dickering they came down to the figure of $140,000. In view of the appraisals made and my own knowledge of real estate there, I think that the valuation was very fair. If we are going to do business with them at all we ought to treat them fairly. That has been my thought in the matter.

Mayor Congleton: I am prepared to make known my views in the matter. At the start I was opposed to the City buying land for a farmers market. Reference has been made to establishing a market at Port Newark. We offered the farmers a site at Port Newark which could be very easily gotten to, especially in view of the new Haynes Avenue bridge and the new viaduct that will go from Poinier Street across the freight yards and connect with route 25 and route 29 at the head of the airport, but the farmers, including several of the farmers who are advocating the site at Chapel Street, insisted that the location of a farmers market at Port Newark was too far removed from the wholesale market.

It was after listening to the farmers themselves that I became convinced that the farmers market and the wholesale market should be together. I have approached this subject with that point with an open mind. The farmers who have been using the farmers market are not in accord. That being so, I have to exercise my best judgment, and when I listen on the one hand to all those retail storekeepers in our city, who are paying the taxes that we levy and whose ability to pay that tax is dependent upon our keeping this business alive, it helps me a lot, I say in arriving at my final conclusion. Then, I have been very much impressed this morning by the statement made by the representatives of the railroad companies and by Mr. Horne of the refrigerating plant.

I recall very distinctly that when we built our new city market and established a farmers market there we were glad to see the wholesaler go to the location that they went to, because it was one of the very best locations that could be found in the city for that purpose. It was at the end of the City, if you please, and abutting upon the large railroad yards, where the merchants could have connections with practically all the main trunk lines, upon which the merchants are so dependent for their goods to feed us. The City at that time invested a large sum of money of the taxpayers if you please, in order to make the proper improvements in the streets and furnish facilities that were needed for that industry down there, which has returned to the city indirectly thousands of dollars in taxes. Commissioner Howe has told you what we are receiving today.

So far as the price of the land is concerned, I am not a real estate expert. Not only in this case, but in all other transactions that I have to participate in as a representative of the City, I must depend upon the men who are engaged in that line of business and who I assume know their business. They are reputable real estate men and members of real estate organization, and I assume that they are in good standing or those organizations would have them before the ethics committee, if they have such a thing, and dismiss them from membership. Therefore I must take their opinions as to value. So far as the cost of laying concrete upon the part of the property that is improved is concerned, that I can check through the engineers in my department, who are laying concrete pavements all the time. That gets us down to the question of $110,000, as I see it, for the land. Based on the appraisals made I am prepared to vote for that price

I remember very well when we started the negotiations with the Pennsylvania Railroad and with the Public Service for the big improvements that are now under way, we all knew that the farmers market would have to be abandoned where it was. I think that to a very large extent the reason why the farmers have not gone to Miller Street heretofore is because the City has been maintaining its market. Just as soon as it was known that the farmers market was to be abandoned the farmers and the commission merchants approached the Board of Commissioners and urged the establishment of the farmers market at Miller Street, so it is not true that this matter has suddenly come before us since the other proposition came before the public. The Chapel Street location came before us and before the public long after we had the other matter under consideration. I feel that the city, having urged the commission men to go along with them, and they having their large investment there, ought to help that section. In my opinion it is about the only use to which it can be put, something that is to be used in connection with the trunk line railroads. I think we should do it, because we have always intimated, although without any definite promise that when the farmers market would be abandoned in Commerce Street one would be provided for the retail storekeepers and the commission men, so that they might carry on their business.

A lot has been said about the taxpayers. I have the taxpayer in mind. This project will not cost the taxpayer one additional dollar in his tax bill. That is not entirely a complete answer to it. We of course should always try not only not to increase the tax burden but we ought also to try to reduce it. We have done that. We have seen that the time has come for the city to abandon the Center Market in the center of the City, and I think that any taxpayer who will give any thought or attention to the proposition and building that we put through there must, if he wants to be fair and honest, say that the Board of Commissioners did a good job in the interest of the taxpayers and that, having received that return by way of rent from the land that had been dedicated for years to market purposes, it is only right and proper that we should in part appropriate some of that income towards the maintenance and upkeep of another farmers market to take the place of the one that we are destroying.

For those reasons I have prepared to vote for the ordinance. The Miller Street site has wonderful highway facilities,—25, 29, and 21 are right there, and number 10, whether it goes across Clay Street or whether it goes across at Verona Avenue having its connection with other highways that go down toward Route 25; so the market will have excellent connections and facilities for getting there.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, the sentiment expressed by you, by Commissioner Gillen and by Commissioner Howe, so far as the fundamentals are concerned, are in agreement with my opinion. I am of the opinion that the proper place for this market is the Miller Street location, for the reason that there is established in that particular locality a wholesale district covered by very large investments on the part of private owners, including the refrigerating company and the railroad companies. The gentleman who spoke as a representative of the Merchants Refrigerating Company spoke with authority, in my mind, in so far as expert opinion is concerned. They have been the three important features, as Mr. Horne outlined—the wholesale district, railroad facilities, and refrigeration facilities.

As has been indicated by Commissioner Gillen, the farmers market on the old location was a financial success. During the perishable fruit and vegetable season all one has had to do was to go through that old farmers market territory during the night time to fully realize that it is a well developed business.

I recall going down with my colleagues last summer to inspect the property suggested by the wholesale commission merchants. I also recall at that time looking over a financial statement presented by the association, which did include the cost of carrying that property since it had been purchased by those gentlemen. The statement showed items covering taxes for every year, interest on the investment, insurance, and so forth. I do not want to disagree with the opinion of the real estate experts who have supplied Commissioner Gillen with their appraisals, but the only thing in my mind that is as yet not decided is the question of the cost of the land and whether there is sufficient land there to provide the necessary facilities to take care of the situation.

I, too, am impressed very much by the statement made by Counsellor D'Aloia representing the retail merchants of the City. It is fine to have the cooperation of the farmers. I think that the City of Newark will be very ready to show a spirit of cooperation. The most important factor in the situation, however, is the residents of Newark being afforded every facility for wholesome food at reasonable cost. We know that the method of procedure is for the farmer to come to the market, sell his products, and for the retail merchant, who usually comes in his own automobile, to bring it back into the different neighborhoods for the citizens of Newark to purchase.

I think, too, that what his Honor, the Mayor, has said is quite accurate—that if it were not for the fact that after the wholesale merchants had moved from the old market plaza territory we retained the farmers market under the old city auspices, the farmers market at Miller Street would have been a success.

I am not prepared to say, Mr. Mayor, that I would like to vote today on the price of $140,000.

Mayor Congleton: The passage of this ordinance does not fix the price. It authorizes the City to purchase or to condemn the land at a sum not exceeding $140,000. If we purchase it we have to pass another resolution appropriating to the purchasers a sum of money finally agreed upon. If we do not agree upon a price and we still think that we ought to go ahead with the project, we, of course, can do it by condemnation.

Commissioner Egan: We do not even by implied contract agree to pay $140,000?

Commissioner Gillen: That was the last figure they gave us. We still have the power to condemn if we think that their price is a little bit high. If you think that the location of the market ought to be there and you think that the price asked is too high, I suggest that you start condemnation.

Commissioner Egan: If that is the situation from the legal standpoint, I am willing to vote for it today.

Commissioner Murray Mr Mayor,

I am not opposed to the farmers market in connection with the commission merchants, but I am not going to vote on it today. I am not going to vote for it. If the ordinance is put to a vote, I will vote against it. There are several details which require explanation, which are very vital. I do not see that there is anything so emergent in the premises that should require that the ordinance be voted on today. I move that it be laid over for a week.

Mayor Congleton: The motion before us now is to postpone action on the ordinance for one week.

Commissioner Gillen: I insist on a vote today. We have gone into this thing for a year and a half.

Commissioner Egan: In connection with my vote on this ordinance for second reading, it goes right to third today, doesn't it?

Mayor Congleton: It is moved.

Commissioner Egan: If it is clearly understood that the price is not definitely established, I vote in favor of the ordinance.

Mayor Congleton: The motion is to postpone the vote for a week.

Commissioner Egan: All right, I will vote against that.

The roll being called, the motion was declared lost by the following votes:

WHEREAS, The Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Theodore Bornstein, owner for the construction of a 5-story apartment house for 40 families; premises 110-116 Renner Avenue;

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this matter?

Mr. Jacob Lubetkin, 60 Park Place: Gentlemen, I represent the applicant in this matter. I want to enter an objection to any action by the Board in approving this application. It seems to me that this is a case where the Board of Adjustment has complete jurisdiction. The property is within 150 feet of a similar use.

Mayor Congleton: Do you mean across the street?

Mr. Lubetkin: Across the street.

Mayor Congleton: I don't agree with you.

Mr. Lubetkin: Well, there are cases holding it.

Commissioner Howe: It is all one-family houses on both side of the street.

Mr. Lubetkin: Without waiving any of my legal rights, of course.

Mayor Congleton: Of course, we can't take that away from you.

Mr. Lubetkin went on to say that he thought the application should be granted.

Mr. William A. Brooks, 972 Broad Street spoke in opposition to the granting of the application.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak in opposition?

Mr. J. A. Linnett, 75 Scheerer Avenue spoke in opposition. He said he represented residents of Scheerer and Renner Avenues.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard in opposition?

Mr. Joseph Saxton, 108 Renner Avenue, spoke in opposition to the permit.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard in opposition? (No answer). Do you want to say something more, Mr. Lubetkin?

Mr. Lubetkin again spoke in behalf of the application.

Mayor Congleton: We have to stop somewhere, I agree with you, Mr. Lubetkin, that we are going to go to apartments, but when it comes to a neighborhood where there are people living there and the people do not want the apartments, we must give some consideration to their feelings, because the people who have made that neighborhood are entitled to some consideration rather than one man who has bought some land, has let it lay idle for some years.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Counselor, here is a section that is composed of private residences. Your client no doubt has purchased this particular parcel for a more attractive price than he could have purchased it along Elizabeth Avenue. We are all of the opinion that we want to see more buildings in Newark, but we must have some regard for the fellow who has put all he owns in a little home, hoping to be able to enjoy a private one-family or two-family neighborhood.

Mr. Lubetkin: You see, this is not a flagrant case, because it is on the border line of the apartment house zone. This is an area of five or six square block in which there are one-family houses. If this was a case where a man were to inject an apartment house right in the center, it would be different, but it is right near the corner.

Commissioner Howe: It is between one-family houses.

Commissioner Egan: It ruined our neighborhood on Sixteenth Street between Clinton and Madison Avenue, when the same thing was sneaked in in the middle of the block.

Mr. Lubetkin: Look what happened to Elizabeth Avenue when those apartments were constructed on Elizabeth Avenue. They certainly didn't do those houses on Goldsmith Avenue and Pamona Avenue any good.

Commissioner Egan: Of course not.

Commissioner Howe: You cannot erect an apartment house across the street without destroying some private houses.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared lost by the following votes:

Nayes: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission this afternoon?

Mr. Robert H. Everitt, 355 Lafayette Street. Gentlemen, this is my fourth appearance before this body in behalf of the truck owners of the City of Newark. Last Tuesday I was advised that we could probably get some redress through the Motor Vehicle Department, and at the same time I called to the attention of the Board the influence being brought to bear somewhere here keeping trucks on the canal. At this time I want to say that it is in all probability being extended further than the City Hall; it is in the local police courts. A month ago Commissioner Hoffman gave, I guess, six or seven tickets for speeding, overloading, and so on on this particular job. Up until today there has been no disposition made of the cases.

Mayor Congleton: You say that Commissioner Hoffman's department gave them?

Mr. Everitt: His Department.

Mayor Congleton: You had better ask him about that. We do not have anything to do with the tickets that he gives out.

Mr. Everitt: I was referred to the Motor Vehicle Commission. If you will allow me to explain why I can get no further cooperation: Until there is something done here with the tickets—Hoffman is pretty well discouraged from what Mr. Lago tells me. I don't know—I don't want to become a pest here. I would like you gentlemen to advise me today whether it is possible or not to remove the out of town trucks, and I assure you I won't bother you.

Mayor Congleton: How many do you say there are there?

Mr. Everitt: Approximately twelve.

Mayor Congleton: Well, my investigation proves that it is not so.

Mr. Everitt: At the last meeting I furnished affidavits for a number that I am absolutely sure of.

Commissioner Gillen. You don't reach the figure of 12, though did you?

Commissioner Egan: Just a minute. Is your name Robert H. Everitt?

Mr. Everitt: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Egan: Is this your picture?

Mr. Everitt: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Egan: You are the business agent of the New Jersey Truck Owner's Protective Association?

Mr. Everitt: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Egan: You come here representing a group under the auspices of this association. I have in mind here a record of what seems to be your activities in criminal circles in this State.

Mr. Everitt: I would be glad to have them made public, so that everybody can understand.

Commissioner Egan: It certainly will be made public, and I want to say, as City Commissioner and as Director of Public Safety, that any municipality is happy indeed to cooperate with any auspices that has for its particular purpose the welfare of its membership, but when an organization sees fit to select a man such as you to come before the governing body of the City of Newark to raise questions about the manner in which things are being handled under City auspices, I want to say to you frankly, as one member of the City Commission, that I discount your substance and your representative position to less than nothing. In so far as I am concerned, so long as you are the rep-representative of this organization it is not my desire as a member of the governing body of this city to listen to what you have to say.

We read a great deal in the newspapers every day about rackets, and you certainly are not a lily-white gentleman, by any means.

I want to say further that you have associated with you also a gentleman by the name of James Murphy.

Mr. Everitt: That is right.

Commissioner Egan: What is his position?

Mr. Everitt: He is president.

Commissioner Egan: He also has a very pretty record in the Police Departments of this State. I want to say further to you that whether or not you might reserve unto yourself your constitutional rights, insofar as your being treated graciously by this department, over which I preside, you may expect nothing from this department.

Mr. Everitt: May I ask you at this time to enlighten the private persons as to what my record is?

Commissioner Egan: Yes, sir, I will gladly. On January 7, 1909 you were arrested in Newark, New Jersey, on a charge of receiving stolen goods, Officers Crawford and Saslow. Mr. Wolfe, Central Bowling Alleys, complainant, Halsey and Market Streets. On January 18, 1909, before Judge Ten Eyck in Quarter Sessions Court, you were sentenced to the State Reformatory at Rahway, New Jersey.

Mr. Everitt: It is not so.

Commissioner Egan: That is the record.

Mr. Everitt: That is not so.

Commissioner Egan: It was necessary for the Police Department to apprehend you in 1913, 1920, 1925 and 1928.

Mr. Everitt: Inasmuch as it was necessary for the Police Department to take those steps, in all probability a number of people in this room who have at one time have had something one way or another that didn't amount to any more than that did.

Commissioner Egan: I move you, Mr. Mayor, that until this organization has representing it as spokesmen and officers, men of higher caliber and better records than this man that this Commission give it no consideration whatever.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard before we adjourn?

(No response).

Commissioner Gillen moved to adjourn.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Dr. Lawrence A. Cahill, 361 Lafayette Street: The neighbors would like to know what portion of the expense the City would bear in the paving of this street.

Mayor Congleton: The City does help out on every repaving. You will have your day before the Assessment Commissioners to raise the questions that you are now raising, when they apportion the cost as between the City at large and the abutting property owners.

Mr. L. Wohl, 66 Merchant Street: It is one of the most prominent streets you have got "Down Neck".

Mayor Congleton: This street has not been paved in a good many years.

Mrs. Vollmer, 67 Merchant Street: I have rooms empty, and people living in it and paying no rent. I am a widow woman and I can't afford this.

ANNUAL REPORTS.

The following Annual Reports for the year 1930 were received and ordered filed:

Director of the Department of Public Safety.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter that they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. Ignatz Weiss, 530 Market Street, said he was assessed $1,000. and that he had no income.

Commissioner Howe: That is an assessment for the Jackson Street opening.

Mr. Weiss: I am collecting $15 a month rent on the whole house.

Mayor Congleton: Don't you think your land has increased in value by being put on the corner?

Mr. Weiss: I have nothing but the little house that is standing.

Mayor Congleton: Did you appear before the Assessment Commission or file objection before the court?

Mr. Weiss: I did, but it didn't do me anything.

Commissioner Murray: I move it be referred to Director Howe.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. James H. O'Neill, 258 Runyon Street.

Gentlemen, as you know, this is our fifth appearance of the New Jersey Truck Owners Protective Association protesting a condition that exists on the City Railway job.

Mayor Congleton: What do you say the conditions are?

Mr. O'Neill: Out of town trucks.

Mayor Congleton: How many?

Mr. O'Neill: I believe there is twelve or fourteen trucks.

Mayor Congleton: Well, now, you have made that statement. The last time my department had an interview with your representative he made that statement, and we were able, after investigating, to show that there were only—it got down to four, and three of those it was shown from the records of the Motor Vehicle Department, were residents of Newark who took their licenses out here in Newark, which left one; and the one the contractor was told to dismiss I assume he has done so

Mr. O'Neill: Commissioner, we realize the fact that a lot of these men have dropped a postal card in the mail box to inform Commissioner Hoffman that they have moved to Newark.

Mayor Congleton: I am not talking about postal cards, I am talking about when they made their applications for their licenses for their trucks and got their license plates.

Mr. O'Neill: Well, I believe Commissioner Howe has a letter that was sent by Commissioner Hoffman. Is that correct?

Commissioner Howe: What for? What kind of a letter?

Mr. O'Neill: A letter that we asked the addresses on these. Or someone in the Commission has it.

Commissioner Howe: Not me. I wouldn't have it.

Mr. O'Neill. I believe that it was March 19.

Commissioner Howe: If a letter of that kind came to me it would be referred to the Tax Board. I never even saw it.

Mr. O'Neill: On March 19, we received a letter from Commissioner Hoffman, and the Commissioner gave us the address of Charles Ianneillo as Harrison. All we are asking of the City Commission is to show us on tax records or on the voting list that these men are permanent residents of the City of Newark.

Mayor Congleton: We don't propose to undertake to do that at all. It is up to you to prove it to us if you can. You haven't submitted any proof yet that convinces us. We are in thorough accord with your proposal that all of this work should be done by local people, because it is being paid with Newark taxpayers' money.

Mr. O'Neill: Two weeks ago we presented affidavits—

Mayor Congleton: And those are the very things that I refer to, the affidavits, twelve in number, were reduced to four in the presence of your own representative, and three of those were finally discarded, which left one who was an out of town owner. The contractor was instructed to lay that truck off.

Mr. O'Neill: Well, Commissioner, is the Harrison Haulage Company of Jersey City a Newark concern?

Mayor Congleton: I can't tell you who the individual owners are.

Mr. O'Neill: Harrison Haulage Company, 172 Harrison Avenue, Jersey City, New Jersey. Catone, Lake Street, Belleville. Now, it was brought out at a former meeting that Mr. Fay has a lien on these trucks. That may be all well and good that he has a lien on the trucks, but the City of Newark is protecting them by keeping Jersey City men in there.

Mayor Congleton: We will go just as far as it is possible for us to go in keeping out of town trucks off the job. We are doing it.

Mr. O'Neill: Then we can expect no action, is that it?

Mayor Congleton: We have taken action.

Mr. O'Neill: Well, I mean on the trucks that are on there now.

Mayor Congleton: I have said to you, and I say again, in as plain and as simple language as I know how to use, that we propose to do everything in our power to limit this work to Newark residents.

Does anyone else have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission?

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I have a matter I would like to take up with the Commission. It is assembly Bill 187, which provides for placing all taxicabs in the City of Newark under the supervision of the Public Utility Commission. At a Legislative Conference some time ago the City Commission went on record as opposing this legislation. I read in the papers today that this legislation has passed the House of Assembly and will now go to the Senate. I am sure that our legislative representative has made plain to the legislators our attitude. But so there won't be any possibility of the legislators not knowing it, I move you, Mr. Mayor, that we communicate with the Senator from Essex County, calling to his attention the fact that we are opposed to this legislation; and that the City Clerk also be instructed to communicate with every state senator to the effect that we are opposed to the proposed legislation; and that his Excellency, Governor Larson, be sent a letter to the effect that Newark is opposed to this legislation.

Mayor Congleton: You have heard the motion. All in favor say "aye", opposed "no".

Commissioner Gillen: Why not ask the Senate for a hearing on it? I think there are a lot of people in the state who would like to be heard on it.

Commissioner Egan: Yes. That is a very good suggestion.

Commissioner Gillen: Then you would have a chance to present your views to a representative of the Senate.

Commissioner Egan: I would be willing to accept that amendment.

Mayor Congleton: To also notify them and ask for a hearing.

Commissioner Gillen: This is one of those bills that year after year are taking more and more power out of the hands of municipal officials. If it is done for the benefit of the people, all right. But in many cases like this one it is not done for the benefit of the people. The taxicab is something that is intimately related to the municipality. No other person can regulate the taxicab business but municipal officials. The Public Utility Commission in Trenton would not know the first thing about municipal regulation unless the motive is to monopolize the whole thing and have one company drive all the independents out of business.

Mr. David E. Feldman: I wish to thank Director Egan for his kind efforts on behalf of this bill. I represent the Newark Twentieth Century Taxicab Association, which, I believe, runs approximately 550 taxicabs in the City of Newark. We are running at a popular rate. The people are very well satisfied with our service. I think the purpose of this bill is to eliminate popular taxicab rates. The fact is that this Utility Board, this body under whom we are going to be placed if this bill passes the Senate, would have the right to regulate rates. I spoke to several men of the Public Service yesterday in Trenton who were favoring this bill. They think that it is the only way they can compel taxicab men in the City of Newark to do away with the fifty-cent rate. They are in favor of having this legislation passed. Its object is to do away with the fifty cent rate. It is also bad legislation in that it doesn't give the present taxicab men any protection. It means that taxicab men must make application to the Utility Board. If the Utility Board finds that there are too many cabs in the City of Newark to suit the Board it will have the right to deny taxicab privilege to taxicab owners that have been operating for years in the City of Newark. I have been in communication with Senator Wolber in order to get from him a public hearing in this matter and so far I have been unable to do so. I ask this body to ask the Senator from Essex to get a public hearing.

Mayor Congleton: What committee has the bill?

Mr. Feldman: It has now gone to the Senate. I don't know who is going to get it in the Senate.

Mayor Congleton: We would want to get after the chairman of the committee who is in charge of the hearing.

Commissioner Murray: Ways and Means.

Mr. Feldman: We are perfectly satisfied with the municipal control of taxicabs today. We live up to every regulation that this city requires of us. We are serving the public. The public is perfectly satisfied with us.

Mayor Congleton: Up to this time Senator Wolber could not have done anything on a public hearing. The bill was not in his house. I do not think it is quite fair to say he refused to give a hearing.

Mr. Feldman: I didn't mean that. I didn't mean to convey that.

Mayor Congleton: The thing to do is to get after the chairman of the committee to whom the bill is referred; get after him.

Mr. Feldman: I might say the delegation from Essex County only gave us two votes against this bill. I understand at the time when I canvassed and before the Public Service became interested in this bill, that the Essex delegation was absolutely opposed to it.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any other person have any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission?

Commissioner Howe: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The Board of Commissioners

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.,
City Clerk.

Newark, N J April 15, 1931

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of the meeting of April 8, 1931, were read and approved.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission. I have a resolution which I would like to have the City Clerk read at this time.

WHEREAS, our estimable co-worker, Charles A. Lindner, will reach the sixty-fifth year of his life on April 21, 1931, and will therefore, as required by the rules and regulations of the Police Department of the City of Newark, retire from the aforesaid Department in which he holds the office of Captain of Police; and

WHEREAS, the retirement of Captain Lindner marks the termination of virtually a half century of labor in the service of the public. At the age of fifteen he entered the United States Navy and in the ensuing five years went with it around the world and participated in quelling armed uprisings in the Orient and in the rescue of the crew of a shipwrecked steamer in the Pacific Ocean. Following his tour of duty in the naval forces, he enlisted in the United States Army and over a period of five years more was on active military duty in various sections of the country, taking part in the Indian warfare prevalent at the time and attaining the rank of Sergeant. Thus on January 19, 1892, he entered the Newark Police Department as Chancemen, bringing with him a wealth of military training, discipline and experience which was to be ably applied for more than thirty-nine years in his chosen permanent field of duty, that of guarding and watching over the lives and property of the people of his native city; and

WHEREAS, for almost four decades Captain Lindner's services as a police officer have been signally distinguished by his steadfast devotion to duty throughout, which brought to him succeeding promotions as Roundsman on July 1, 1907, as Sergeant on October 1, 1908, then as Lieutenant on April 1, 1912, and finally on July 1, 1915, as Captain of Police, a post which he has filled with honor both to himself and to the Department during the past sixteen years;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that in view of his half century of labors in the services of his city and country, characterized by his high standards of personal honesty, integrity and adherence to duty, we, the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, on behalf of the people of Newark, herewith record our expression of appreciation of those services rendered by Captain Charles A. Lindner, and of the high ideals of civic duty which actuated him in devoting his life to the public good.

W. J. Egan
Jerome T. Congleton
Charles P. Gillen
John Howe
Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

Commissioner Egan: I move, Mr. Mayor, that we adopt it.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan (Talking to Captain Lindner): Captain, in behalf of the Mayor and the City Commissioners I take great pleasure in presenting this engrossed copy of the resolution just adopted by the Commission, complimenting you upon your wonderful service as a member of the Newark Police Department. Under the State law it is mandatory that you retire, and in behalf of the City I say to you that it is with great regret that we see you leave active service. You take with you the sentiments expressed in this resolution. In addition to those sentiments, you take the friendly, kindly, and whole-hearted feeling of the members of the City Commission, of the governing body of the great City of Newark.

We wish you good luck, God-speed, and long life, so that you will enjoy that which you have justly earned.

Captain Charles A. Lindner: Mr. Mayor, honorable Board of Commissioners, I am conscious of the wonderful honor you have bestowed on me. I am also conscious of the fact that I am entirely unable to express in words what my feelings are at this time, but I know you will bear with me in this. I want to assure you that this will be something that in the future will be the source of great satisfaction and comfort to me and that it will be something that I will be proud of, not only for myself, but for my family. I thank you. (Applause.)

Chief of Police McRell. Mr. Mayor and the Honorable Board of Commissioners, may I invite you to come and enjoy a luncheon in honor of Captain Lindner that we will have immediately after the City Commission meeting at Mr. Staubwasser's at 18 Green Street. We would like very much to have you all attend. We promise not to keep you too long.

Mayor Congleton: Honorable Chief, I think all of us who can will certainly be there.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, I would like to compliment the Captain and Chief for his long and faithful service. I am sorry I didn't get into the Police Department. Here are all these fellows getting up to sixty-five to seventy years of age and they all look hale and hearty and strong. They look as if they had taken care of themselves. The City of Newark is to be complimented upon the fact that the health of the Police Department is one hundred per cent. I hope everyone of these fellows will live to be sixty-five and then some. I hope that Captain Lindner, now retired, will live to enjoy many years of play following the work of many years that he has done, during which time he has lived a good clean life morally and physically. I know that I express the sentiments of the entire City Commission when I hope that your years will be many full and that in the finish you will go out in the glory that is coming to a man that has lived a life such as you have.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.

City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., April 22, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of meeting of April 15th were read and approved.

Mayor Congleton: Miss Gash, I understand you have a matter you want to present to the Board?

Miss Frances Gash, Prudential Building: I have been assigned the task of presenting to your body a petition signed by the petitioners of the Third Ward. Over two thousand signatures are in this petition.

Miss Gash asked if Commissioner Gillen had instigated the suit which has delayed action by the Prudential Insurance Company.

Commissioner Gillen: I would not like to see you mislead; that taxpayers' suit has been instituted in the name of Mr. Galente. Where do you live now, Miss Gash?

Miss Gash: I live on Goldsmith Avenue, number 163.

Commissioner Gillen: I am entirely in sympathy with the suit, but I am sorry for the conditions that exist there. I would like to see the litigation expedited.

Miss Gash: Will you help us, with the cooperation of the other Commissioners.

Commissioner Gillen: Ask the court about that.

Miss Gash then spoke of property depreciation in the Third Ward and read the petition as follows:

To The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark:

We, the undersigned, property owners and business-men of the Third Ward, respectfully petition your Board to use every effort to hasten and facilitate the proposed erection of apartment houses in the Third Ward of the City of Newark, commonly known as the Prudential Housing Plan.

Within the past few years property in this vicinity has been continually depreciating in value; our tenants are moving away and those of us who own houses are unable to rent them and those of us who are in business are suffering from loss of business.

We feel and realize that the erection of these buildings by the Prudential Insurance Company would tend to change the entire character of this section and will be the beginning of the logical desirability and general beneficial development in this section of the city so close to the center.

We do not believe that any private individuals could undertake this great task and that the Prudential Insurance Company should not be hindered but encouraged in its plan. A long delay by reason of litigation or otherwise will work continual hardship upon us as we are not able to rent our property or do any business while the condition of this ward is as it is at the present time.

This ward is so badly advertised that it is impossible to get respectable people of any race to move into it and that, combined with the present business depression, is ruining the merchant and property owner.

(Signed by 500)

Ordered filed.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I would like at this time to have the pleasure of presenting to his honor the Mayor and the members of the City Commission, Mr. Robert E. Proctor, Grand President of the Fraternal Order of Eagles of Elkhart, Indiana, who is here visiting on an official fraternal matter.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Proctor, in the name of the City, we are very glad to welcome you in our midst. We all know of the wonderful work that your organization is carrying on, and we consider it a privilege to have the supreme head of that organization sit in with us this morning, and also to have you here visiting our city: We hope that your stay will be a very pleasant one.

Mr. Proctor: Thank you, Mr. Mayor. I am particularly glad to be here at this time, because ten years ago in August our great fraternity began its great crusade for old age pensions, and yesterday in the Senate I had the pleasure of being there when the Senate passed an old age pension law, which will be signed by the Governor of New Jersey on Friday at eleven o'clock a.m. I am glad to carry that news out to the rest of the United States of America, and I congratulate this State and this City upon being the place where old age pensions first saw the light of day. I have enjoyed my stay with you. I want to come back someday when I am simply a Hoosier lawyer, so I can spend more time with you.

Mayor Congleton: Thank you.

Mr. Jacob Lubetkin, 60 Park Place: May I supplement some of Miss Gash's remarks? I do not want to elaborate or amplify or repeat the same things that Miss Gash has said, except this: The synagogues have gotten so that the congregations of the Third Ward have difficulty in getting attendances for prayer meetings. Because of the economic situation we find it difficult to build in the Weequahic section in which they have gone. Now, there are two whole blocks in that ward that are practically dormant, that are shut. The merchants in this ward are deriving no benefit from it. People owning property on the other side of the street cannot rent them. The ward is not receiving proper police protection, it is not receiving proper health attention, and something has got to be done.

Mr. Morris Heyman, 155 Spruce Street, spoke of Third Ward conditions.

Mayor Congleton: The Commission will take it up.

Mrs. S. Goodman, 153 Spruce Street, said that business was at a low mark in the Third Ward.

Dr. Shiffman, 110 Shanley Avenue, spoke on general conditions in the Third Ward.

Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein, 17 Academy Street, suggested that the proposed housing improvements in the Third Ward be expedited as quickly as possible.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Mayor, might it be proper at this time to ask the speakers here whether they understand that the City Commission by resolution approved this plan and agreed to enter into the contract with the Prudential Insurance Company? Is that clear in all your minds?

Miss Gash: We understand that, Commissioner Murray.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance? We have very large and extensive protests on this. The last request was for a revision of the costs. I am not prepared to recommend it. In view of that, I would suggest that the ordaining clause be stricken out.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Joseph Zemel objected to the proposed cutting of the Market Street sidewalks.

Mayor Congleton: Anyone else? Does Mr. Hoagland want to be heard?

Mr. Hoagland: No.

Mayor Congleton: In front of your property, Mr. Zemel, the sidewalk will be sixteen feet wide.

Mr. Zemel: Yes, sir. That is taking off, I think, almost two feet.

Mayor Congleton: A sixteen foot sidewalk is wide enough anywhere.

Mr. Zemel: Not on Market Street there. The Pennsylvania Railroad there gives a great deal of pedestrian traffic, that is what we make our living from.

Mayor Congleton: You have a 16.25 foot sidewalk commencing right at Raymond Plaza and running west it gets down, and the narrow part is at Lawrence Street just now, where it gets down to 12.15 feet; and the thought in back of this was that with the change of grade on Market Street in connection with the big improvements that are going on down there, that this was the time to do it for the purpose of saving some of the cost.

Mr. Zemel: We don't know what effect these new streets are going to have.

Mayor Congleton: Well, we do know, Mr. Zemel, that in all city planning throughout the country that the roadways which carry trolleys are made so that one moving vehicle can pass another parked at the curb along with the trolley, and that is what is causing so much of your congestion on the street that we hear so much about. That 16 foot sidewalk, I cannot see why it is not wide enough.

Mr. Zemel: I wish you would come down there some evening when the people come off the trains.

Mayor Congleton: Those streets are going to separate your pedestrian traffic. Some of them will take Commerce Street, some of them Raymond Boulevard, and those others.

Mr. Zemel: Wouldn't it be well to wait to see how things work out?

Mayor Congleton: I do not think so, at least from the practical side of it. In making these improvements the grade of the street has got to be changed some on account of the clearance of the track. You do not want the sidewalk left up in the air. We do not want to relay all that sidewalk and then a year or two afterwards have to cut it off a couple of feet. You will never have a satisfactory pavement by trying to put in a three-foot strip or a two foot strip.

Mr. Zemel: Suppose in two years from now you find that Market Street as widened is not wide enough?

Mayor Congleton: Then we will widen it on the south side and restore your sidewalk to a good width. That is really the next improvement that has got to come, on the south side of Market Street from Mulberry Street east.

Mr. Zemel: That is the time to do it.

Mayor Congleton: I wish we could do it right away today as part of the improvement, but we have to do some of these things step by step because we haven't available all of the money that is needed.

Mr. Zemel: It seems to me that sidewalk is one step that should be left for the time when Market Street is widened.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

(No response).

No one else appearing, Commissioner Murray moved that the hearing be closed.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Samuel H. Newman (Federal Holding Company, owner) for an open air automobile parking station; premises 1012 Board Street; hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard?

Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein said he represented the applicant. He believed that the site was an ideal location for a parking station. There was not a single objector who presented himself at the Zoning Board.

Mayor Congleton: The memorandum received from the Board of Adjustment says there was objections entered by the New Jersey Tuberculosis League which has just purchased property at 15 East Kinney Street.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Commissioner Egan: Yesterday in conference we discussed the matter. We felt it would be a bad thing to permit a parking station at that location for the reason that it is in the immediate vicinity of the bus station and almost opposite the safety isle, and therefore, dangerous from a traffic standpoint. That seemed to be the consensus of opinion of the Commissioners.

Dr. Ellenstein said he believed the proposed station would relieve both traffic and parking conditions.

Commissioner Murray: It could not be used from the rear alone?

Dr. Ellenstein: No.

Commissioner Howe: The whole trouble is in the front on account of the safety isle and bus station.

Dr. Ellenstein: My recollection is it is sixty or seventy feet from the entrance of the safety isle.

Commissioner Howe: Not from the curb.

Dr. Ellenstein: I made no measurements of it, but my observation was it would not interfere at all.

Commissioner Murray: I move it be laid over for one week.

Mayor Congleton: Commissioner Murray moves it be laid over for one week for further inspection.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Dr. Ellenstein: I have been asked by Mr. Feinsten, who represented Schwartz and Nagle Company, 80 Frelinghuysen Avenue, who yesterday made an application which was passed upon favorable by the Zoning Board for an addition to a garage,— may I ask for a suspension of your rules?

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Rankin, was there any objection?

Mr. Rankin: No objection. 25 by 100 foot.

Commissioner Egan: I move for a suspension of the rules.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, that Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the foregoing structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Carl Schwartz (Schwartz and Nagle Realty Co., owner) for the construction of an addition to a public garage; premises 80 Frelinghuysen Avenue;

Therefore Be It RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

struction or use for which application was made be allowed:

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone wish to be heard?

Mr. Samuel S. Saiber, 951 Broad Street, said adjacent property owners objected to the proposed ice depot. Out of 54 property owners within 200 feet we have a petition signed by 49, absolutely protesting against the depot. This is strictly a residential neighborhood. We find that there is an ice depot within two blocks and another within six blocks. The particular man that wants to erect this ice depot does not live in the neighborhood.

Mayor Congleton: Are these other people with you here objectors?

Mr. Saiber: Yes, sir, I have some twenty-five people here.

Mayor Congleton: Well, do they all want to be heard?

Commissioner Egan: They have signed a petition, Counselor?

Mr. Saiber: Yes, 49 out of the 54.

Mr. Frank Voight, representing the J. and M. Building and Loan Ass'n. also filed objections.

Mr. H. J. Russamano, 421 North Sixth Street said the proposed depot would create a menace due to trucking and there is no need for the depot.

Mr. Anthony Lanzana, 399 North Sixth Street said the depot would be a menace to children.

Mr. Walter E. Earle, 371 North Seventh Street said the proposed depot would be a detriment to property as well as a menace to children.

Mr. Frank Egolia, 395 North Sixth Street urged that the neighborhood be permitted to remain as it is at present.

Mr. Felix Forlenza, Military Park Building appeared for the applicant. He said the ice depot would not be detrimental to the neighborhood, also it would relieve traffic conditions.

Mayor Congleton: The members of the Commission want to go and look at it ourselves. That is the purpose of laying it over.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark,

The Board of Adjustment,

R. B. Rankin,
Secretary.

Received, copy sent to each Commissioner and further action postponed for two weeks.

M. Rudolph Krueger, 60 Branford Place: Gentlemen, I had a matter passed by the Zoning Board yesterday, the erection of three four-family dwellings on Norman Road, which has now become a four-family section, there being only two two-families in the vicinity.

Mayor Congleton: You mean it has become that by reason of the change—

Mr. Krueger: By reason of the two four-families now on the property.

Mayor Congleton: You say the change has come about by reason of the ordinance being changed, or is this the variation of it?

Mr. Krueger: This is the variation. I wonder if this Board would waive the two weeks requirement.

Mayor Congleton: Were there any objections?

Mr. Kankin: There was one letter received from a man on another street, but no property owners on the block.

Commissioner Gillen: Where is it?

Mr. Krueger: Norman Road.

Mayor Congleton: Is that one of the streets we had the controversy over when we annexed some land?

Mr. Krueger: Across the street has been zoned for apartment houses and Ivy Hill is right behind it.

Commissioner Murray: I move the rules be suspended.

The City Clerk then read the following communications:

May 5, 1931.

Commissioners of the City of Newark,
City Hall, Newark, New Jersey.
Gentlemen:

We are enclosing herewith objections which we shall urge against the ordinance passed by you on April 22, 1931, entitled "An ordinance authorizing the issuance of $1,000,000 Land Purchase Bonds of The City of Newark. We shall urge these objections on behalf of H. Edward Wolff, a taxpayer of the City of Newark.

Very truly yours,

Stein, McGlynn & Hannoch.

Ordered filed.

May 6, 1931.

To The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Please take notice that I, H. Edward Wolf, a taxpayer of the City of Newark, New Jersey, do hereby file the following objections to an ordinance passed by you on April 22, 1931, entitled "An ordinance authorizing the issuance of $1,000,000—Land Purchase Bonds of The City of Newark" on the following grounds:

(1) Said ordinance is ultra vires and beyond the power or authority of the City of Newark.

(2) Said ordinance is in contravention of your objector's rights under the Constitution of the State of New Jersey and under the Constitution of the United States, providing that no State shall deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law.

H. Edward Wolf,
by Stein, McGlynn & Hannoch.
Attorneys-at-Law.

Ordered filed.

Mr. Hannoch: May I just supplement that very briefly by saying to you that we appear on behalf of Mr. Wolf and Mr. Fred W. Ehrlich and some other property owners and taxpayers. The point that we make is this: The money that is proposed to be raised is to be used for the purpose of performing three contracts entered into by The City with the State Highway Commission. Those contracts are now under attack in a proceeding which is now pending in the Supreme Court by Mr. Wolf against the State Highway Commission. We contend that the contracts are without legal authority and that the City therefore is without the power to enter into these purchases.

Mayor Congleton: You are not a party to that proceeding?

Mr. Hannoch: Not in that proceeding.

Mayor Congleton: Your objection will be noted. Does anyone else desire to be heard on this ordinance? If not, the motion is that the hearing be closed.

In addition to the price bid, the purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Any bidder may condition his bid on the award to him of two or more of said issues, but in that case, if there is a more favorable bidder for any one of the issues for which he bids, his bid will be rejected.

Proposals should be addressed to the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, City Hall, Newark, New Jersey, and enclosed in a sealed envelope marked on the outside "Proposal for Bonds," and must be accompanied by a certified check for two per centum (2%) of the face amount of the bonds bid for, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company to the order of the

The successful bidder or bidders will be furnished with the opinion of Messrs. Reed, Hoyt & Washburn, of New York, that the bonds are valid and binding obligations of The City of Newark. WHEREAS, we know that upwards of 16,000 mothers yearly lose their lives in childbirth in the United States and that most of these lives could be saved by means of competent maternity care; and

WHEREAS, we can have here in our midst several separate units of efficiency ready to carry forward this life-saving work,

THEREFORE, The Board of Commissioners of your City, ask you to give thought to the problem of assisting these units to cooperate for the greater safety of expectant mothers in our community, by taking individual interest in the vital problem of maternal care and co-operating with those in charge of our pre-natal services, so that henceforth we may be able to offer as our tribute to Mother's Day the inevitable good which shall come of our united efforts on behalf of each mother and child, and we will be happy in the preservation of lives so valuable to our Country, and have correspondingly fewer mothers' graves to visit on Mother's Day.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented an application of Samuel H. Newman (Federal Holding Company, owner) for an open air automobile parking station; premises 1012 Broad Street; and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this application?

Dr. Meyer C. Ellenstein, 17 Academy Street, urged favorable action. He said there was no valid objection to a front entrance to the property.

Commissioner Howe: Doctor, couldn't you enter and leave from the rear?

Dr. Ellenstein: If you were seeking a parking station on Broad Street you would not want to circle the block. That would undoubtedly hinder and block traffic in an alley of that dimension, if you had the entrance and the exit there.

Commissioner Howe: It is a through alley and it is not narrow, and I am sure that all of the Commissioners would be glad to give you the permit under those circumstances. The main objection is traffic, not the cost. The question of taxes doesn't enter into it at all.

Dr. Ellenstein: I am arguing the question of traffic.

Mayor Congleton: Well, Doctor, as far as my guidance in the matter goes, I am taking my advice from men who are devoting their entire time to traffic studies, and they do not agree with you. They say that it would affect traffic.

Dr. Ellenstein: I would like to have such experts on traffic explain to me how it would hinder traffic.

Mayor Congleton: The safety isle goes the entire distance of the front of your property.

Dr. Ellenstein: Mr. Mayor, it does not go the entire distance.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, if the building that you are referring to is the building immediately next to the brick building on the corner. I have been down there and have looked at it. It extends from the southerly boundary of your lot.

Dr. Ellenstein: That is true. It does.

Mayor Congleton: The safety isle covers the entire frontage of the property you are talking about.

Dr. Ellenstein: The corner property, I daresay, as I judge it, entails 70 or 80 feet. Mr. Mayor, you are eliminating another lane of traffic by the fact that with that open land a man coming along and intending to go into the lot would hold the traffic lane between that safety isle and the curb. I can not see by any logical reasoning how it would hold up traffic; it would help traffic.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Commissioner Egan: My Department disagrees with your attitude, Doctor. It is a bad spot, so far as traffic is concerned, particularly now because of the safety isle. To put anything else in there at this time that will further retard the movement of traffic will simply develop more congestion at that spot. We have made a very extensive study of the situation in that neighborhood, because of the slow movement of traffic at that particular point. The last month was bad.

Dr. Ellenstein: Will you tell me, Commissioner Egan, how it is going to interfere with traffic when you have cars approaching there and going directly—

Commissioner Egan: But you do not have them going directly. You have three lanes of traffic coming up to that safety isle, which has to narrow down to two lanes of traffic, one to the left and one to the right of the safety isle. A person driving down Broad Street who makes up his mind to use that particular parking station is not going to go to the land closest to the curb; he will probably be driving on the trolley tracks, hold out his hand, and make a sudden left turn into the parking station.

Dr. Ellenstein: I do not think that is tenable.

Mayor Congleton: Go over on Washington Street any day and you will see how it works.

Dr. Ellenstein: A person seeking to park will not seek the land farthest away from the station.

Mayor Congleton: You have asked me to show you how it would hinder traffic, Doctor. That is how it is done.

Dr. Ellenstein: You know, if you had another lane of traffic at that safety isle a man attempting to park on that side might have to cut into two lanes of traffic, and the traffic isn't very heavy at that point.

The City Clerk presented the application of Dominick N. Bozza, owner, for the construction of a retail ice depot; premises 390-392 North Sixth Street, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Mayor Congleton: This is the case, gentlemen where we agreed yesterday to grant a two weeks' adjournment. There is a protest here this morning from the property owners complaining about their being called down here so many times when practically every property owner is opposed to it, so I think that we ought to make it definite that two weeks from today it will be disposed of one way or the other.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the application be laid over to May 20, 1931.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. J. H. Russomanno, 60 Park Place, objected to delays in the case. He said he had responded three times and that the case had become a hardship.

Commissioner Egan: We are always glad to see you, Mr. Russomanno. The fact that you people in the neighborhood have come down so many times will not be forgotten, nor will we forget that you have made the protest. You may leave the matter in our hands now without wasting any more time.

Mr. Russomanno: Then, I need not come again?

Mayor Congleton: No, and none of the other property owners who have come here need come again. We have before us your protest and we will bear it in mind.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Hermes Lunch Company (M. & J. Augenblick Realty Co., owner) for a miniature golf course; premises 1036-1040 Broad Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved on the following conditions:

- 1: That a substantial metal fence on steel supports be erected three feet inside of property lines;
2. That lighting standards be of steel and not over ten feet high;
3. That lighting fixtures be so arranged as not to shine in neighboring windows;
4. That no refreshment stands or other business be conducted on the premises;

5. That all requirements of the License Bureau be complied with.

6. That this approval expires January 1, 1932; and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared lost by the following votes:

Nays: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Patrick Yacullo (Heller Construction Co., owner) for the construction of a retail ice depot; premises 918 Eighteenth Avenue;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, and administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mr. Benjamin Greenblatt, 927 18th Avenue.

Gentlemen, I am interested in the ice dock for the simple reason that I have one practically opposite, but I want to bring something to your attention, and you can consider it in your voting. This ice dock business, it seems to me, is getting to be a racket, if you will notice all the applications that are being filed. The reason for it is this: There have been three or four new ice companies that have come in from out of town from New York and other places, that have opened establishments here, and in one case one of them has forced other ice companies that have already been established in this city for a good number of years to buy them out, and in one case the Knickerbocker Ice Company had to buy one company out three times, but in this case they have turned them down; they wouldn't buy them out. Perhaps you have noticed their wagons upon the street. The Knickerbocker had to compete with these people by putting out wagons on the street to meet this competition. Now the only way these other people are competing with them is to get every Tom, Dick and Harry to open up an ice dock and give away ice for nothing, so that the people will buy from them and from the ice wagons. They open up at six or half past six o'clock in the morning and the fellow directly opposite and the one right next door, they open eleven or twelve o'clock at night and they have signs "Open every day at all hours." Now, gentlemen, that isn't fair competition.

I am speaking naturally for myself, because in this case I happen to own the place directly opposite and I have a man working there, a man born and brought up in the city, a family man, that I pay wages to, and with this new competition I have I can't keep it up. I don't think that this ought to be approved.

Mayor Congleton: How long have you had your place?

Mr. Greenblatt: Three years. There was a list here of nineteen objectors against this depot. None of them presented themselves here in person for the reason that they work for the City. As one man said, "If I butt in on this—I have got a good job—I might get shifted away out." He also said, "I don't know anything. I signed my name." The man told me personally he doesn't know what it is all about, but if this man here—somebody might bring influence to send him out in the sticks somewhere and he wasn't the one to instigate the opposition, either.

Mr. John Creran, 783 Broad Street. Gentlemen, this man has spoken of a racket, but he seems to be in one. He has an ice house there. He has a miniature golf course there. He is a contracting plumber. This man here, Yacullo—

Mayor Congleton: What I would like to hear from you is why is there a necessity for another ice dock directly across the street from one that is there and established.

Mr. Creran: This Mr. Yacullo has been in the ice business with the wagon that he speaks of, selling ice.

Mayor Congleton: But why have another station directly across from one that is in existence? What is the necessity?

Mr. Creran: It is not directly across.

Mr. Greenblatt: One is at 1927 and the other at 1918.

Mayor Congleton: All right.

Mr. Creran: He speaks of having nineteen objectors. If you have the list here you will find that eleven of those objectors do not live in the neighborhood. I don't know who got that objection up, and of the final eight, I believe we have here, the signatures where it was misrepresented. It was told them that they were going to manufacture ice there and they were going to have coal pockets there. It is only an ice depot, the same as this gentleman has. I don't suppose he said it was unsightly when he got his permit.

Mayor Congleton: He admits now that it is unsightly.

Mr. Creran: We have plans here for the building. You can look at it yourself. It is a much better building than he has.

Mayor Congleton: I don't think at best they are beautiful things to look at on a street frontage of any street. This proposed one is right on the front of Eighteenth Avenue.

Mr. Creran: Well, this gentleman has one on the corner of Eighteenth Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, he has been there for three years.

Mr. Creran: This was only a temporary permit.

Mayor Congleton: What is that?

Mr. Creran: The Zoning Ordinance only passed it as a temporary permit.

Mayor Congleton: Yours?

Mr. Creran: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else want to be heard on it?

Mr. Creran: We have a list of names of people who are in favor of it, who live in the neighborhood.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared lost by the following votes:

Nays: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. S. Joseph, 17 Academy Street.

I have been sent down on behalf of the Hermes Lunch Company in connection with the application for the golf course on 1040 Broad Street, and I haven't heard about it.

Mayor Congleton: Did you hear it called?

Mr. Joseph: I did not.

Mayor Congleton: We will hear you, but we have all voted unanimously against it. If you can show any good reasons why we should change our minds we might be glad to do it.

Mr. Joseph: We were not anticipating any objection to it. We thought that the gentleman who appeared on behalf of the Hermes Lunch Company at the meeting of the Board of Adjustment made the argument—

Mayor Congleton: Why do you suppose it comes here to us if we are just to be rubber stamps?

Mr. Joseph: Well, I would like to know just what objection there is to it.

Mayor Congleton: We do not think that it is a good place for a miniature golf course right at the intersection of Clinton Avenue and Board Street with all the traffic that is there. Judging by other miniature golf courses that we have seen, we know the parking that it would create, and there are not facilities at that point for such parking.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed.

Application of James Hart, owner, for the construction of a retail ice depot; premises 554-562 South Tenth Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the application be laid over to May 20, 1931.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the action of the Board taken on November 26, 1930, rejecting the application of Thomas H. Stauder for permission to construct four additional garages at 260-262 Fifth Street be reconsidered.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: It will come up for hearing two weeks from today. We will ask Mr. Rankin to notify the applicant that he must notify the property owners within the same rules that applies for applicants before the Board of Adjustment.

(Laid over to May 20, 1931.)

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, on September 9th, 1930, the Board of Adjustment and on October 1st of the same year the Newark City Commission granted permission for the construction of a gasoline station at 487 Raymond Boulevard to Herman Fresh; and

WHEREAS, the said Herman Fresh was unable to proceed with the work of construction within the allotted time;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that an extension of three months be granted to the said Herman Fresh or his assigns from the 5th day of May, 1931, said extended permit to expire August 5th, 1931.

John Howe,

Ordered filed.

Director of Revenue and Finance.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter that he desires to take up with the Commission?

Dr. Noah Geiger, Senior Vice Commander of the Unemployed War Veterans Association, 577 Central Avenue.

Mr. Mayor and honorable Directors, in this great city of ours we have a condition today that has reached its climax. An organization composed of 745 honorably discharged ex-service men of the world war have organized for the purpose of receiving proper aid assistance and a place where to lay their heads at night. We have made several attempts to run affairs, in order to make enough money to provide food for these men. Our headquarters are at 46 Branford Place, at which place we are feeding men today and now with stale bread and coffee, men who are unable to receive employment, even though it might be for the sum of twenty-five cents a day. Some of them did work for twenty-five and fifty cents a day, not because it meant a whole lot to them, but because they didn't want to go around the City streets and panhandle in order to have enough money to go into a hotel and pay for a night's lodging.

Now, we appealed to the Chamber of Commerce and before the Citizens Relief Committee and we were turned down because, we were informed, we have been taken care of. I challenge the Chamber of Commerce where they have a legal or moral right to interfere with the activities of a bona fide organization and with men who are seeking nothing but relief and aid from citizens who still have a friendly feeling in their hearts for the ex-servicemen of this great city. They have also blocked us from receiving stale bread from the bakeries. They have also blocked us from receiving groceries and provisions from citizens who are friendly and kind to the ex-service men.

As I said before, we have run several affairs. We have not been successful. We have not made any money. The climax has been reached where we ask the City Commission for some assistance in order to provide unoccupied buildings in order that these men may place their heads somewhere to sleep at night. At 46 Branford Place there are seventy men there every night lying on the cold floor and on the benches, men who haven't even a quarter or any friends now to provide sleeping quarters for them. Thank the Lord we have a man of the type of David Cronheim, who for the last five months has donated the store for the use of our headquarters, so that we can feed these men daily who sit around the store to receive a telephone call, as a reaction from distributing these circulars that I have given you, if by chance there may be employment for these men.

We are not asking any money; the only thing we are asking of the City fathers in some assistance, also if you have any property that is not occupied. That is all we ask now. All we ask is to see that these men here, who are walking the streets—they are desperate, but they are decent and law-abiding citizens. The officers of this organization have a dual purpose to perform; one to feed these men, and the other to inculcate in them to reaffirm into their minds the ideals of Americanism and the spirit of democracy, in order that these men may not go out on the highways and byways and be a fertile field for the communistic organizations, who are ready, able, and willing to plant their seed into the midst of our organization. Only three weeks ago they tried to do it.

These men are loyal to our country, these men are loyal to our flag, these men are loyal to our institutions, but these men are desperate. We cannot tell what runs through their minds in their leisure moments, and it won't be an awful difficult task for these men to go out, if by chance— as I say, these communists are successful in their organization, and they may get these men, in their great difficulty, to commit crime and violence. These men are to be congratulated that they do not want to do such things and that they have remained law-abiding citizens under the circumstances.

Mayor Congleton: If you keep on talking like that it will help them a lot toward becoming Communists.

Dr. Geiger: I want the citizens and the City Commission to know that we have been denied the privilege of soliciting food, as I said. I challenge the Chamber of Commerce whether they have a legal right and a moral right to interfere with men who are willing and ready to assist these men who are in dire need and distress.

Commissioner Murray: How do you mean that they stop you from soliciting food?

Dr. Geiger: If we go into a bakery they call up the Chamber of Commerce and they in turn say that these men are being taken care of by the Mayor's Relief Committee. We don't want charity, but what we do ask is to be able to benefit by the good grace of those citizens who have a friendly feeling toward us, for these men who have served their country and who are ready to follow the flag wherever it might go.

I feel that you gentlemen have the right to question, if this a bona fide organization, whether we have the right to benefit. We do not want panhandle in the streets; we want to conduct ourselves as law-abiding citizens, to obey the law and not to commit any crime, and I don't think it is wrong to solicit any food from merchants or from citizens who are willing to render aid.

Commissioner Murray: Has anybody indicated to you that they have tried to prevent you from getting anything on your own behalf?

Dr. Geiger: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Murray: In what form?

Dr. Geiger: They simply refer us to the Citizen's Relief Committee and they say, "They will take care of you," and we were turned down.

Commissioner Murray: Did you go to the sub-committee headed by J. Henry Bacheller?

Dr. Geiger: We did not.

Commissioner Murray: He is the man whom you should see, because not only does the Citizens' Relief Committee not impede the efforts of anyone to help the situation, but rather encourages it. I think the newspaper records will show you that those very, very busy men are striving every day and every hour to get additional aid for just this purpose that you have in mind.

Dr. Geiger: It is very true.

Commissioner Murray: It may be that you have gone to the secretary of this committee and have not gone to Mr. Bacheller, who is the head of this distributing committee, this sub-committee. Why don't you go to Mr. Bacheller and lay your case before him. Then you will have the reasonable and rational solution of your problem, because he knows how to do it. This is the first time I have heard anyone make any comment that was not entirely favorable to the Citizens' Relief Committee and those working under it. I have had a thousand complimentary comments indicating that everything that could be done to help the situation is being done very cheerfully and very willingly. I am sure that if you go to see Mr. Bacheller your troubles will be over.

Dr. Geiger: Commander Brooks, did you wait upon Mr. Bacheller?

Commander Brooks: No, we went to Mr. Wollmuth. He said our organization wasn't necessary to take the men off the streets and feed them with stale bread and coffee.

Commissioner Murray: I think that if you go to Mr. Bacheller you will get a good deal of satisfaction, because his committee is the distribution committee in charge of the agencies that are doing not only relief work, but just what you have indicated here, to land jobs for the people, and they have succeeded very well.

Mayor Congleton: I would just like to say to you, Doctor, and to your associates who are with you, that ever since the depression has been on us we have been endeavoring to give positions to unemployed veterans in so far as we could, and we have been working with Mr. Egan, who is in the office every two or three days and who was represented to us as representing the veterans.

Dr. Geiger: That is true. We appreciate that.

Mayor Congleton: We are cooperating with him to the fullest.

Dr. Geiger: We do not deny that, Mr. Mayor. We have simply come here to ask your assistance if you have any available unoccupied property where these men who have no friends can return to sleep, who sleep now on a cold floor at 46 Branford Place or on benches. If there is any possible way that these men can be housed until they could get a job, I would appreciate it. As I say, we don't want to make panhandlers out of them, because they do not want charity, they have too much pride, but they want some assistance, and we think that the City Commission can do something.

Mayor Congleton: Cannot these veterans who have no place to sleep get accommodation in the home in Kearny, which the government maintains? Isn't that the place for them? Isn't that the proper place to take care of a situation of this kind?

Dr. Geiger: No. Congressman Hartley introduced a resolution in Congress before it adjourned that would take care of this situation. The state budget has taken those funds out in 1931 and part of 1930, and the only veterans housed there now are the Spanish War veterans and the Civil War veterans. There was no provision made to take care of the World War veterans.

Commissioner Murray: I think, Dr. Geiger, that Mr. Wollmuth's suggestion was not made to your organization, but was based upon the experience that they have had and which has caused them from the very start to make a rule to the effect that all methods and means of raising the necessary funds for the relief of unemployment must come through this committee, so that there may be a central authority to take care of it. I think that you probably got him wrong on it. I think you are entitled to help, and I do not think that there has been any deliberate discrimination against you in favor of the others. Your solution is to go to Mr. Bacheller. You will find his committee very eager to give you a lift right away. I haven't the slightest doubt about that. Mr. Wollmuth may have objected to various benefits that you were running, because he questioned availability of opportunity for you and he questioned the idea of having the merchants around the city bored unnecessarily in the efforts to collect the money or to get help by anybody else. I know your scheme is all right.

Dr. Geiger: We don't want any money.

Commissioner Murray: I know your scheme is all right, but I think that if you go to Mr. Bacheller you will get the benefit of an excellent organization to help your situation here, and you will get entire sympathy there. I know he will be glad to do it. If you will take that matter up with Mr. Bacheller you will get what sympathy and help you need.

Dr. Geiger: In conclusion, I want to thank you, Mr. Mayor, for the opportunity given me to say a few words, and I particularly want to thank Director Egan. I behalf of the organization I want to express my thanks for the cooperation that he gave us on April 27, with the wrestling bouts that we have conducted at the armory, and I want to assure Director Egan that he has made sincere and honorable friends among the men to whom you have given the cooperation. I also want to thank Deputy Commissioner Harry Murray and I also want to thank Director Gillen at this time for giving us the privilege of meeting here every Monday night.

Before I conclude, I remember that it was about ten years or eleven years ago, when the housing emergency occurred in the City of Newark, Director Gillen took an aggressive stand at that time and he built what we called the ten city. Now, the summer is coming on, and if we can't get any available property, if we can't get any assistance from Mr. Bacheller and the Citizens' Relief Committee, I think that the City fathers ought to take under advisement and consideration the possibility of putting up tents. These men have spent two or three years of their lives under a tent, and if there is no other way out of it, we appeal to you and ask you to be kind enough to give this phase of the matter your consideration.

I thank you (Applause)

Mayor Congleton: Has any other person any matter that he desires to take up with the Commission?

Mr. Morris Heyman, 155 Spruce Street: I am here again because I see in the newspapers that 710 pieces of property are being sold for taxes in the Third Ward.

Mr. Heyman said he blamed the situation on a citizen's suit involving the Prudential Insurance Company's proposed housing development to the Third Ward. He asked the Board of Commissioner to try to stop the litigation.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

A communication from Dan Edwards, Chairman of the Medal of Honor Portrait Committee, requesting appropriation of $100 for hanging of portrait of Frank J. Bart (who received Congressional Medal of Honor while serving in the Ninth Infantry, Second Division, in the World War) in Pershing Hall, Paris, was received and read.

Referring to Commissioner Howe to draw the proper resolution appropriating the money.

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

The ordinance having been read three times was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, and on the old concrete base built up as required of Haynes Avenue from Frelinghuysen Avenue to about 660 feet easterly, and for the grading, curbing, flagging and paving with granite block of Meeker Avenue from Haynes Avenue to Frelinghuysen Avenue, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

A communication dated May 9th, 1931, from Weston Electrical Instrument Corporation, protesting against assessments for the paving of Haynes Avenue, was received, read and on motion ordered filed.

Mr. Charles Handler, 790 Broad Street: I represent about 500 feet of frontage, and in behalf of the owners we wish to bring before the City Commission our argument that this assessment should not be levied upon the property for that improvement, but that it should be paid for by the City at large.

Mayor Congleton: You do not think you ought to pay any part of it?

Mr. Handler: I think not. I will tell you why.

Mayor Congleton: Your property fronts on Haynes Avenue on the north side?

Mr. Handler: We have property on Haynes Avenue on the north side. We have property on Meeker Avenue on the west side, and I represent property on the east side of Meeker Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: You do not think that your property will be enhanced at all for your own private use by having a nice smooth pavement there?

Mr. Handler: Haynes Avenue was a street with a fairly decent width of pavement and a sidewalk in fairly decent condition. The same may be said for Meeker Avenue. The property owners there feel that the widening of Haynes Avenue and the widening of Meeker Avenue, with the consequent tearing up of the pavement and the consequent relaying of new pavement, was brought about essentially by the removal of that bridge on Haynes Avenue to a point 38 feet to the north on Haynes Avenue. They feel, from their knowledge of public affairs and from the newspapers, concerning the deal with the Westinghouse, that while that deal is one of the most progressive, so far as the economic and industrial life is concerned, nevertheless it is an improvement which redounds to the city at large. The people I represent feel that the removing of the bridge 38 feet northward on Haynes Avenue, being a part of that contract and bringing about the necessity of widening these streets and relaying new pavement, they, as abutting property owners should not be made to pay for an improvement that was brought about as a result of the contract with the Westinghouse.

It has also been suggested that by building the Haynes Avenue bridge the city by mutual consent released the Pennsylvania Railroad from putting that bridge over on Peddie Street and that the Pennsylvania Railroad for their obligation and to cooperate with the city to put that bridge up contributed to the city's treasury a considerable amount of money. Now, I don't know what has been done with that money, but I think that it should be—

Mayor Congleton: It is being credited to this improvement. It could not be credited to anything else.

Mr. Handler: With that in mind we feel that the City has received something and that it should let out these abutting property owners. After all, on the strength of this improvement alone taxes have gone up down there this year.

Mayor Congleton: Not yet.

Mr. Handler: Well, they have received higher assessments.

Mayor Congleton: Not by reason of these improvements.

Mr. Handler: I don't know what it is for, because there is nothing in the neighborhood to warrant it.

Mayor Congleton: The assessments were probably based on the prices that the property owners in that neighborhood felt that their property was worth and which we had to pay for acquiring property for widening, in condemnation proceedings. That is why your assessments are higher.

Mr. Handler: I think that the record will show that in almost every case down there property owners accepted what the City gave and offered, and only in one instance was there a condemnation there, and in that case the property owner was willing to accept what the City offered, but the Commissioners could not unanimously agree on that resolution.

Mayor Congleton: Is any property assessed for sixty per cent. of the price we paid for it?

Mr. Handler: I don't know.

Mayor Congleton: If you will look up your tax books you will find that the assessments are not in the neighborhood of that. That is the reason why they went up, because the people themselves, those who owned the property, including, perhaps, some of your clients, felt that that was what the property was worth.

Commissioner Howe: I can answer your question as to the assessments, Mr. Mayor. No.

Commissioner Murray: Furthermore, the completion of the improvements there, with that bridge, will work to the benefit of your transportation in that neighborhood. Every foot of land will be indubitably of greater value. Why should the City at large be obliged to pay to give these people an unearned increment on their land?

Mayor Congleton: As a matter of fact, the City will bear a very substantial portion of the cost. There will be very little assessed against the property owners. Unless our ordinance goes through as it is now, whereby, it is a local improvement, we cannot assess one penny against the abutting property, and we do feel that the abutting property, by reason of these very fine improvements, will be benefited.

Mr. Handler: Our position is that the passing of the ordinance as it is leaves the matter very uncertain, as far as the property owners are concerned. I feel that we can absolutely rely upon the word of the Commission that the City will bear a substantial part, and it is only fair that they should, but we feel that although the property there will be benefited, that it will be reflected in increased assessments and increased taxes, and that the improvement was not put through at the request or at the behest of the local property owners.

Mayor Congleton: Why do you say that? We have had any number of people who used the old wooden bridge constantly asking us for the last few years to give them a substantial bridge. They were property owners in that neighborhood, if you please.

Mr. Handler: Well, if that bridge had been put on the old line there would not have been this expense today and Haynes Avenue would not have to be widened.

Mayor Congleton: If it had been put up on the old line it would have cost the City very much larger sums of money, because we would have had to pay the property owners on the south side of Haynes Avenue very substantial amounts of money by way of damages for cutting off their access.

Mr. Handler: If the Mayor please, as it went through it went through strictly as a part of the Westinghouse bridge.

Mayor Congleton: No, it did not.

Mr. Handler: It appears to have gone through that way, because the Westinghouse contract included that bridge as a part of it.

Mayor Congleton: No, they wanted to know if it would be put in.

Mr. Handler: And the City obligated itself for putting that bridge in, after going down there and buying land that cost the City $13,000 an acre, which without these obligations would not be worth $3,000 an acre.

Mayor Congleton: Can you buy me any meadow land for $3,000 an acre?

Mr. Handler: Maybe not now with the bridge in, but I think it would not have been worth more than $3,000 an acre without these improvements, and now we have to pay for the bridge.

Mayor Congleton: Your abutting property owners are not paying for the bridge; the bridge is paid for out of the general funds of the City.

Mr. Handler: Our contention is that if that bridge had not been put in there would not have been any widening of Haynes Avenue, there would not have been any repaving, and consequently there would not have been any need for further assessments.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, and if the Pennsylvania had not built its new station we would not have had to build the new Raymond Plaza, we would not have had to widen Raymond Boulevard and Mulberry Street, for all of which we intend to assess the new property which abutts there for benefits. If we constantly stand still and never grow and never do anything there will not be any occasion for these things that you speak of. So far as the paving is concerned, the property that abuts upon the improvement, in my opinion, will be benefited to some extent. If I am wrong, you will have your opportunity to convince the Assessment Commission that I am wrong. If I am right and if we do not put the ordinance in as we are doing it, we cannot assess any of the property a penny.

Mr. Handler: Why can't the procedure of the Commission provide at this time, under the authority that it has in the Municipality Act, the amount that will be borne by the City at large.

Mayor Congleton: We have the authority for doing it, but it is not our policy to do it. We did not do it on Washington Street and we did not do it on Mulberry Street, and the property owners on Washington Street were fairly dealt with. We recognized the improvements as being in the main a general improvement, and the property owners were assessed only a very small part of the cost of the improvement, as will be the property owners on Mulberry Street.

Mr. Handler: Mr. Mayor, I just ask that you leave our protest on the record that we state that the improvement is a matter for the City at large.

Mayor Congleton: And you will have another opportunity to note your protest when the assessments come up before the Assessment Commission.

Commissioner Egan: I want to say here, so that the assessment Commission will have the benefit of it, in so far as this Commission is concerned, that it is my opinion that it is a major or to a certain extent a local improvement.

Mr. William L. Morgan, 744 Broad Street: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, I represent the Weston Electrical Instrument Company and I beg to call your attention to the situation which exists so far as our property is concerned, in connection with these improvements. As you know, our plant faces on the southerly side of Haynes Avenue, Haynes Avenue as it exists and as it will exist when the improvement is made, must necessarily have to be nothing but a side street. All the traffic which comes to go over the bridge to connect up with route 25, coming from Elizabeth naturally will take McClellan Avenue, McClellan Avenue runs a grade. It has an under street crossing, and the natural tendency would be for all traffic coming from the south to take the first turn on to 25.

Mayor Congleton: What about all the balance between McClellan Street and Haynes Avenue? Do you think they will turn back to McClellan Street?

Mr. Morgan: They undoubtedly will take the McClellan Avenue route. It is natural. It is a shorter route, for that matter. On the north and on the west Meeker Avenue will undoubtedly take all the traffic there. You can't make a driver drive by a complete and perfectly fine approach to take a subordinate approach. Traffic conditions would not warrant his doing it.

Now, Haynes Avenue, as it exists today, particularly in front of our plant, has probably—I will say positively—the best piece of Belgian block pavement laid in concrete that I have ever seen in the City. It is in perfect condition. It was a good job when it was put down and it still is a good job. It is as good today as it was the day it was laid. We think that Haynes Avenue is that short a stretch in front of our plant, which, by the way, is not used by us at all; we have no trucking that comes there; it is only just the approach for the employees. The very little trucking that the plant has, anyway, is taken by the Freling-huysen Avenue entrance. So far as the Weston Electrical Instrument Company is concerned, this improvement is absolutely no benefit to them. They would prefer to have it left as it is.

Mayor Congleton: I have received Mr. Weston's letter, Mr. Morgan. The reason for it being necessary to repave the part of the street that he referred to is the widening. If we did not repave it we would have a crown there and a gulley right in the middle of the roadway. Now, all that will be taken into consideration when it comes time to fix your assessments.

Mr. Morgan: We feel that we ought to bring this to your attention and let you know positively the position that we take in the matter, in our best feeling. We are not trying to stop an improvement.

Mayor Congleton: The street will be widened in front of your property and a piece of that triangle, 30 by 35 feet, taken off.

Mr. Morgan: But my position is that the widening will not be of any benefit to us. It may be widened, but I do not think it will be of any benefit to us. I do not think it will be used any more than it is now.

Mayor Congleton: That may be so, and you will have a chance to argue it at the proper time, but unless it is provided for as a local improvement we will not be able to make the assessments. I do think that all the properties on the north side there will be benefited by these improvements.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Is there any person who desires to take up any matter with the Commission this morning?

Miss Frances Gash, National Newark and Essex Building.

I appeared before your body three weeks ago today. I presented a petition with over 2,000 signatures showing the condition of the Third Ward and to date the Association of Merchants, Property Owners, and Taxpayers and Residents of the Third Ward have had no response from your body.

Mayor Congleton: Miss Gash, you are a member of the Bar and you know that there isn't a thing that we can do as long as that litigation is in existence, don't you?

Miss Gash: I know this, however, that my appeal was directed to Commissioner Gillen through the permission of the Chair.

Mayor Congleton: But it did not prevail, did it?

Miss Gash: That is what I want to find out. I don't know.

Mayor Congleton: What is there that we can do to stop the litigation. The case is in the Supreme Court and has been argued. I wish it could be terminated, but I don't know how it is possible to do it. Do you?

Miss Gash: As I said before, I directed my appeal and my questions mainly to Commissioner Gillen, and I asked the Board to try to prevail upon Commissioner Gillen to have him have the suit withdrawn.

Mayor Congleton: You heard Commissioner Gillen say on that day that he was in sympathy with the suit and with the parties who brought the suit. Now, how do you think we can prevail upon him?

Miss Gash: Mr. Mayor, I overheard you say that you would take it up with the members of the Commission and let us know, but we have not had any reply as yet.

Mayor Congleton: Because we have nothing to report to you along the lines that you ask. The case is proceeding.

Miss Gash: Has any action been taken with Commissioner Gillen. He is absent now. Of course, I can't ask him.

Mayor Congleton: Well, I don't think that we are called upon—

Commissioner Murray: Hasn't that case been argued in the Supreme Court?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: It is waiting for the decision?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: Why wouldn't the Supreme Court be the one to hurry up?

Miss Gash: You cannot ask the Supreme Court to hurry up.

Mayor Congleton: They have promised an early decision in this case.

Miss Gash: I would appreciate very much if you gentlemen of the Commission would try and prevail upon Commissioner Gillen to have the suit withdrawn.

Mayor Congleton: I have told you all I have to say, Miss Gash.

Mr. Morris Newman, 8 Barclay Street.

Gentlemen, I received a notice on repaving Livingstone Street and I want to ask the Mayor that a part of Livingston Street, especially the tract between Seventeenth and Eighteenth is still good enough for twenty-five years as it is. In fact, the City has been withdrawing the part of the land there putting in the sewer pipes—

Mayor Congleton: And that is the reason we are putting in the ordinance and charging against that assessment sixty per cent. of the improvement.

Mr. Newman: Part of the street is still good.

Mayor Congleton: This ordinance comes up next week for a hearing.

Mr. C. Henry Grois, 714 South 14th Street, representing the Bakers Union and the Essex Trades Council. Mr. Grois spoke of economic conditions in the trade from the journeyman's viewpoint. We find that the large bread and cake manufacturers are trying to place upon the poor citizens an inexcusable problem. They state that with unemployment and lack of money they are going to make their bread buying and cake buying problem an easier one. The cake that they sell to stores, and if it doesn't become salable, is termed what we call stale. They continue handling the product by taking it back to their factories and then reselling it and putting it out in retail stores once more. It is then sold at special prices, the people thinking that they are receiving a legitimate product for considerably less money, which is not true. The product, according to my standards of health, when it becomes stale is not any longer salable. It is a matter and a problem for the Health Department. It should not exist and it should not be allowed to be resold or sold.

I hope you will draft an ordinance, an ordinance dealing with either the refusal of allowing these bakeries to maintain retail stores for the reselling of their leftover stale products or that the ordinance will license them so that they may not be able to deal in this product and pass it on to the poor and unfortunate who have not the money to purchase a fresh loaf of bread, which is considerably lower today than it has been in many years past.

The Essex Trades Council is also interested in another problem. It is one that the Chamber of Commerce might wish to fight. That is pertaining to seasonal stores selling straw hats made abroad where labor costs six and seven and eight cents a day.

Commissioner Murray: Do you mean to indicate, Mr. Grois, that the manufacturers or the private stores are misrepresenting the goods and are selling goods which are not truly represented?

Mr. Grois: That is right.

Commissioner Murray: Then, you do not need an ordinance. You have plenty of rules and regulations of the Health Department to cover that and enable you to prosecute them right away.

Mr. Grois: Not only that, they are putting out products right along and not terming them stale or returned goods.

Commissioner Murray: If you will take the trouble to go, in behalf of your organization, before Dr. Charles Craster and lay the statement before him he will have a checkup made of this situation that will be reliable. If your statements are found to be true, the City Department has already offered to prosecute. $50. a day is a pretty steep cost for doing that which is forbidden by the Health Code of the City of Newark.

Mr. Grois: I believe that we should go into that problem because it is a humanitarian problem and is one that has to do with the health of the City.

Commissioner Murray: Food and Drugs Division will make a hundred per cent. investigation, and if there is a violation there the violators will be punished.

Mr. Grois: I realize that you gentlemen cannot do anything about the employing of men of forty years of age. That is a matter for the manufacturers.

Commissioner Egan: Before you go, Mr. Grois, I would like to say this about the regulation of seasonal straw hat stores. Some merchants have been in touch with me within the last week, and Mr. Roh, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. We have had the matter up with the Corporation Counsel and an ordinance is now in the course of preparation to cover that situation.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Commissioner Murray: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the title of "An ordinance to supplement the ordinance entitled: 'An ordinance appropriating $1,850,000 for School Purposes and providing for the issuance of bonds to meet said appropriation', adopted the 6th day of May, 1931", be taken for its third reading.

The ordinance having been read three times was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance providing for the opening and widening of Mulberry Street on the easterly side thereof from Market Street to Mechanic Street by the addition thereto of a strip 35 feet in width, and stated that today was he time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Joseph Zemel, 763 Broad Street: I appear representing Baum and Ehrenkranz, owners of 153-155 Mulberry Street; also Bella Schausner, owning 54-56 Clinton Street. We feel that there is no reason for assessing this so-called improvement upon the property owners in the vicinity. It has been my experience, and I think it is a universal experience, that work of this type does not increase the value of adjoining or adjacent property. I could cite a number of cases, but I will content myself with one of them, Jones Street.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Zemel, of course the City will bear a very substantial part, the same as it will on the other part of Mulberry Street. It will be treated exactly the same as that.

Mr. Charles Rich, 234 Market Street: They ought to bear it all.

Mayor Congleton: We do not think so, not any more than that the property owners in the other part of Mulberry Street which has been widened should not bear some of it

Mr. Rich: If you had any property at Market Street where I am located—

Mayor Congleton: I wish I had.

Mr. Rich: You would not feel the same as you do now. I do not think it will benefit property at all. It is a benefit to the public at large.

Mayor Congleton: You will have an opportunity to state all those facts to the Assessment Board before they assess the costs. After the improvement is made and the matter is referred to the Assessment Commission, all the property owners will receive notices as to the time the Assessment Board fixes for a hearing and you will have your day in court to demonstrate all the things that you have in mind.

Mr. J. N. Carter, 48 Mulberry Street: Mr. Mayor, I just want to go on record in opposition to the cost of the Mulberry Street improvement and widening assessed as a local improvement. I have heard what you have said, but I simply want to go on record.

Mayor Congleton: It is being done exactly the same as the other part.

Commissioner Gillen: You are not opposed to the widening?

Mr. Carter: No, sir.

Commissioner Gillen: You are opposed only to the assessment?

Mr. Carter: We are opposed to the assessment.

Mr. Theodore Lemisina, 810 Broad Street: I came here to protest to all of it being saddled on us in that small area as a local assessment.

Mayor Congleton: It will not be.

Mr. Lemisina: Of course, I am interested in some property over on East Park Street. They are assessing as far as that, I believe—even further they are proposing to.

Mayor Congleton: Well, they always make a very large area, but I believe it is fair to say that the City will bear close to—

Mr. Lemisina: I cannot understand why they should widen Mulberry Street south of Market Street to Mechanic. We have got a new highway going through that will touch Mulberry Street at both angles.

Commissioner Egan: It is elevated.

Mr. Lemisina: It is elevated, I understand, but you have got a very wide street in Lafayette Street, and the proposed new highway, if you had ramps down into that it would take up the traffic.

Mayor Congleton: Don't you think that we are under obligation to widen Mechanic Street and put a street under the railroad track, which has been a point of controversy between the City and the railroad for years? That is all clear now.

Mr. Lemisina: And when you get through you are down in Ferry Street. I don't think it is going to give you much outlet for traffic, even widening the street itself.

Dr. A. J. Mitchell, 59 South Street: Gentlemen, I own property on Durand Street. I have a notice here that they are going to assess me for the Mulberry Street pavement.

Mayor Congleton: This is a widening, not a pavement.

Dr. Mitchell: I am about—well, at least 250 feet from Mulberry Street. I have an objection—

Commissioner Gillen: Do you mean the widening, Doctor?

Dr. Mitchell: Widening and paving.

Mayor Congleton: Between Mechanic and Market.

Dr. Mitchell: No, between Market and Center.

Commissioner Gillen: Paving, is that what you mean?

Dr. Mitchell: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: There isn't any such ordinance before us now. This is an ordinance for the widening of Mulberry Street between Market and Mechanic.

Dr. Mitchell: I am interested in that. That is to come up today also.

Mayor Congleton: It is the Market to Mechanic widening that is before us now. That is what these people have been talking about.

Commissioner Murray: What is your objection?

Dr. Mitchell: My objection is this: I don't see where I should get any assessment on it.

Mayor Congleton: Well, you will have your day before the Assessment Commission and you can state your reasons to them as to why you think they should not assess you.

Dr. Mitchell: That is all I can do?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

No one else appearing, Commissioner Egan moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be taken up on third reading and final passage.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the title of "An ordinance providing for the opening and widening of Mulberry Street on the easterly side thereof from Market Street to Mechanic Street by the addition thereto of a strip 35 feet in width", be taken for its third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance providing for the opening and widening of Mulberry Street on the easterly side thereof from Market Street to Mechanic Street by the addition thereto of a strip 35 feet in width.

The ordinance having been read three times, was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance regulating barbering, manicuring, massaging, hair dressing and chiropody establishments and fixing penalties for the violation thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Mayor, owing to the fact that this ordinance includes in its provisions an attempt to regulate chiropody, which is already regulated by the State, the ordinance will have to be corrected, so I move to strike out the ordaining clause.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the repaving and resurfacing of Hudson Street from Sussex Avenue to Central Avenue with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, and/or on the old brick pavement prepared as a foundation and/or on the old concrete base repaired and built up with concrete as required, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

A petition protesting against the repaving of Hudson Street, signed by seventeen property owners was received and ordered filed.

Mr. Fred G. Stickel, Jr., Lefcourt Building: I represent some of the property owners, in fact, all the property owners, in that street. As I understand it, the water contract, when awarded, providing that the City should replace the street, and an allowance was made to the city on that basis. The street, as the engineer told me the other day, had a life of about ten years, still, and as I am further informed, it would cost less to pave the street as a whole than to replace it. It has seemed to me under the circumstances that if the City had been made an allowance by the contractor which was enough to pave this street—

Mayor Congleton: No, it was not done that way, Judge. The contractor in bidding did not bid on repaving, because we see to that part ourselves.

Mr. Stickel: But the bid was as a consequence that much less.

Mayor Congleton: Absolutely.

Mr. Stickel: Consequently, the bid being that much less, the City already has in its hands enough to take care of replacement, theoretically, at least.

Mayor Congleton: And that is the reason why the ordinance provides that the City is to bear sixty per cent. of the cost of repaving the entire street. If the people do not want the entire street repaved we will go ahead with the sixty per cent. we have in hand, cover over the trench, and make as good a pavement as we had before.

Mr. Stickel: They do not want the street repaved. They want this section of Hudson Street handled just as the other two sections have been and are being handled.

Mayor Congleton: All right, we will patch it.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordaining clause of the ordinance be stricken out.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the repaving of Livingston Street from Springfield Avenue to Waverly Avenue with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation and/or on the old concrete base repaired, replaced, or built up with concrete as required, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing upon same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

A petition signed by twenty-six property owners protesting against the repaving of Livingston Street was received, read and ordered filed.

Mr. Sidney Simandl, 24 Branford Place: I appear for about ninety per cent. of the property owners owning property on Livingston Street between Waverly Avenue and West Kinney Street. The situation with reference to those property owners is about the same as with reference with the property owners on Hudson Street. The pavement—

Mayor Congleton: Which part are you speaking about?

Mr. Simandl: Between Waverly Avenue and Kinney Street. The pavement on this portion of the street was in good condition before the project was undertaken, and we feel that if the portion of the street which was damaged by the improvement is repaired and placed in the same condition we would be perfectly satisfied.

Mayor Congleton: This ordinance includes also from Springfield Avenue to West Kinney.

Mr. Simandl: May I present a petition of the property owners?

Mayor Congleton: Of course, that part of the street from Springfield Avenue to West Kinney has been down forty-one years. It is trap rock on sand base.

Mr. Simandl: Well, we feel with reference to that that we should not be assessed, because it does not affect our property. We also feel that the cost of repaving there could be considerably decreased by using the same blocks, turning it around and cementing, and that it would be satisfactory.

Commissioner Egan: I moved that the ordaining clause be stricken out.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Mortimer Lowy, 19 Clinton Street: I represent the Workmens' Building and Loan, which owns a piece of property on the corner of Springfield Avenue and Livingston Street, and also a piece of property south of East Kinney Street. Of course, we realize the necessity of paving. There isn't any doubt that the section of Livingston and West Kinney to Springfield needs paving, but it is the fact of the assessment that we naturally complain about. First of all, if it were an individually owned piece of property we might not object too much, but where we represent some ten or eleven thousand shareholders, naturally, the cost comes out of their pocket.

Mayor Congleton: That isn't any different from any other property owner, that owns a building, too.

Mr. Lowy: Except that this is not the time in which to pave.

Mayor Congleton: The ordinance has been killed. The paving is not going forward.

Mr. Simandl: Do I understand, Mr. Mayor, that the street will be repaved in the portion in which it was damaged?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the repaving and/or resurfacing of Ridgewood Avenue from Avon Avenue to West Bigelow Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation and/or on the old concrete foundation repaired and/or built up with concrete as required, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

A petition signed by approximately eighty-eight property owners protesting against the repaving of Ridgewood Avenue was received, read and ordered filed.

Mr. Joseph Siegler, 164 Market

Street: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, we represent a large number of property owners on Ridgewood Avenue. We desire to file our objection to that proposal. If I am permitted, I would like to state a few reasons why we feel, in a legal way, that the City hasn't any right—

Mayor Congleton: If the property owners do not want the street paved in its entirety we will kill the ordinance.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordaining clause of the ordinance be stricken out.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the repaving and/or resurfacing of Wallace Street from West Market Street to South Orange Avenue with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, and/or on the old concrete base repaired and/or built up with concrete as required, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Philip M. Lazer, 96 Wallace Street: Ninety per cent. of the property owners have requested me to object to this ordinance for the following reasons: This street has always been as asphalted street. It has the Newark Memorial Hospital and a little parkway up near West Market Street situated on it, and the contractors found it necessary in constructing this water line to install a pump on Wallace Street, compelling him to dig up the street for almost curb to curb in one section. Furthermore, the Public Service has taken advantage of the fact that the entire street had to be broken up to lay a new gas main on the other side of the street, consequently putting the entire surface of the street in very bad shape. The property owners, in view of the fact that the street has always been asphalted and in view of the fact that the Newark Memorial Hospital, which occupies almost one half of the other section, and the park, will be exempt, believe that forty per cent. assessment will be borne by them for the improvement is unfair and inequitable.

Mayor Congleton: Hospitals are not exempt from improvements. They're exempt from taxes, but not from assessments.

Mr. Lazar: They do not believe that the assessment will be made on them.

Mayor Congleton: They would object very strenuously if there were anything but a smooth pavement in front of the hospital.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordaining clause of the ordinance be stricken out.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging and paving of Bond Street from Norfolk Street to Hudson Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

(No response).

No one appearing, Commissioner Gillen moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging and paving of Bond Street from Norfolk Street to Hudson Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the ordinance by sections.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Clifford A. Gould, 115 Lafayette Street: I appear for myself and as Clifford A. Gould, trustee. I am the owner of property on Lafayette Street from Liberty almost to New Jersey Railroad Avenue. As I read your ordinance, you propose to take a piece from Liberty Street down toward New Jersey Railroad Avenue. Your improvement estimate was about twenty-four thousand, I think. There isn't the slightest benefit to us owners at all. I think it is only fair that instead of calling it a local improvement it should be considered as a benefit to the City of Newark and not to those locally interested.

Commissioner Murray: If we do not use the term "local" improvement the properties within that area that are benefited by the improvement could not be assessed. If there is no benefit to you they cannot collect from you, unless they show the benefit.

Mr. Gould: I know. I don't know the technicality. You improved Lafayette Street about five years ago, I think. We were assessed, of course, for our share, which was only fair.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard? If not, a motion that the hearing be closed is in order.

2. It shall be in the discretion of the Director of the Department of Public Safety to determine whether a merchant shall be classified as transient or permanent, but he shall consider as prima facie proof of the permanency of a merchant's business the presentation of a tax bill for personal property for the name and address of the applicant, if the address be the same as the address for which the application is made.

2. All ordinances inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

3. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final passage and publication in accordance with law.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, that is an ordinance being introduced to protect the permanent merchants of the City as against overnight merchants. It makes it necessary for them to take out a license and to pay a fee of $300 in lieu of taxes. They come in probably during the straw hat season, stay a month or two here, and pay practically nothing under the present circumstances. Mr. Robert Sauter, 272-274 North Fifth Street.

I represent two of the property owners besides myself. Our objection to this is that the garages will be put on the front of the street.

Commissioner Murray: Would you be satisfied if those garages were fifteen feet back from the line?

Mr. Sauter: No, I would not, because I think it is too close to the street.

Mayor Congleton: The new plan, which came in only this morning, provides that the garage shall be back of the front of the house—not the porch, but the main building.

Commissioner Murray: Three feet further back than the wall of the building—not the front porch, but the foundation wall itself.

Mr. Sauter: We don't think it is sufficient.

Commissioner Murray: It is a nice block and we all appreciate the fact that very nice people live there and that they keep their homes up pretty well, but it was thought by the Commission, when the applicants first applied for the permit, that we would not grant it, because he wanted to build it in such a way as to bring it out beyond the line. We refused to allow that to be done and said that we would not consider further until he submitted a new plan. That wasn't done until now. The matter was reopened and he has submitted a new plan calling for the placing of these garages three feet west of the foundation walls of the building, which will keep them behind any and every house on the street.

Mr. Sauter: That is true, but still and all there is no necessity for the additional garage space.

Commissioner Murray: There are more cars on the street up there all night than anywhere else in Newark.

Mr. Sauter: That is true, but there are still about twelve empty garages in that street, in the half a block. He himself has signs out "garages for rent."

Commissioner Murray: How far back do you want this man to set?

Mr. Sauter: Fifty feet from the building line.

Commissioner Murray: Then, you will allow him only fifty feet of his property, if his property is one hundred feet.

(Mr. Sauter and the Commissioners studied some plans.)

Mr. John J. Creran, 783 Broadway.

I just want to say a word, that this man has ten garages himself.

Mayor Congleton: How many have you on the back of your lot? Five or six, haven't you?

Mr. Creran: Three garages.

Mayor Congleton: Well, the barn is used for garage purposes, is it not?

Mr. Creran: I don't know whether he uses it or not. The owner is here. Yes, he tells me he uses the barn.

The Eleventh Ward Building and Loan Association has mortgages and loans on many houses in that street and they have granted him a loan to put up these garages. That is the Eleventh Ward Building and Loan. Now, at 243 Fifth Street there is a brick garage built right on the line and against a frame house. The doors open on the side.

Mayor Congleton: How long has it been there?

Mr. Creran: That I could not say.

Mayor Congleton: For a good many years before we zoned it.

Mr. Creran: It looks pretty new. It is front brick. At 274 there is a two-car garage on the line in front of the lot and five garages in the rear on the same lot.

Commissioner Murray: There are garages in the front of 274?

Mr. Creran: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Murray: This man does not show that. He says there are garages on the front line here at 274.

(Mr. Creran and Commissioner Murray studied a plan.)

Mr. Creran: I want to say this: That the opposing property owners have been notified twice, that there has been no objectors except this one man.

Mayor Congleton: There are two other property owners with him.

April 26, 1931.

Honorable Commissioners of
The City of Newark,
City Hall, Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:—

The enclosed resolution was adopted at a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of Mount Olivet Cemetery, located in the City of Newark, N. J. This resolution has the endorsement of Rt. Rev. Monsignor Charles H. Mackel.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas J. Conway, Secretary.

Referred to Mayor Congleton.

The following reports of City Officers were received and ordered filed:

Auditor's Trial Balance as of April 30, 1931.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Henry Green spoke on the question of municipal sanitation. He also suggested a survey by the Department of Public Safety.

Mayor Congleton: Has anyone else any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission?

Mr. H. E. Wolf, 790 Broad Street.

I appear for property owners in the vicinity of 344 Clinton Avenue, which is on the corner of Hillside Avenue. Yesterday at the final hearing before the Adjustment Board a permit was granted to erect stores and apartments and a two-story building on the building line. We had objected to the permit being granted and requested that the builder set back in line with the present buildings both on Clinton Avenue and on Hillside Avenue.

We raised three question there yesterday and at the previous hearing, and one question is this: That there is a conflict in your zoning ordinance, and I am quoting the Building Department when they say that there is a conflict and that in this particular type of application they say it is optional, and they disregard section 17 that says that the average distance that the buildings now stand back shall apply, so we appear before you first to bring to your attention that the Adjustment Board instead of interpreting the Zoning Ordinance in favor of the majority of the property owners interpreted it to the benefit of the holder of one parcel. We think that in fairness to ourselves the Adjustment Board should have taken 17 as governing this particular application and kept the new building back in the same line with the present property.

Mr. Herman Harris, Lefcourt Building, also protested.

Mr. Hyman Jacobs, 972 Broad Street, also protested on behalf of client.

Mayor Congleton: Gentlemen, I don't think that this Board has any jurisdiction in the matter, but in order to make that clear I would suggest that the matter be referred to the Law Department for an opinion.

Commissioner Howe: I offer that motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Referred to the Law Department.

Mr. Harris: In the meantime the issuance of the permit will be held up?

Mayor Congleton: That is the motion. The matter will be adjourned for two weeks awaiting the receipt of the opinion and further study by the Commission.

Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The following petition was received and read:

To the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark:

We, the undersigned, being owners and residents of properties in the neighborhood of Chancellor Avenue, Summit Avenue, Keer Avenue and Hobson Street, do hereby petition that no change whatsoever be made in the zoning regulations now imposed upon this particular neighborhood.

Signed by eight property owners.

Ordered filed.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled: "Zoning Ordinance of The City of Newark", adopted January 8, 1930, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this?

Mr. Anthony Grosso, 77 Summit Avenue, spoke against the proposed ordinance. He said he and other property owners there objected. I have a petition here that the majority of the people on that street are opposed to it.

Mayor Congleton: On Hobson Street?

Mr. Grosso: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: Where are these people living on Hobson Street who signed the petition? I understand that this property is all vacant.

Mr. Grosso: Yes, on Hobson Street toward the far end from Keer Avenue, they are all one-families.

Mayor Congleton: How far is Keer Avenue from this property?

Mr. Grosso: Fifty feet.

Mayor Congleton: If they use both sides they can put more than four in, can't they?

Mr. Grosso: They could not, because the lot is short on the other side of the street.

Commissioner Murray: What is so terrible about four-family houses, two stories high with four families in?

Mr. Grosso: Because in the four-family houses they have flat roofs, with this zoning in. They have to have a hip roof. A four-family don't require a hip roof, and all houses should be a hip roof on there.

Commissioner Howe: Is there any house on that block where this is?

Mr. Grosso: No, they are one-family.

Commissioner Howe: On this block?

Commissioner Murray: No, not on that block.

Mr. Grosso: On the same street.

Commissioner Howe: On the same street?

Mr. Grosso: On the same street there are some houses.

Mayor Congleton: This is an application to change the zoning.

Commissioner Gillen: You know no one is building any more two-family houses. We will have to allow people to build four-families in Newark or they will go outside the city.

Mr. Grosso: Up beyond Keer Avenue there is lots of room for four-families. It is only two blocks. Four houses spoil the location.

Commissioner Howe: Isn't there a four-family across the street?

Commissioner Gillen: Suppose the applicant were to build a hip roof of some kind?

Mr. Grosso: We wouldn't mind that, because the deed read there must be a hip roof there. Here is what they do, Mr. Mayor. I am a builder myself, and when I went up there I could have a four-family house, but the restrictions said I could not build a four-family.

Commissioner Gillen: A restriction of the deed?

Mr. Grosso: Yes.

Commissioner Gillen: If it is in the deed he cannot violate the restrictions. Our permission would not give him the right to violate that.

Mayor Congleton: Because it changes the zoning it doesn't affect the property restrictions.

Commissioner Gillen: Not a bit.

Mr. Grosso: That is the only objection we have, on account of the hip roof.

Commissioner Howe: Aren't they building on it?

Commissioner Murray: That will stop the dumping on there.

Mr. Steib, are you willing to put a hip roof on this house—that is, a gable room, a sloping roof?

Mayor Congleton: He is only selling the land, as I understand it.

Mr. Grosso: You see, they come there with just a little cash.

Commissioner Murray: They cannot build a four-family house with a little cash to start on.

Mr. Grosso: Owners do that. All they got to do is to give the deed to the builder and then after that they get their money from the building and loan. When we went there we had the right to stay there in a two-family zone.

Mayor Congleton: I am opposed to flat roofs on these four-family houses.

Commissioner Murray: Include in the permit—

Mayor Congleton: This is not a permit; it is an ordinance changing the zoning so he can come in.

Commissioner Murray: If we do not build these houses in Newark the people will build them somewhere else and we will drive them out of Newark. God knows we need them.

Commissioner Gillen: Absolutely.

Mr. Grosso: The only inducement they got is because they got this ground on small cash, and this has been the curse of this city today.

Commissioner Howe: There are dozens of this kind of house built on Clinton Place, Osborne Street and around there which have not affected the street. I mean in the solid part of the street down between Lyons Avenue and Hawthorne Avenue. It hasn't affected the buildings across the street, which are all nice houses.

Mr. Grosso: Our restrictions said they must have hip roofs. Of course, they can do a house without that kind of roof with this ordinance in.

Mayor Congleton: If the deed says that they must have a hip roof and the builders do not put it on, you have your recourse. Our passing the ordinance does not in any fashion affect that.

Commissioner Gillen: His deeds are unrestricted, I am told.

Mr. Grosso: When you pass that ordinance they can build any kind of building.

Mayor Congleton: No, sir, not if there are property restrictions. Our ordinance doesn't have any effect on that deed at all.

Mr. Grosso: Mr. Mayor, they can go three blocks further, which is all four-families. Now, he is only going to put about three houses there and deprive about twenty landlords to put up these four houses.

Commissioner Gillen: Have you somebody ready to build, Mr. Steib?

Mr. John J. Steib: Yes. if I get four families.

Commissioner Gillen: How many houses?

Mr. Steib: Well, we got fourteen houses.

Commissioner Gillen: Fourteen?

Mr. Steib: Yes.

Commissioner Gillen: Both side of the Leslie block on the next street have four families.

Commissioner Murray: In the upper end of the street, Norman Road, Eastern Parkway, Sanford Place, Ivy Street, all those streets have four-family houses, and it is a very lovely section I don't see any objection to four-family houses, and they are not across the street from him, they are on the block behind him.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on this?

Mr. Grosso: The building and loan was supposed to have man here.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard? If not, the hearing will be closed.

There being no one else to be heard, Commissioner Howe moved that the hearing be closed.
